Keck, 1909 The Great Powers and the Decline of the European States System, 1914-1945 Graham Ross, 1983 The period between 1914 and 1945 continues to arouse acute historical controversy and detailed research into the foreign policies of the major powers has become a large scale industry This clear introduction maps the complex and changing patterns of international relations in this turbulent period provides a judicious synthesis of the increasing volume of modern research on it and guides the reader with a sure hand through the historiographical controversies which have arisen American Exceptionalism Vol 4 Timothy Roberts, Lindsay DiCuirci, 2017-07-05 American exceptionalism the idea that America is fundamentally distinct from other nations is a philosophy that has dominated economics politics religion and culture for two centuries This collection of primary source material seeks to understand how this belief began how it developed and why it remains popular Hometown Horizons Robert Allen Rutherford, 2004 In Hometown Horizons Robert Rutherford considers how people and communities on the Canadian home front perceived the Great War Drawing on newspaper archives and organizational documents he examines how farmers near Lethbridge Alberta shopkeepers in Guelph Ontario and civic workers in Trois Rivières Québec took part in local activities that connected their everyday lives to a tumultuous period in history Many important debates in social and cultural history are addressed including demonization of enemy aliens gendered fields of wartime philanthropy state authority and citizenship and commemoration and social memory The making of Canada's home front Rutherford argues was experienced fundamentally through local means City parades military send offs public school events women's war relief efforts and many other public exercises became the parochial lenses through which a distant war was viewed Like no other book before it this work argues that these experiences were the true realities of war and that the old maxim that truth is war's first victim needs to be understood even in the international and imperialistic Great War as a profoundly local phenomenon Hometown Horizons contributes to a growing body of work on the social and cultural histories of the First World War and challenges historians to consider the place of everyday modes of communication in forming collective understandings of world events This history of a war imagined will find an eager readership among social and military historians cultural studies scholars and anyone with an interest in wartime Canada Medieval European Coinage: Volume 14, South Italy, Sicily, Sardinia Philip Grierson, Mark A.
