The American antiquarian and oriental journal , 1886 Unbecoming British Kariann Akemi Yokota, 2010-11-23 From household objects to maps and ideas of race Kariann Yokota examines early US history through the lens of postcolonial theory While its leaders went to great lengths to establish their civility what really distinguished the new nation were its unlimited natural resources slavery and the displacement of native societies America in Literature and Film Ahmed Elbeshlawy, 2011 Utilizing Lacan s psychoanalytic theory and i ek s philosophical adaption of it this book brings into dialogue a series of literary works films and critical theory that are concerned with defining America Elbeshlawy demonstrates that texts which particularly focus on explaining how other texts about America communicate an unreliable message themselves communicate an untrustworthy message Writers and films discussed include Adorno Kafka Sontag Said Hassan Dogville and Birth of a Nation Musicians' Migratory Patterns: The African Drum as Symbol in Early America Christopher Johnson, 2019-10-16 Musicians Migratory Patterns The African Drum as Symbol in Early America questions the ban that was placed on the African drum in early America It shows the functional use of the drum for celebrations weddings funerals religious ceremonies and nonviolent communication The assumption that drums and horns were used to communicate in slave revolts is undone in this study Rather this volume seeks to consider the social place of the drum for both blacks and whites of the time using the writings of Europeans and colonial era Americans the accounts of African American free persons and slaves the period instruments and numerous illustrations of paintings and sculpture The image of the drum was effectively appropriated by Europeans and Americans who wrote about African American culture particularly in the nineteenth century and re appropriated by African American poets and painters in the early twentieth century who recreated a positive nationalist view of their African past Throughout human history cultural objects have been banned by one group to be used another objects that include books religious artifacts and ways of dress This study unlocks a metaphor that is at the root of racial bias the idea of what is primitive while offering a fresh approach by promoting the construct of multiple points of view for this social historical presentation
