African Feminism Gwendolyn Mikell,2010-08-03 African feminism this landmark volume demonstrates differs radically from the Western forms of feminism with which we have become familiar since the 1960s African feminists are not by and large concerned with issues such as female control over reproduction or variation and choice within human sexuality nor with debates about essentialism the female body or the discourse of patriarchy The feminism that is slowly emerging in Africa is distinctly heterosexual pronatal and concerned with bread butter and power issues Contributors present case studies of ten African states demonstrating that as they fight for access to land for the right to own property for control of food distribution for living wages and safe working conditions for health care and for election reform African women are creating a powerful and specifically African feminism

Transafrica Forum, 1986 The Bush Burnt, the Stones Remain Thera Rasing, 2002 Interpretation of female initiation rites among Christian women in contemporary urban Zambia These rites are examined in the context of socio-economic changes The emphasis is on ethnographic data gathered in the field Body and Affect in the Intercultural Encounter Devisch, Rene, 2017-01-17 The volume draws from Ren Devisch's encounters with groups in southsaharan Africa primarily The author had the privilege to immerse himself around the clock in the Yakaphones activities and thoughts in southwest DR Congo from 1972 to 1974 and intermittently in Kinshasa's shanty towns from 1986 to 2003 The author first examines what sparked his choice to come to Congo and then to pursue research among the Yakaphones in the borderland with Angola He then invites us to follow the trajectory of his plural anthropological view on today's multicentric world It leads us to his praise for honorary doctor Jean Marc Ela's work He then examines the proletarian outbursts of violence that rocked Congo's major cities in 1991 and 1993 These can be read as a settling of scores with the disillusioning colonial and missionary modernisation along with president Mobutu's millenarian Popular Movement of the Revolution Furthermore after considering the morose reduction of a major Yaka dancing mask into a mere museum bound curio in Antwerp the book unravels the Yakaphones perspectives on spirits and sorcery's threat It also analyses their commitment to classical Bantu African healing cults along with their parallel consulting physicians and healers By sharing the Yakaphones life world the analysis highlights their body group world weave interlaced by the principle of co resonance A phenomenological and perspectivist look unfolds the local actors views thereby disclosing the Bantu African genius and setting for a major reversal of perspectives Indeed seeing here from there allows the author to uncover some alienating dynamics at work in his native Belgian Flemish speaking culture To better grasp the realm of life beyond the speakable and factual reasoning the approach occasionally turns to the later Lacan's focus on the unconscious desire the body and its affects The book addresses students and researchers in the humanities and more broadly all those immersed in the heat of the encounter with the culturally different A Historical Introduction to the Study of New Religious Movements W. Michael Ashcraft, 2018-02-02 The American public's perception of New Religious Movements NRMs as fundamentally harmful cults stems from the anticult movement of the 1970s which gave a sometimes hysterical and often distorted image of NRMs to the media At the same time academics pioneered a new field studying these same NRMs from sociological and historical perspectives They offered an interpretation that ran counter to that of the anticult movement For these scholars in the new field of NRM studies NRMs were legitimate religions deserving of those freedoms granted to established religions Those scholars in NRM studies

continued to evolve methods and theories to study NRMs This book tells their story Each chapter begins with a biography of a key person involved in studying NRMs The narrative unfolds chronologically beginning with late nineteenth and early twentieth century perceptions of religions alternative to the mainstream Then the focus shifts to those early efforts in the 1960s and 1970s to comprehend the growing phenomena of cults or NRMs using the tools of academic disciplines The book's midpoint is a chapter that looks closely at the scholarship of the anticult movement and from there moves forward in time to the present highlighting themes in the study of NRMs like violence gender and reflexive ethnography No other book has used the scholars of NRMs as the focus for a study in this way The material in this volume is therefore a fascinating viewpoint from which to explore the origins of this vibrant academic community as well as analyse the practice of Religious Studies more generally
