Terrific Majesty The Powers Of Shaka Zulu And The Limits Of Historical Intvention:

Terrific Majesty Carolyn Hamilton, 2009-07 Since his assassination in 1828 King Shaka Zulu founder of the powerful Zulu kingdom and leader of the army that nearly toppled British colonial rule in South Africa has made his empire in popular imaginations throughout Africa and the West Shaka is today the hero of Zulu nationalism the centerpiece of Inkatha ideology a demon of apartheid the namesake of a South African theme park even the subject of a major TV film Terrific Majesty explores the reasons for the potency of Shaka's image examining the ways it has changed over time from colonial legend through Africanist idealization to modern cultural icon This study suggests that tradition cannot be freely invented either by European observers who recorded it or by subsequent African ideologues There are particular historical limits and constraints that operate on the activities of invention and imagination and give the various images of Shaka their power These insights are illustrated with subtlety and authority in a series of highly original analyses Terrific Majesty is an exceptional work whose special contribution lies in the methodological lessons it delivers above all its sophisticated rehabilitation of colonial sources for the precolonial period through the demonstration that colonial texts were critically shaped by indigenous African discourse With its sensitivity to recent critical studies the book will also have a wider resonance in the fields of history anthropology cultural studies and post colonial literature

Mapungubwe Reconsidered: A Living Legacy Shadreck Chirikure, Peter Delius, Amanda Esterhuysen, Simon Hall, Sekibakiba Lekgoathi, Maanda Maulaudzi, Vele Neluvhalani, Otsile Ntsoane, David Pearce, Karim Sadr, Jeanette Smith, Mapungubwe Institute for Strategic Reflection (MISTRA), 2015-10-01 The Mapungubwe Cultural Landscape is one of the profound treasures of southern Africa's social and archaeological history appropriately declared a World Heritage Site by the United Nations Educational Scientific and Cultural Organisation Unesco in 2003 Contained within this landscape is indispensable information on precolonial state formation social hierarchies architecture of stone walled towns mineral processing and intercontinental trade And yet the Mapungubwe state rose towered over its environs and then declined long before European colonial incursions Mapungubwe Reconsidered: A Living Legacy contributes to the body of knowledge about Mapungubwe straddling such issues as the relationships between humans and the environment management of mineral endowments and the form and impact of southern Africa's global intercourse in this historical period

The Transformation of the World Jürgen Osterhammel, 2015-09-15 A panoramic global history of the nineteenth century A monumental history of the nineteenth century The Transformation of the World offers a panoramic and multifaceted portrait of a world in transition Jürgen Osterhammel an eminent scholar who has been called the Braudel of the nineteenth century moves beyond conventional Eurocentric and chronological accounts of the era presenting instead a truly global history of breathtaking scope and towering erudition He examines the powerful and complex forces that drove global change during the long nineteenth century taking readers from New York to New Delhi from the Latin American revolutions to the Taiping Rebellion from the perils and promise of Europe's transatlantic labor markets to the hardships endured by nomadic tribal peoples across the planet Osterhammel describes a world increasingly networked by the telegraph the steamship and the railways He explores the changing relationship between human beings and nature looks at the importance of cities explains the role slavery and its abolition played in the emergence of new nations challenges the widely held belief that the nineteenth century witnessed the triumph of the nation state and much more This is the highly anticipated English edition of the spectacularly successful and critically acclaimed German book which is also being translated into Chinese Polish Russian and French Indispensable for any historian The Transformation of the World sheds important new light on this momentous epoch showing how the nineteenth century paved the way for the global catastrophes of the twentieth century yet how it also gave rise to pacifism liberalism the trade union and a host of other crucial developments

Wiki at War James Jay Carafano, 2012 In Wiki at War James Jay Carafano explains why these and other Internet born initiatives matter and how they are likely to affect the future face of war diplomacy and domestic politics

Wild Religion David Chidester, 2012-04-23 This book examines South Africa's political journey of the late twentieth and early twenty first century in the context of religious diversity and the recent revitalization of indigenous religion and rituals

Changing Histories Ryôta Nishino, 2011-06-16 The teaching of history in South African and Japanese schools has attracted sustained criticism for the alleged attempts to conceal the controversial aspects of their countries past and to inculcate ideologies favourable to the ruling regimes This book is the first attempt to systematically compare the ways in which education bureaucracy in both nations dealt with opposition and critics in the period from ca 1945 to 1995 when both countries were dominated by single party governments for most of the fifty years The author argues that both South African and Japanese education bureaucracy did not overtly express its intentions in the curriculum documents or in the textbooks but found ways to enhance its authority through a range of often subtle measures A total of eight themes in 60 officially approved Standard 6 South African and Japanese middle school history textbooks have been selected to demonstrate the changes and continuity This work hopes to contribute to the existing literature of comparative history by drawing lessons that would probably not have emerged from the study of either country by itself The dissertation won a publication prize at Georg Eckert Institute for Textbook Research

Gendering Ethnicity in African Women's Lives Jan Bender Shetler, 2015-05-05 The elegists ancient Rome's most introspective poets filled their works with vivid first person accounts of dreams Emma Scioli examines these varied and visually striking textual dreamscapes arguing that the poets exploited dynamics of visual representation to share with readers the intensely personal experience of dreaming

American Claimants Sarah Meer, 2020-05-14 This book recovers a major nineteenth century literary figure the American Claimant For over a century claimants offered a compelling way to understand cultural difference across the Anglophone Atlantic especially between Britain and the United States They also formed a political talisman invoked against slavery and segregation or privileges of gender and class Later claimants were exported to South Africa becoming the fictional form for explaining black students who acquired American degrees American Claimants traces the figure back to lost heir romance and explores its uses These encompassed real imagined and textual ideas of inheritance for writers and editors and also for missionaries artists and students The claimant dramatized tensions between tradition and change or questions of exclusion and power it offered ways of seeing activism education sculpture and dress The premise for dozens of novels and plays a trope a joke even the basis for real claims claimants matter in theatre history and periodical studies they touch on literary marketing and reprinting and they illuminate some unexpected texts These range from Our American Cousin to Bleak House Little Lord Fauntleroy to Frederick Douglass Paper writers discussed include Frances Trollope Julia Griffiths Alexander Crummell John Dube James McCune Smith Nathaniel Hawthorne and Mark Twain The focus on claimants yields remarkable finds new faces fresh angles a lost column and a forgotten theatrical genre It reveals the pervasiveness of this form and its centrality in imagining cultural contact and exchange

The Dead will Arise Jeff Peires,2013-06-07 The Dead Will Arise tells the story of Nongqawuse the young Xhosa girl whose prophecy of the resurrection of the dead lured an entire people to death by starvation The Great Cattle Killing of 1856 57 which she initiated is one of the most extraordinary and misunderstood events in South Africa s history Jeff Peires was the first historian to draw on all available sources from oral tradition and obscure Xhosa texts to the private letters and secret reports of police informers and colonial officials and the original edition of The Dead Will Arise won the 1989 Alan Paton Sunday Times award for non fiction

The People's Paper Peter Limb,2012-09-01 This much awaited volume uncovers the long lost pages of the major African multilingual newspaper Abantu Batho Founded in 1912 by African National Congress ANC convenor Pixley Seme with assistance from the Swazi Queen it was published up until 1931 attracting the cream of African politicians journalists and poets Mqhayi Nontsisi Mqgweth and Grendon In its pages burning issues of the day were articulated alongside cultural by ways The People s Paper comprising both essays and an anthology explores the complex movements and individuals that emerged in the almost twenty years of its publication The essays contribute rich new material to provide clearer insights into South African politics and intellectual life The anthology unveils a judicious selection of never before published columns from the paper spanning every year of its life and drawn from repositories on three continents Abantu Batho had a regional and international focus and by examining all these dynamics across boundaries and disciplines The People s Paper transcends established historiographical frontiers to fill a lacuna that scholars have long lamented

Rorke's Drift and Isandlwana Ian Frederick William Beckett,2019 The story of Isandlwana the battle that shocked the British empire at its zenith and Rorke s Drift which immediately followed it and went some way to restoring wounded British pride how they were fought how they have been remembered and what they mean for us today

Culture, Health and Sexuality Peter Aggleton,Richard Parker,Felicity Thomas,2015-04-24 The last twenty years have seen a growth in multi disciplinary work in the area of sexuality culture and health What was once a set of specialist concerns has been steadily mainstreamed Alongside this a broader interest has developed in social and cultural factors relating to sexuality and sexual health from family planning and STI management to gender and intimate partner violence and the technologisation of sex This book offers a research based overview of key topics relevant to social and cultural perspectives on sexuality and sexual health Beginning with an extended introduction and divided into six sections it looks at culture sex and gender sexual diversity sex work migration and sexual violence Each section opens with an editorial discussion which places the theme and the chapters that follow in a contemporary context Six additional substantive chapters can be accessed online at www.routledge.com/cw/aggleton Including cutting edge conceptual and empirical material from around the world this is a key resource for students in and across a variety of academic disciplines in the social and health sciences It is especially suitable for readers from sexuality studies gender studies development studies anthropology and sociology as well as those with public health and social work backgrounds Beyond the Cultural Turn Richard Biernacki, 1999-07-05 A collection of engaging essays that look specifically at the effect of culturalism on history and sociology and propose new directions in the theory and practice of research Love in the Time of AIDS Mark Hunter, 2021-12-22 In some parts of South Africa more than one in three people are HIV positive Love in the Time of AIDS explores transformations in notions of gender and intimacy to try to understand the roots of this virulent epidemic By living in an informal settlement and collecting love letters cell phone text messages oral histories and archival materials Mark Hunter details the everyday social inequalities that have resulted in untimely deaths Hunter shows how first apartheid and then chronic unemployment have become entangled with ideas about femininity masculinity love and sex and have created an economy of exchange that perpetuates the transmission of HIV AIDS This sobering ethnography challenges conventional understandings of HIV AIDS in South Africa An Age of Hubris Timothy Keegan, 2023-07-05 An Age of Hubris is the first comprehensive overview of the impact of missionary enterprise on the Xhosa chiefdoms of South Africa in the first half of the nineteenth century chronicling a world punctuated by war and millenarian eruptions and the steady encroachment of settler land hunger and colonial hegemony With it Timothy Keegan contributes new approaches to Xhosa history and most important a new dimension to the much trodden but still vital topic of the impact cultural social and political of missionary activity among African peoples The most significant historical works on the Xhosa have either become dated foreground imperial colonial history or remain heavily theoretical in nature In contrast Keegan draws fruitfully on the rich Africanist comparative and anthropological literature now available as well as extant primary sources to foreground the Xhosa themselves in this crucial work In so doing he highlights the ways in which Africans utilized new ideas resources and practices to make sense of react to and resist the forces of colonial dispossession confronting them emphasizing missionary frustration and African agency Text and Authority in the South African Nazareth Church Joel Cabrita, 2014-04-24 This book tells the story of one of the largest and most influential African churches in South Africa Royal tourists, colonial subjects and the making of a British world, 1860-1911 Charles Reed, 2016-02-01 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license This study examines the ritual space of nineteenth century royal tours of empire and the diverse array of historical actors who participated in them It suggests that the varied responses to the royal tours of the nineteenth century demonstrate how a multi centred British imperial culture was forged in the empire and was constantly made and remade appropriated and contested In this context subjects of empire provincialised the British Isles centring the colonies in their political and cultural constructions of empire Britishness citizenship and loyalty

Print Culture in Southern Africa Caroline Davis, Archie Dick, Elizabeth le Roux, Dennis Walder, 2021-07-29 Print Culture in Southern Africa is concerned with the institutions and processes informing textual production circulation and consumption in the region over a broad historical period from the late 18th century to the present day The book is organised around three closely related themes Firstly it presents original research into the formation of reading publics and the impact of reading cultures by uncovering obscure but important reading communities and circuits of book distribution and reception A second theme is the relationship between print and politics with a particular focus on the networks of power how control over the production and circulation of printed books has shaped literary and cultural development The third theme is transnational print culture and how the control exercised by publishers in Europe and America has shaped literature and society in southern Africa Drawing together interdisciplinary research and diverse methodologies the collection encompasses a range of perspectives including literary studies anthropology publishing studies the history of the book and art history and many of the chapters are based on previously unexamined archives and collections The volume contributes to current debates and opens up new and exciting ways of furthering the study of postcolonial literature and African book history The chapters included in this book were originally published in the Journal of Southern African Studies

The Politics of Heritage in Africa Derek R. Peterson, Kodzo Gavua, Ciraj Rassool, 2015-03-02 Heritage work has had a uniquely wide currency in Africa's politics Secure within the pages of books encoded in legal statutes encased in glass display cases and enacted in the panoply of court ritual the artefacts produced by the heritage domain have become a resource for government administration a library for traditionalists and a marketable source of value for cultural entrepreneurs The Politics of Heritage in Africa draws together disparate fields of study history archaeology linguistics the performing arts and cinema to show how the lifeways of the past were made into capital a store of authentic knowledge that political and cultural entrepreneurs could draw from This book shows African heritage to be a mode of political organisation a means by which the relics of the past are shored up reconstructed and revalued as commodities as tradition as morality or as patrimony

War of Words, War of Stones Jonathon Glassman, 2011-02-21 The Swahili coast of Africa is often described as a paragon of transnational culture and racial fluidity Yet during a brief period in the 1960s Zanzibar became deeply divided along racial lines as intellectuals and activists engaged in bitter debates about their nation's future ignited a deadly conflict that spread across the island War of Words War of Stones explores how violently enforced racial boundaries arose from Zanzibar's entangled history Jonathon Glassman challenges explanations that assume racial thinking in the colonial world reflected only Western ideas He shows how Africans crafted competing ways of categorizing race from local tradition and engagement with the Atlantic and Indian Ocean worlds
