Territory The Claiming Of Space:

Territory David Storey, 2001 Territories Nations States and the Claiming of Space provides a comprehensive introduction to theories of territoriality and the geographical outcomes of territorial control Chapter topics cover territory and territoriality the state nations and nationalism nationalism and the importance of place future of the sovereign state sub state territorial divisions and territory and locality For individuals with an interest in political geography Territories David Storey, 2024-07-30 The book provides an introduction to the concept of territory the ways in which ideologies and social practices are manifested in space the deployment of territorial strategies and the geographical outcomes of these

The Tuning of Place Richard Coyne, 2010-03-26 How pervasive digital devices smartphones iPods GPS navigation systems and their networks us formulate a sense of place and refine social relationships How do pervasive digital devices smartphones iPods GPS navigation systems and cameras among others influence the way we use spaces In The Tuning of Place Richard Coyne argues that these ubiquitous devices and the networks that support them become the means of making incremental adjustments within spaces of tuning place Pervasive media help us formulate a sense of place writes Coyne through their capacity to introduce small changes in the same way that tuning a musical instrument invokes the subtle process of recalibration Places are inhabited spaces populated by people their concerns memories stories conversations encounters and artifacts The tuning of place whereby people use their devices in their interactions with one another is also a tuning of social relations The range of ubiquity is vast from the familiar phones and hand held devices through RFID tags smart badges dynamic signage microprocessors in cars and kitchen appliances wearable computing and prosthetics to devices still in development Rather than catalog achievements and predictions Coyne offers a theoretical framework for discussing pervasive media that can inform developers designers and users as they contemplate interventions into the environment Processes of tuning can lead to consideration of themes highly relevant to pervasive computing intervention calibration wedges habits rhythm tags taps tactics thresholds aggregation noise and interference Territories David Storey, 2012-03-15 Politics and political relationships underpin the world we live in From the division of the earth's surface into separate states to the placement of keep out signs territorial strategies to control geographic space can be used to assert maintain or resist power and as a force for oppression or liberation Forms of exclusion can be consolidated and reinforced through territorial practices yet they can also be resisted through similar means Territoriality can be seen as the spatial expression of power with borders dividing those inside from those outside The extensively revised and updated second edition continues to provide an introduction to theories of territoriality and the outcomes of territorial control and resistance It explores the construction of territories and the conflicts which often result using a range of examples drawn from various spatial scales and from many different countries It ranges in coverage from conflicts over national territory such as Israel Palestine Northern Ireland South Ossetia to divisions of space based around class gender and race While retaining the key elements of the first edition this new edition covers contemporary debates on nationalism territorialization globalization and borders It updates the factual content to explore the territorial consequences of 9 11 the war on terror and the conflicts in Iraq and Afghanistan It also examines migration refugees the territorial expansion of the European Union and territorial divisions in the home and workplace The book emphasizes the underlying processes associated with territorial strategies and raises important questions relating to place culture and identity Key questions emerge concerning geographic space who is allowed to be in particular spaces and who is barred discouraged or excluded Written from a geographical perspective the book is inter disciplinary drawing on ideas and material from a range of academic disciplines including history political science sociology international relations cultural studies Each chapter contains boxed case studies illustrations and guides to further reading

Spaces of Enslavement Andrea C. Mosterman, 2021-10-15 In Spaces of Enslavement Andrea C Mosterman addresses the persistent myth that the colonial Dutch system of slavery was more humane Investigating practices of enslavement in New Netherland and then in New York Mosterman shows that these ways of racialized spatial control held much in common with the southern plantation societies In the 1620s Dutch colonial settlers brought slavery to the banks of the Hudson River and founded communities from New Amsterdam in the south to Beverwijck near the terminus of the navigable river When Dutch power in North America collapsed and the colony came under English control in 1664 Dutch descendants continued to rely on enslaved labor Until 1827 when slavery was abolished in New York State slavery expanded in the region with all free New Yorkers benefitting from that servitude Mosterman describes how the movements of enslaved persons were controlled in homes and in public spaces such as workshops courts and churches She addresses how enslaved people responded to regimes of control by escaping from or modifying these spaces so as to expand their activities within them Through a close analysis of homes churches and public spaces Mosterman shows that over the course of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries the region s Dutch communities were engaged in a daily struggle with Black New Yorkers who found ways to claim freedom and resist oppression Spaces of Enslavement writes a critical and overdue chapter on the place of slavery and resistance in the colony and young state of New York Hunch Berlage Instituut, 2002-02

Advanced Musical Performance: Investigations in Higher Education Learning Ioulia Papageorgi, Graham Welch, 2016-03-23 To reach the highest standards of instrumental performance several years of sustained and focused learning are required This requires perseverance commitment and opportunities to learn and practise often in a collective musical environment This book brings together a wide range of enlightening current psychological and educational research to offer deeper insights into the mosaic of factors and related experiences that combine to nurture and sometimes hinder advanced musical performance Each of the book s four sections focus on one aspect of music performance and learning musics in higher education and beyond musical journeys and educational reflections performance learning and developing expertise and professionalism Although each chapter within its home section offers a particular focus there is an underlying conception across all the book's contents of the achievability of advanced musical performance and of the important nurturing role that higher education can play particularly if policy and practice are evidence based and draw on the latest international research findings The narrative offers an insight into the world of advanced musicians detailing their learning journeys and the processes involved in their quest for the development of expertise and professionalism It is the first book of its kind to consider performance learning in higher education across a variety of musical genres including classical jazz popular and folk musics The editors have invited an international community of leading scholars and performance practitioners to contribute to this publication which draws on meticulous research and critical practice This collection is an essential resource for all musicians educators researchers and policy makers who share our interest in promoting the development of advanced performance skills and professionalism Report to the National Aeronautics and Space Administration on the Law of Outer Space American Bar Foundation, Leon Lipson, Nicholas deBelleville Katzenbach, 1961

Astropolitik Everett C. Dolman, 2005-07-15 This volume identifies and evaluates the relationship between outer space geography and geographic position astrogeography and the evolution of current and future military space strategy In doing so it explores five primary propositions Power and Space Josefine Fokdal, 2008 Architects are creators of places Spaces are produced by the social practice of the user within places Thus the user is brought into the picture as a producer of space whereas architects are classified as producers of place The book addresses the notion of power relations within undefined spaces of transition through case study documentations and by analyzing individual and common expressions in four social housing projects in greater Copenhagen Understanding the struggle of power relations can help identify an interest articulated by the user The articulations are made by means of additions that are placed within the spaces of transition The conclusion that can be drawn is that power relations should be recognized by architects as a phenomenon of the dominating aspect of architecture Neglecting to consider this domination in the conception of residential housing projects has a large impact on the user and his/her possibilities for practicing social interactions Privatizing Peace Wendy N. Whitman Cobb, 2020-06-15 This book explores the privatization of space and its global impact on the future of commerce peace and conflict As space becomes more congested contested and competitive in the government and the private arenas the talk around space research moves past NASA's monopoly on academic and cultural imaginations to discuss how Elon Musk's SpaceX and Jeff Bezos Blue Origin is making space cool again This volume addresses the new rhetoric of space race and weaponization with a focus on how the costs of potential conflict in space would discourage open conflict and enable global cooperation It highlights the increasing dependence of the global economy on space research its democratization plunging costs of access and growing economic potential of space based assets Thoughtful nuanced well documented this book is a must read for scholars and researchers of science and technology studies space studies political studies sociology environmental studies and political economy It will also be of much interest to policymakers bureaucrats think tanks as well as the interested general reader looking for fresh perspectives on the future of space Making Places for People Christie Johnson Coffin, Jenny Young, 2017-02-10 Honorable Mention at the 2019 ERDA Great Places Awards Making Places for People explores twelve social questions in environmental design Authors Christie Johnson Coffin and Jenny Young bring perspectives from practice and teaching to challenge assumptions about how places meet human needs The book reveals deeper complexities in addressing basic questions such as What is the story of this place What logic orders it How big is it How sustainable is it Providing an overview of a growing body of knowledge about people and places Making Places for People stimulates curiosity and further discussion The authors argue that critical understanding of the relationships between people and their built environments can inspire designs that better contribute to health human performance and social equity bringing meaning and delight to people s lives Rethinking the Chicano Movement Marc Simon Rodriguez, 2014-11-13 In the 1960s and 1970s an energetic new social movement emerged among Mexican Americans Fighting for civil rights and celebrating a distinct ethnic identity the Chicano Movement had a lasting impact on the United States from desegregation to bilingual education Rethinking the Chicano Movement provides an astute and accessible introduction to this vital grassroots movement Bringing together different fields of research this comprehensive yet concise narrative considers the Chicano Movement as a national not just regional phenomenon and places it alongside the other important social movements of the era Rodriguez details the many different facets of the Chicano movement including college campuses third party politics media and art and traces the development and impact of one of the most important post WWII social movements in the United States Claiming Space Cheryl Teelucksingh, 2006-05-29 Claiming Space Racialization in Canadian Cities critically examines the various ways in which Canadian cities continue to be racialized despite objective evidence of racial diversity and the dominant ideology of multiculturalism Contributors consider how spatial conditions in Canadian cities are simultaneously part of and influenced by racial domination and racial resistance Reflecting on the ways in which race is systematically hidden within the workings of Canadian cities the book also explores the ways in which racialized people attempt to claim space These essays cover a diverse range of Canadian urban spaces and various racial groups as well as the intersection of ethnicity class gender and sexuality Linking themes include issues related to subjectivity and space the importance of new space that arises by challenging the dominant ideology of multiculturalism and the relationship between diasporic identities and claims to space Space Law in the United Nations Marietta Benkè, Willelm de Graaff, Gijsbertha Cornelia Maria Reijnen, 1985-05-06 Space Law A Case Study for the Practitioner Implementing a Telecommunications Satellite Business Concept concentrates on the law governing commercial space ventures commercial telecommunications satellite projects in particular The telecommunications satellite industry is by far the most mature of all the commercial space industries with a commensurate body of law governing it many of the same types of regulatory processes private law transactions discussed in this book also pertain to the implementation of other commercial even non commercial military space ventures The reader will find a clear description of the necessary legal actions lawyer client must take to provide for the construction launching operation of a privately owned telecommunications satellite Both international national laws regulations pertaining to space projects are discussed A step by step approach to legal actions has been adopted to help make the book a practical easy to use reference tool It is designed to assist lawyers in private practice government attorneys corporate legal counsel entrepreneurial executives teachers students of space law

Sovereign Rights and Territorial Space in Sino-Japanese Relations Unryu Suganuma, 2001-03-01 In September 1996 members of the right wing Japan Youth Federation repaired a lighthouse on one of the Diaoyu J Senkaku Islands a small group of uninhabited islets north of Taiwan in the Liuqiu J Ryukyu chain known today as Okinawa For months outraged ethnic Chinese in Hong Kong and Taiwan protested Japan's presence in the islands and violent confrontations between protesters and the Japanese Marine Self Defense Force resulted Tension over these incidents has subsided since 1996 but the sovereignty of the islands remains a concern for both China and Japan The long and complex history of relations between the two countries has made the problem difficult to resolve This volatile situation has been further complicated by the involvement of other countries including the U S Although the Diaoyu Senkaku matter may be characterized as a simple territorial dispute between two nations it exposes complicated geopolitical relations among Japan China Taiwan and the U S in the Asia Pacific region

Sovereign Rights and Territorial Space in Sino Japanese Relations is an investigation of the highly topical issues involved in the Diaoyu Senkaku confrontation It begins by addressing the issue of the historical development of the dispute To whom do the islands belong When did China and Japan become involved Does historical evidence prove who has sovereignty over the islands How has irredentism the claim to territory based on one or another historical right become a major state policy in both countries Other issues center on Chinese views of sovereignty and methods of delimiting territorial boundaries during the Ming and Qing periods the Chinese concept of hegemony and the history behind the deep mistrust that permeates Sino Japanese relations Finally the author discloses the interwoven relationship between geography and history in East Asia Chinese and Japanese geographers have for centuries been engaged in historical analyses of the islands Their work which has been used in the development of national security and diplomatic policies is an important resource and one that this book makes available to Western scholars for the first time In addition to his careful examination of these and other sources Suganuma utilizes theoretical writings on geographical irredentism to expose the biases of recent work on the Diaoyu Senkaku dispute This volume is the fullest scholarly treatment that the contested issue of the Diaoyu Senkaku Islands has received to date in any language It contains much of interest for historians of modern China and Japan as well as for political scientists looking for new insights into international relations and Sino Japanese interactions No one who reads it will look at sovereignty in the same way again
