differences From artworks that incorporate new media techniques to collective activism Papastergiadis claims that there is a new cosmopolitan imaginary that challenges the conventional divide between art and politics Through the analysis of artistic practices across the globe this book extends the debates on culture and cosmopolitanism from the ethics of living with strangers to the aesthetics of imagining alternative visions of the world Timely and wide ranging this book will be essential reading for students and scholars in sociology and cultural studies and will be of interest to anyone concerned with the changing forms of art and culture in our contemporary global age

A Poetics of Trauma after 9/11 Katharina Donn,2016-10-04 The 9 11 attacks brought large scale violence into the 21st century with force and have come to epitomize the entanglement of intimate vulnerability and virtual spectacle that is typical of the globalized present This book works at the intersection of trauma studies affect theory and literary studies to offer radically new interpretive frames for interrogating the challenges inherent in representing the initial moments of the terrorist encounter Beyond the paradigm of traumatic unspeakability post 9 11 texts expose the materiality of the human body in its universal vulnerability The intersubjective empathy this engenders is politically subversive as it undermines the discourse of historical singularity and exceptionalism by establishing a global network of reference and dialogue Innovative theoretical interconnections between clinical pathology concepts of cultural trauma and political aesthetics lay the foundations for exploring formally and geographically diverse texts Close readings of works by Jonathan Safran Foer Art Spiegelman Don DeLillo and William Gibson map the relationship between representations of 9 11 and complex aspects of trauma theory This detailed approach makes a case for revisiting trauma theory and bringing its Freudian origins into the digitized present It showcases trauma as a physical and psychological wound as well as an experience that is simultaneously pre discursive and inhibited by the virtuality of the present day real Exploring how contemporary trauma studies can take into account the digitization and virtuality of present day realities this book is a key intervention in establishing a contemporary ethics of witnessing terror    Terror John Carroll,2002 No Marketing Blurb    EcoGothic Andrew Smith,William Hughes,2015-11-01 This book will provide the first study of how the Gothic engages with ecocritical ideas Ecocriticism has frequently explored images of environmental catastrophe the wilderness the idea of home constructions of nature and images of the post apocalypse images which are also central to a certain type of Gothic literature By exploring the relationship between the ecocritical aspects of the Gothic and the Gothic elements of the ecocritical this book provides a new way of looking at both the Gothic and ecocriticism Writers discussed include Ann Radcliffe Mary Shelley Ambrose Bierce Algernon Blackwood Margaret Atwood Cormac McCarthy Dan Simmons and Rana Dasgupta The volume thus explores writing and film across various national contexts including Britain America and Canada as well as giving due consideration to how such issues might be discussed within a global context    Mixed Emotions Andrew A. G.

Ross,2022-12-22 In recent years it's become increasingly clear that emotion plays a central role in global politics For example people readily care about acts of terrorism and humanitarian crises because they appeal to our compassion for human suffering These struggles also command attention where social interactions have the power to produce or intensify the emotional responses of those who participate in them From passionate protests to poignant speeches Andrew A G Ross analyzes high emotion events with an eye to how they shape public sentiment and finds that there is no single answer The politically powerful play to the public's emotions to advance their political aims and such appeals to emotion also often serve to sustain existing values and institutions But the affective dimension can produce profound change particularly when a struggle in the present can be shown to line up with emotionally resonant events from the past Extending his findings to well studied conflicts including the War on Terror and the violence in Rwanda and the Balkans Ross identifies important sites of emotional impact missed by earlier research focused on identities and interests    Mental Health: Psycho-Social Perspectives Aradhana Shukla,Anubhuti Dubey,2015-01-01 About the Series Mental health issues are the burning concern today because they work hard to make an equilibrium in a person In this series various aspect and dimensions of mental health has been taken and they are classified in four volumes Volume One deals with psychological issues and interventions regarding mental health It is followed by the Second Volume in which an exhaustive analysis of the mental health of multi cultural societies has been made The Third Volume deals with the strengths and resources that facilitate mental health Fourth Volume is related with psychological treatment and therapeutic exercises used as in mental health promotion programmes We hope that the series will be appreciated by the researchers teachers and mental health professionals of psychology About the Volume This is the second volume of our series on mental health In this volume studies of mental health in various groups are presented in terms of review based papers or empirical studies It consists of seventeen articles based on different social strata At last a challenge for psychologist is also mentioned who want to introduce the strategy of positive mental health of the society     The Roots of Morality Maxine Sheets-Johnstone,2010-11-01
