Sex, Skulls, and Citizens Ashley Elizabeth Kerr, 2020-03-15 PROSE Awards Subject Category Finalist Biological Anthropology Ancient History and Archaeology 2021 Best Nineteenth Century Book Award Latin American Studies Association Nineteenth Century Section 2021 Analyzing a wide variety of late nineteenth century sources Sex Skulls and Citizens argues that Argentine scientific projects of the era were not just racial encounters but were also conditioned by sexual relationships in all their messy physical reality The writers studied here an eclectic group of scientists anthropologists and novelists including Estanislao Zeballos Lucio and Eduarda Mansilla Ram n Lista and Florence Dixie reflect on Indigenous sexual practices analyze the advisability and effects of interracial sex and use the language of desire to narrate encounters with Indigenous peoples as they try to scientifically pinpoint Argentina s racial identity and future potential Kerr s reach extends into history of science literary studies and history of anthropology illuminating a scholarly time and place in which the lines betwixt were much blurrier if they existed at all

Trans/acting Jacqueline Eyring Bixler, Laurietz Seda, 2009 This collection offer a series of new essays authored by leading scholars of Latin American and U S Latino theater as well as the performance script Mexterminator vs The Global Predator written by Guillermo Gomez Pena The fourteen essays focus on contemporary Latin American and U S Latino plays and performances and challenge the meanings of genre gender race cultural identity and performance itself in the context of globalization and shifting borders The concept of trans acting a term that connotes negotiation and or exchange provides the framework for essays that include such topics as tansculturation transnationalism transgender transgenre translation and adaptation These individual studies of contemporary theater and performance arts are complimented by trans actor Gomez Pena s Mexterminator vs The Global Predator a striking transgressive script that underscores the performance nature of territorial and symbolic border crossings Jacqueline Bixler is Alumni Distinguished Professor of Spanish at Virginia Tech Laurietz Seda is Associate Professor of Spanish at the University of Connecticut Storrs

Figural Conquistadors Mark A. Hernández, 2006 He demonstrates how these novelists use major and marginal figures to reflect upon the ways that institutional powers invoke episodes from the discovery and conquest to legitimate the present and also to critique the recent historical past especially in the case of Uruguay and Argentina which endured military dictatorships in the 1970s and 1980s Jacket

Latin American Science Fiction M. Ginway, J. Brown, 2012-12-05 Combining work by critics from Latin America the USA and Europe Latin American Science Fiction Theory and Practice is the first anthology of articles in English to examine science fiction in all of Latin America from Mexico and the Caribbean to Brazil and the Southern Cone Using a variety of sophisticated theoretical approaches the book explores not merely the development of a science fiction tradition in the region but more importantly the intricate ways in which this tradition has engaged with the most important cultural and literary debates of recent year

Out of Bounds Dara E. Goldman, 2008 Out of Bounds teases out the intricacies of a territorial conception of nationhood in the context of a global reorganization that ostensibly renders historical boundaries irrelevant Hispanic Caribbean writers have traditionally pointed toward the supposed perfect equivalence of island and nation and have explained local culture as a direct consequence of that equation The major social political and demographic shifts of the twentieth century increasingly call this equation into question yet authors continue to assert its existence and its centrality in the evolution of Caribbean identity The author contends that traditional forms of identification have not been eviscerated by globalization instead they have persisted and in some cases have been intensified by recent geopolitical shifts Out of Bounds underscores the ongoing role of the nation as the site of identity formation In this manner the book presents Hispanic Caribbean cultural production as a case study that acutely dramatizes the paradoxical status of traditional demarcations of self definition in an increasingly globalized context

Sacred Eroticism Juan Carlos Ubilluz, 2006 Sacred Eroticism addresses a neglected chapter in Latin American literature namely the influence of Georges Bataille and Pierre Klossowski's atheist mysticism in the Latin American erotic novel of the twentieth century Combining a Lacanian analytical framework with an intertextualist approach Juan Carlos Ubilluz reveals how Julio Cortázar Salvador Elizondo Mario Vargas Llosa and Juan García Ponce adopted Bataille and Klossowski's aesthetic and philosophical models as a point of departure to rearticulate the modern subject's buried dimension of the sacred through various innovations on the erotic novel's form Ubilluz examines the dialectical irruption of these literary experiments into their particular aesthetic theoretical and political contexts showing for instance that Cortázar's

Comedy and Social Science Cate Watson, 2015-06-12 While there have been many sociological and psychological studies of humor few can claim to be funny Humor may be regarded as a legitimate topic for social scientists but in general they present their research rather seriously In academia humor tends to be trivialized and dismissed This is more than just a missed opportunity for otherwise fun loving academics In literature it is readily accepted that comedy is integral to the human condition To ignore humor is to reject a potentially insightful methodological approach as the humorous worldview presents unique opportunities for investigating the social This book constitutes a unique resource presenting chapters on irony satire and parody as tools for analysis and means of representation as well as considering humor in the conduct of research and offering guidance on getting published Through presenting examples from across the social sciences the book seeks to persuade and inspire rather than to prescribe an approach a closure which would ironically be inimical to the multiplicity and ambiguity which characterizes humorous research and lends it its distinctive edge

From Lack to Excess Yolanda Martínez-San Miguel, 2008 From Lack to Excess analyzes the narrative and rhetorical structures of Latin American colonial texts by establishing a dialogue with studies on minority discourse minor literatures and postcolonial theory After reviewing the main contributions and limitations of Transatlantic Early Modern and Postcolonial studies for the interpretation of Latin American colonial textualities Martínez San Miguel takes as a point of departure the subtle yet pervasive semantic link between the terms minority and colonialism prevalent in current studies on ethnic and sexual identities She then engages the disciplinary debate between Colonial Latin American studies and Early Modern Transatlantic and Postcolonial studies paying attention to the epistemic and institutional junctures that explain the current reconfiguration of these fields As an alternative to an exhausted debate Martinez San Miguel uses Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari's notion of a minor literature along with current studies on minority discourse to propose new close readings of texts by Hernan Cortes Alvar Nunez Cabeza de Vaca the Inca Garcilaso de la Vega Carlos de Siguenza y Gongora and Sor Juana Ines de la Cruz From Lack to Excess traces a discursive voyage that configures a linguistic matrix from the initial lack of language to the excessive Baroque representation of American reality BOOK JACKET

City Fictions Amanda Holmes, 2007 Using concepts from urban and cultural studies City Fictions examines the representation of the city in the works of five important late twentieth century Spanish American authors Octavio Paz Julio Cortazar Christina Peri Rossi Diamela Eltit and Carlos Monsivais While each of these authors is influenced at least partially by a specific Spanish American city be it Mexico City Buenos Aires Montevideo or Santiago the element that brings them together is the way in which the city is fictionalized in their work they all equate both language and the body with urban space In these metaphors language breaks down and the body disintegrates creating a disturbing picture of violent decline The poetry of Paz associates the urban surroundings with dissolving sentences and desensitized fingertips for Cortazar characters walking through cities are seen as both creating and unraveling written texts Creating the Hybrid Intellectual Anne Lambright, 2007 A contribution to the study of Peruvian anthropologist and creative writer Jose Maria Arguedas It asserts that it is through reading the role and trajectory of the feminine in Arguedian narrative that we can best understand the author's national vision Local Babies, Global Science Marcia C. Inhorn, 2012-11-12 In the late 1990s Egypt experienced a boom period in in vitro fertilization IVF technology and now boasts more IVF clinics than neighboring Israel In this book Marcia Inhorn writes of her fieldwork among affluent elite couples who sought in vitro fertilization in Egypt a country which is not only at the forefront of IVF technology in the Middle East but also a center of Islamic education in the region Inhorn examines the gender scientific religious and cultural ramifications of the transfer of IVF technology from Euro American points of origin to Egypt showing how cultural ideas reshape the use of this technology and in turn how the technology is reshaping cultural ideas in Egypt Embodying Resistance Dianne Marie Zandstra, 2007 This book traces narrative strategies in Griselda Gambaro's novels to the grotesco criollo and to the broader grotesque tradition These are analyzed with an emphasis on their critique of social relationships within the Argentine political system and male Home is where the (he)art is Sharon Magnarelli, 2008 Sharon Magnarelli's contribution to the critical dialogue on Spanish American literature offers fresh new reading of plays that have already attracted significant critical attention as well as insightful analyses of others that have seldom been studied Public Administration J. C. N. Raadschelders, 2013-05-16 The book examines the history and development of public administration the study of the internal structure and functioning of government and its interaction with society and its citizens It surveys different approaches to the field and the methodological and epistemological issues surrounding an interdisciplinary applied social science The Joy of Pain Richard H. Smith, 2013-07-02 Few people confess easily to taking pleasure in the misfortunes of others Maybe this is why there is no word for the feeling in English And so schadenfreude that beguiling German word is borrowed to label the experience This book written by one of the world's foremost scholars of envy and shame explores the emotion we dare not admit Although schadenfreude is hardly a feeling to nourish in oneself or to encourage as a cultural habit Smith argues that there is no getting rid of it when the misfortunes of others can lead to our benefit Indeed schadenfreude can be sweet revenge when it is personal but as Smith argues in a fascinating exploration of anti-Semitism in the 20th century that concludes the book this passive thrill can lead to devastating consequences Motherhood in Literature and Culture Gill Rye, Victoria Browne, Adalgisa Giorgio, Emily Jeremiah, Abigail Lee Six, 2017-06-26 Motherhood remains a complex and contested issue in feminist research as well as public discussion This interdisciplinary volume explores cultural representations of motherhood in various contemporary European contexts including France Italy Germany Portugal Spain and the UK and it considers how such representations affect the ways in which different individuals and groups negotiate motherhood as both institution and lived experience It has a particular focus on literature but it also includes essays that examine representations of motherhood in philosophy art social policy and film The book's driving contention is that through intersecting with other fields and disciplines literature and the study of literature have an important role to play in nuancing dialogues around motherhood by offering challenging insights and imaginative responses to complex problems and experiences This is demonstrated throughout the volume which covers a range of topics including discursive and visual depictions of pregnancy and birth the impact of new reproductive technologies on changing family configurations the relationship between mothering and citizenship the shaping of policy imperatives regarding mothering and disability and the difficult realities of miscarriage child death violence and infanticide The collection expands and complicates hegemonic notions of motherhood as the authors map and analyse shifting conceptions of maternal subjectivity and embodiment explore some of the constraining and/or enabling contexts in which mothering takes place and ask searching questions about what it means to be a mother in Europe today It will be of interest not only to those working in gender women's and feminist studies but also to scholars in literary and cultural studies and those researching in sociology criminology politics psychology medical ethics midwifery and related fields Staging Words, Performing Worlds Gail A. Bulman, 2007 Staging Words presents new perspectives on Argentina Cuba Mexico and Venezuela and their theater by postulating that nation can be imagined and reconstructed through the deliberate performance of intertexts The book shows how past artistic texts other plays stories newspaper articles songs or paintings can be manipulated and translated to create a new theatrical script and that this new script can expose an innovative space for interpreting the nation The introduction reviews theories of intertextuality nation and nationalism and applies them to Latin America Each chapter studies two to three plays and shows how the intertexts open up hidden connections and border spaces within texts and between texts that the new writer and reader fill with significance replacing the meaning of the pretext with their own This new textual voice permits texts to be restaged reconfigured and imagined in a way that is purely Latin American

Infertility around the Globe Marcia Inhorn, Frank van Balen, 2002-05-30 This exceptional collection of essays breaks new ground by examining the global impact of infertility as a major reproductive health issue one that has profoundly affected the lives of countless women and men Based on original research by seventeen internationally acclaimed social scientists it is the first book to investigate the use of reproductive technologies in non Western countries Provocative and incisive it is the most substantial work to date on the subject of infertility With infertility as the lens through which a wide range of social issues is explored the contributors address a far reaching array of topics why infertility has been neglected in population studies how the deeply gendered nature of infertility sets the blame squarely on women s shoulders how infertility and its treatment transform family dynamics and relationships and the distribution of medical and marital power The chapters present informed and sophisticated investigations into cultural perceptions of infertility in numerous countries including China India the nations of sub Saharan Africa Vietnam Costa Rica Egypt Israel the United States and the nations of Europe Poised to become the quintessential reference on infertility from an international social science perspective Infertility around the Globe makes a powerful argument that involuntary childlessness is a complex phenomenon that has far reaching significance worldwide

Public Administration Jos C. N. Raadschelders, 2011-10-27 Public administration seeks to develop a comprehensive understanding of the internal structure and functioning of government in all its complexity and its interaction with society and its citizens Public Administration The Interdisciplinary Study of Government provides an account of the discipline considering its history growth boundaries and tunderlying assumptions It tracks the emergence of the field against a background of the expanding conception of the state and the growth of public services and situates it within the three branches of knowledge natural sciences social sciences and humanities It maps out the sources of knowledge of public administration and how this is fragmented within the discipline s specializations the social sciences and government and society at large It examines how leading authors map the discipline the application of different theories the associated schools of thought and intellectual debates and the role of knowledge integration Scholars in public administration have initiated much debate as to whether it should be treated as a science a craft or profession or an art This book argues that to develop a comprehensive understanding of government and its complexity requires a truly interdisciplinary approach

Littoral of the Letter Gabriel Riera, 2006 Littoral of the Letter is the first full fledged study in English of the work of the late Argentine author Juan Jose Saer 1937 2005 who was highly regarded as Argentina s best living novelist a continuator of Burgess literary legacy Characterized by an uncommon coherence and rigor Juan Jose Saer s writing defies simple categories In both his fictional and essayistic writing Saer defamiliarizes the reader by questioning some of his most cherished certainties especially those having to do with the role ascribed to Latin American literature the uses of prose and poetry in the present and the relation between language and the mass media By questioning the assimilation of prose theory and the novel theory dictated by pragmatic needs of the state and the market Saer produces a change in the function of narrative language that allows him to start where more traditional forms of realism end the unsayable The purpose of the book is to make explicit Saer's procedures the main coordinates of his poetics and to reflect on the situation of literature in an age dominated by images and the total cultural phenomenon University
