The Hand of the Past in Contemporary Southern Politics James M. Glaser, 2008-10-01 div A central story of contemporary southern politics is the emergence of Republican majorities in the region's congressional delegation

Acknowledging the significance and scope of the political change James M Glaser argues that nevertheless strands of continuity affect the practice of campaign politics in important ways Strong southern tradition underlies the strategies pursued by the candidates their presentational styles and the psychology of their campaigns The author offers eyewitness accounts of recent congressional campaigns in Texas Mississippi Virginia North Carolina and South Carolina In the tradition of his award winning book Race Campaign Politics and the Realignment in the South Glaser captures the stuff of politics the characters the images the rhetoric and the scenery Painting a full and fascinating picture of what it is like on the campaign trail Glaser provides wide ranging insights into the ways that the hand of the past reaches into the southern present DIV

The Political Dynamics of School Choice L. Fusarelli,2003-05-15 Lance D Fusarelli examines the relationship between the charter school and voucher issues To what degree does political support for charter schools from a coalition of teacher associations school board groups superintendents and voucher advocates slow or even stop the forces for vouchers Or do these coalitions which successfully pushed charter school legislation through the legislature actually fuel the fires of privatization Charter schools legislation has enjoyed bipartisan support precisely because the threat of vouchers is so great And contrary to the strategy of voucher opponents the spread of charter school increases rather than alleviates the push for vouchers

Campaigns from the Ground Up John S Klemanski,David Dulio,Michael Switalski,2015-11-17 Based on data from the most recent elections this book examines state house races in four key states California Texas Michigan and Virginia and creates simulations of campaign planning strategizing budgeting fundraising and winning in a variety of political contexts The authors have not only researched and taught about these issues they have conducted campaigns run for office and served in government at every level from the local to the national They have experience confronting questions of campaign ethics and crisis management and they actively embrace social media in their work Internet fundraising as well as campaign websites are among the many media subjects included This is a book not just for candidates campaign professionals and students but for all concerned citizens who want to understand the pathways of politics better
