Sixty Instant Messages to Tom Moore Paul Muldoon, Lee Gurga, 2005 Horse Latitudes Paul Muldoon, 2025-06-25

The title of Horse Latitudes Paul Muldoon's tenth collection of poetry refers to those areas thirty degrees north and south of the equator where sailing ships tend to be becalmed where stasis if not stagnation is the order of the day From Bosworth Field to Beijing the Boyne to Bull Run from a series of text messages to the nineteenth century Irish poet Tom Moore to an elegy for Warren Zevon and from post Agreement Ireland to George W Bush's America this book presents us with fields of battle and fields of debate in which we often seem to have come to a standstill but in which language that has been debased may yet be restructured and made current to our predicament Horse Latitudes is a triumphant new collection by one of the most esteemed poets of our time

The Poetry of Paul Muldoon Jefferson Holdridge, 2008-08-01 The Poetry of Paul Muldoon introduces the student and general reader to the critical discussion surrounding Muldoon's oeuvre as well as to his major themes It examines the poet's meditations on culture and nature human and animal speculations on the act of perception figures fragmented by the Troubles and philosophical considerations of colonisation It then discusses what rank among the most beautiful and intricate elegies of our time For Muldoon art's complicity in suffering is a political self-indicting question which his best poems endeavour to answer If sometimes this Pulitzer Prize winner insists that art has a positive role to play at other times he fears that it merely feeds off the carnage This critical book shows how for Muldoon art should not merely repeat the devastation of the world although he is afraid that it does and engages in bitter moral despair that places his work among the very best any contemporary poet has written The Poetry of Paul Muldoon unearths difficult questions of form with a metaphysical significance that is suitable to our times

The Japanese Effect in Contemporary Irish Poetry Irene De Angelis, 2016-04-30 The Japanese Effect in Contemporary Irish Poetry provides a stimulating original and lively analysis of the Irish Japanese literary connection from the early 1960s to 2007 While for some this may partly remain Oscar Wilde's mode of style this book will show that there is more of Japan in the work of contemporary Irish poets than a tinkling of china and tea into china Drawing on unpublished new sources Irene De Angelis includes poets from a broad range of cultural backgrounds with richly varied styles Seamus Heaney Derek Mahon Ciaran Carson and Paul Muldoon together with younger poets such as Sinéad Morrissey and Joseph Woods Including close readings of selected poems this is an indispensable companion for all those interested in the broader historical and cultural research on the effect of oriental literature in modernist and postmodernist Irish poetry
