Terrible Tuesday:

The Terrible Tuesday Alana Corry, 2017-12-12 One day It can change everything The life you knew gone in an instant An ordinary person just like you Things like this they dont happen to ordinary people do they Have you ever wondered what you would do if something terrible happened and you had to start again All over again This is a story of just that something terrible that happened one Tuesday and one womans determination to find a way back There were times when the struggle seemed too much but a strong faith and a refusal to give up on the belief in the inherent goodness of humanity and the universe helped this woman to come out fighting Fighting not only the justice system but for all those who couldnt in the past Sometimes bad things happen to good people maybe there isnt always a reason for that There is a reason why this woman is telling you her story Always be brave never give up if she can get through it so can you Terrible Tuesday Don

Big and Bright Gray Levy, 2015-09-02 Texas is a diverse state But the one thing that binds Texans more than their state pride even more than religion is football For the many towns and cities of Texas high school football is more than a sport or an extracurricular activity it's the glue of their community Author Gray Levy a high school football coach for more than two decades became disillusioned with the state of the education system nationwide and traveled to Texas a place where high school football still matters to see just what schools and communities were doing right What he found will both confirm and debunk common presumptions about high school football in Texas a complex phenomenon that varies by region school size and the ethnic diversity of the Lone Star State
