Baptism by Toilet Water James F. Winter, 2010-11-30 Baptism by Toilet Water is Jim Winter s bittersweet memoir documenting the hardship his family endured while ironically Jim s grandparents who exemplified Christian living were right next door Our home life was the furthest thing from a Christian home yet our grandparents were the spiritual paragons we so desperately needed Unfortunately as long as our father remained in the picture there was little hope Our grandparents home served as a sanctuary but we were still trapped We could see paradise from our fence but at best we could only visit from time to time Throughout their tumultuous childhood the Winter children grappled with this stark contradiction of moral values between their father and grandparents leading them to ultimately learn that good can come from bad After high school Jim leaves his home believing the worst is behind him Unfortunately nothing could be further from the truth As illness and death ravage the family Jim becomes stricken with grief Convinced God had forsaken him Jim becomes tormented by guilt from his past When it seems like all hope is lost a series of remarkable events begins to unfold in what can only be described as divine intervention Through Jim s Baptism by Toilet Water he comes to realize that Jesus Christ is illuminating the way through it all

The Day I Pounded Upon God's Door Mar'eh, 2012-04-17 Just as suddenly as the chaotic and terrifying ordeal had all started it seemed as though all movement ceased in a split second There was blood sprayed in every direction inside and out and on the ground I had blood coming out of my mouth nose and ears The pounding of my heart was mammoth I could feel it pounding almost at the top of my head I was stoic as a statue expressionless motionless The sound of the cold breeze whistled around me like a cruel joke My jaws were locked my body began to shiver and then it shook uncontrollably My teeth began to chatter I had never before experienced such grief in all my life My mind was just racing like a fanatic my heart pounding out of control No one could have imagined the depth of my grief at that moment in time Helpless and immobile as I stood there watching my husband leave his body I felt that I would lose my mind I screamed yet there was not a sound that would come out of my mouth In one long uninterrupted silent scream I screamed at Peter not to die I screamed at the other driver who caused this nightmare I screamed at my pathetic legs for not being able to walk I screamed for God I screamed to Him for help My God my God please do not abandon me I begged Him Then from the depths of my soul came a gut wrenching primal scream that had been involuntarily released right out of my throat and from the pit of my stomach a scream so agonizing that one of the men who was standing at the scene immediately covered his ears with both hands and sobbed like a child his face contorted in obvious torture his hands tightly squeezing the volatile sounds of my shrieks out of his ears It was a scream that was no longer my own but that of a sadness that came from deep within the uncharted and dormant corners of my heart It was a scream that awakened in me a state of reverence and dread of unmatched proportions I fell to my knees and came pounding upon God's door that day The speckles of broken glass reflected light like a thousand stars in a fallen sky I watched in disbelief how we really have no control of our own lives how with one blink of an eye your whole life can change forever The Soul of Elizabeth Seton Joseph I. Dirvin, 1990 Elizabeth Seton is an important saint for our times she was a convert an American a wife and mother as well as a widow the foundress of an order the Sisters of Charity and an administrator Fr Dirvin an authority on Saint Elizabeth Seton takes writings correspondence and recollections of Seton to reveal her deep life of faith and prayer A moving biography and an inspiring record of Elizabeth Seton's interior journey that gives us a profound spiritual portrait of a multifaceted saint The Holocaust Paul R.
