Metaphysical Sociology Sara James, 2018-05-11 This volume critically engages with the work of the acclaimed Australian sociologist John Carroll It makes the argument for a metaphysical sociology which Carroll has proposed should focus on the questions of fundamental existence that confront all humans Where do I come from What should I do with my life and What happens to me when I die These questions of meaning in the secular modern West have become difficult to answer As contemporary individuals increasingly draw on their inner resources or ontological qualities to pursue quests for meaning the key challenge for a metaphysical sociology concerns the cultural resources available to people and the manner in which they are cultivated Through wide ranging discussions which include film romantic love terrorism and video games Metaphysical Sociology takes up this challenge The contributors include emerging and established sociologists a philosopher a renowned actor and a musician As such this collection will appeal to scholars of social theory and sociology and to the general reader with interests in morality art culture and the fundamental questions of human existence

Radical Skin, Moderate Masks Yassir Morsi, 2017-08-01 Radical Skin Moderate Masks explores a voice trapped by the War on Terror How can a Muslim speak about politics And in what tone can they argue In today's climate can they talk back without being defined as a moderate or radical And what do the conditions put on their political choices reveal about liberalism and its deep and historical relationship with racism This timely work looks at ongoing debates and how they call for Muslims to engage in a de radicalisation of their voice and identities The author takes his lessons from Fanon and uses them to make sense of his many readings of Said's Orientalism He reflects on the personal and scholarly difficulty of writing this very book An autoethnography follows It shows rather than tells of the felt demand to use a pleasing Apollonian liberalism This approved language however erases a Muslim's ability to talk about the Dionysian more Asiatic parts of their faith and politics differences From artworks that incorporate new media techniques to collective activism Papastergiadis claims that there is a new cosmopolitan imaginary that challenges the conventional divide between art and politics Through the analysis of artistic practices across the globe this book extends the debates on culture and cosmopolitanism from the ethics of living with strangers to the aesthetics of imagining alternative visions of the world Timely and wide ranging this book will be essential reading for students and scholars in sociology and cultural studies and will be of interest to anyone concerned with the changing forms of art and culture in our contemporary global age

A Poetics of Trauma after 9/11 Katharina Donn,2016-10-04 The 9 11 attacks brought large scale violence into the 21st century with force and have come to epitomize the entanglement of intimate vulnerability and virtual spectacle that is typical of the globalized present This book works at the intersection of trauma studies affect theory and literary studies to offer radically new interpretive frames for interrogating the challenges inherent in representing the initial moments of the terrorist encounter Beyond the paradigm of traumatic unspeakability post 9 11 texts expose the materiality of the human body in its universal vulnerability The intersubjective empathy this engenders is politically subversive as it undermines the discourse of historical singularity and exceptionalism by establishing a global network of reference and dialogue Innovative theoretical interconnections between clinical pathology concepts of cultural trauma and political aesthetics lay the foundations for exploring formally and geographically diverse texts Close readings of works by Jonathan

Safran Foer Art Spiegelman Don DeLillo and William Gibson map the relationship between representations of 9 11 and complex aspects of trauma theory This detailed approach makes a case for revisiting trauma theory and bringing its Freudian origins into the digitized present It showcases trauma as a physical and psychological wound as well as an experience that is simultaneously pre discursive and inhibited by the virtuality of the present day real Exploring how contemporary trauma studies can take into account the digitization and virtuality of present day realities this book is a key intervention in establishing a contemporary ethics of witnessing terror

Mixed Emotions Andrew A. G. Ross,2022-12-22 In recent years it s become increasingly clear that emotion plays a central role in global politics For example people readily care about acts of terrorism and humanitarian crises because they appeal to our compassion for human suffering These struggles also command attention where social interactions have the power to produce or intensify the emotional responses of those who participate in them From passionate protests to poignant speeches Andrew A G Ross analyzes high emotion events with an eye to how they shape public sentiment and finds that there is no single answer The politically powerful play to the public s emotions to advance their political aims and such appeals to emotion also often serve to sustain existing values and institutions But the affective dimension can produce profound change particularly when a struggle in the present can be shown to line up with emotionally resonant events from the past Extending his findings to well studied conflicts including the War on Terror and the violence in Rwanda and the Balkans Ross identifies important sites of emotional impact missed by earlier research focused on identities and interests
