The Archaeology of Greater Nicoya Larry

Steinbrenner,Alexander Geurds,Geoffrey G. McCafferty,Silvia Salgado,2021-11-01 The Archaeology of Greater Nicoya is the first edited volume in a quarter century to provide an overview of this fascinating archaeological subarea of Mesoamerica encompassing Pacific Nicaragua and northwestern Costa Rica Inhabited by diverse peoples of Mesoamerican origin centuries before Spanish colonization Greater Nicoya remains controversial in the twenty first century as scholars struggle to achieve consensus on questions of geography chronology and cultural identity Drawing on approaches ranging from ethnohistory to bioarchaeology to scientific and culture historical archaeology the book is organized into sections on redefining Greater Nicoya projects and surveys material culture and mortuary practices Individual chapters explore Indigenous groups and their origins extensive summaries of the three largest scholarly archaeological projects completed in Pacific Nicaragua in the last quarter century clear evidence of Mesoamerican connections from Costa Rica s Bay of Culebra detailed histories of lithic analysis and rock art studies in Nicaragua new insights into mortuary and cultural practices based on osteological evidence and reinterpretations of diagnostic ceramic types as products of related potting communities and the first definitive identification of production centers for these types Drawing upon new 14C dates this volume also provides the most substantial revision of the late pre colonial chronology since the 1960s a correction that has critical implications for understanding the prehistory of Greater Nicoya The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1973

Art in the Lives of

Immigrant Communities in the United States Paul DiMaggio,María Patricia Fernández-Kelly,2010 Art in the Lives of Immigrant Communities in the United States is the first book to provide a comprehensive and lively analysis of the contributions of artists from America s newest immigrant communities Africa the Middle East China India Southeast Asia Central America and Mexico Adding significantly to our understanding of both the arts and immigration multidisciplinary scholars explore tensions that artists face in forging careers in a new world and navigating between their home communities and the larger society They address the art forms that these modern settlers bring with them show how poets musicians playwrights and visual artists adapt traditional forms to new environments and consider the ways in which the communities young people integrate their own traditions and concerns into contemporary expression

Miracles on the Border Jorge

Durand,Douglas S. Massey,2020-05-01 This vivid study richly illustrated with forty color photographs offers a multilayered analysis of retablos folk images painted on tin that are offered as votives of thanks for a miracle granted or a favor bestowed created by Mexican migrants to the United States Durand and Massey analyze 124 contemporary retablo texts scrutinizing the shifting subjects and themes that constitute a running record of the migrant s unique experience The result is a vivid work of synthesis that connects the history of an art form and a people links two very different cultures and allows a deeper understanding of a major twentieth century theme the drama of transnational migration Women, Collecting, and Cultures

Beyond Europe Arlene Leis,2022-11-04 This book examines collecting around the world and how women have participated in and formed collections globally The edited volume builds on recent research and offers a wider lens through which to examine and challenge women s collecting histories Spanning from the seventeenth century to the twenty first although not organized chronologically the research herein extends beyond European geographies and across time periods it brings to light new research on how artificialia and naturalia were collected transported exchanged and or displayed beyond Europe Women Collecting and Cultures Beyond Europe considers collections as points of contact that forged transcultural connections and knowledge exchange Some authors focus mainly on collectors and what was collected while others consider taxonomies travel patterns of consumption migration markets and the after life of things In its broad and interdisciplinary approach this book amplifies women s voices and aims to position their collecting practices toward new transcultural directions including women s relation to distinct cultures customs and beliefs as well as exposing the challenges women faced when carving a place for themselves within global networks This study will be of interest to scholars working in collections and collecting conservation museum studies art history women s studies material and visual cultures Indigenous studies textile histories global studies history of science social and cultural histories

A Gift of Angels ,2010-09-20 It rises suddenly out of the Sonoran Desert landscape towering over the tallest tree or cactus a commanding building with a sensuous dome elliptical vaults and sturdy bell towers There is nothing else like it around nor does it seem there should be This incongruity of setting is what strikes first time visitors to Mission San Xavier del Bac This great church is of another place and another time while its beauty is universal and timeless Mission San Xavier del Bac is a two century old Spanish church in southern Arizona located just a few miles from downtown Tucson a metropolis of more than half a million people in the American Southwest A National Historic Landmark since 1963 the mission s graceful baroque art and architecture have drawn visitors from all over the world Now Bernard Fontana the leading expert on San Xavier and award winning photographer Edward McCain team up to bring us a comprehensive view of the mission as we ve never seen it before With 200 stunning full color photographs and incisive text illuminating the religious historical and motivational context of these images A Gift of Angels is a must have for tourists scholars and other visitors to San Xavier From its glorious architecture all the way down to the finest details of its art Mission San Xavier del Bac is indeed a gift of angels
