Test Match Special - 50 Not Out Peter Baxter, 2012-10-31 In 1957 a whole day's play of a Test Match was broadcast on BBC Radio for the first time with the slogan Don't miss a ball we broadcast them all This book celebrates 50 years of Test Match Special with anecdotes behind the scenes stories photos reminiscences and champagne moments from five decades of top quality cricket commentary Sprinkled throughout are My First TMS Match articles by a number of the programme's main contributors including Jonathan Agnew Harsha Bhogle Henry Blofeld Tony Cozier Angus Fraser Bill Frindall Gerald de Kock Simon Mann Vic Marks Christopher Martin Jenkins Jim Maxwell Shilpa Patel Mike Selvey Donna Symmonds and Bryan Waddle Edited by Peter Baxter the organising brain behind TMS and the programme's producer for 34 years this is a comprehensive and celebratory account of this most respected and prestigious brand in cricket and an essential read for all fans of the game

Can Anyone Hear Me? Peter Baxter, 2012-11-01 For 34 years from 1973 Peter Baxter was BBC producer of the hugely popular Test Match Special and during that time he reported on Test matches from around the world This funny and revealing book takes us behind the scenes as Baxter and his much loved TMS colleagues do battle with local conditions and sometimes bizarre red tape to bring back home the latest news of England's progress or otherwise on the field It should have been straightforward but somehow it rarely was Test Match Special Peter Baxter, 1982 The first radio cricket commentary was broadcast in 1922 Test match special which broadcasted ball by ball coverage for the first time in 1957 has over the years become an integral part of the English summer The commentators have endeared themselves to over a million listeners worldwide with their style that mixes lyrical description with dry wit shrewd appraisal and bonhomie The book takes as its focus the 1980 season and builds upon it reminiscences of past disasters drinks in the box listeners letters and of course Rain stops play The Best Views from the Boundary Peter Baxter, 2010 Views From the Boundary the Saturday lunchtime interview has always been a highlight of the BBC's Test Match Special a programme with a special place in the heart of every English cricket fan The well known interviewees are from all walks of life and united only by one thing a love of the game Over a glass of champagne and in the convivial atmosphere of the TMS commentary box at the height of a Test Brian Johnston Jonathan Agnew Henry Blofeld and others gently prod and probe their illustrious guests with frequently memorable results With interviews personally selected by Peter Baxter the programme's producer for many years and sometime commentator and reflecting listeners favourites The Best Views From the Boundary presents an unmissable selection of these cricketing conversations Relive the heady days of summer and the thwack of leather on willow as you indulge yourself in a true cricketing treat Featuring interviews with John Cleese HRH The Duke of Edinburgh Gary Lineker David Essex John Major Peter O Toole Brian Johnston John Paul Getty Jr Dennis Skinner Stephen Fry Nigel Havers Elton John Boris Johnson Piers Morgan Daniel Radcliffe David Cameron Lily Allen Bill Wyman and more The Cambridge Companion to Cricket Anthony Bateman, Jeffrey Hill, 2011-03-17 Perfect for fans and scholars alike this Companion explores cricket's origins global reach iconic personalities and enduring popularity Fred Trueman Chris Waters, 2011-10-01 Fred Trueman was so much more than a cricketing legend The greatest living Yorkshireman according to Prime Minister Harold Wilson he couldn't help excelling at everything he did whether it was as a hostile fast bowler for Yorkshire and England and the first man to take 300 Test wickets in a career or as a fearlessly outspoken radio summariser for Test Match Special He was famous for regularly spluttering that I don't know what's going off out there as well as for the amount of swearing he managed to incorporate into everyday speech Beloved of cricket crowds who filled grounds to witness his belligerent way of playing the game and nothing but trouble to the cricket authorities Fiery Fred was the epitome of a full blooded Englishman But as Chris Waters reveals in this first full biography behind the charismatic exuberant mask lay a far less self assured man terrified even that his new dog wouldn't like him and whose bucolic version of his upbringing bore no relation to the gritty and impoverished South Yorkshire mining community where he actually grew up Drawing on dozens of new interviews with his Yorkshire colleagues family and friends this life of Fred Trueman will surprise and even shock but also confirm the status of an English folk hero
