Texas Art And A Wildcatters Dream:

Texas Art and a Wildcatter's Dream William E. Reaves, 1998 At a crucial moment in the development of Texas art an eccentric oil wildcatter from Massachusetts and Luling Texas turned to the prestigious San Antonio Art League with a proposal He would fund a national art competition featuring the state's verdant fields of wildflowers and bring prominence to Texas art if the league would handle the details Thus was born the Texas Wildflower Competitive Exhibitions which in three years at the end of the Roaring Twenties awarded more than 53 000 in prize money for paintings of Texas wildflowers ranch life and cotton farming This presentation of twenty nine color plates of the competitions best works includes paintings by such important artists as Jose Arpa Dawson Dawson Watson Xavier Gonzalez Edward G Eisenlohr and Oscar E Berninghaus and Herbert Dunton the latter duo having also served as founding members of the Taos Society of Artists In the plates the artists have portrayed a variety of landscapes and atmospheres to present the wildflowers loved not only by Davis but by generations of Texas art enthusiasts Dictionary of Texas Artists, 1800-1945 Paula L. Midcentury Modern Art in Texas Katie Robinson Edwards, 2014-07-01 Before Abstract Expressionism of New York City was canonized as American postwar modernism the United States was filled with localized manifestations of modern art One such place where considerable modernist activity occurred was Texas where artists absorbed and interpreted the latest most radical formal lessons from Mexico the East Coast and Europe while still responding to the state's dramatic history and geography This barely known chapter in the story of American art is the focus of Midcentury Modern Art in Texas Presenting new research and artwork that has never before been published Katie Robinson Edwards examines the contributions of many modernist painters and sculptors in Texas with an emphasis on the era's most abstract and compelling artists Edwards looks first at the Dallas Nine and the 1936 Texas Centennial which offered local artists a chance to take stock of who they were and where they stood within the national artistic setting She then traces the modernist impulse through various manifestations including the foundations of early Texas modernism in Houston early practitioners of abstraction and non objectivity the Fort Worth Circle artists at the University of Texas at Austin Houston artists in the 1950s sculpture in and around an influential Fort Worth studio and to see how some Texas artists fared on a national scale the Museum of Modern Art's Americans exhibitions The first full length treatment of abstract art in Texas during this vital and canon defining period Midcentury Modern Art in Texas gives these artists their due place in American art while also valuing the quality of Texan-ness that subtly undergirds much of their production
