the stage was set for secession Dr Fornell describes with clarity the interrelated events the decisions and the conflicts that went into the development of Galveston and the Texas Gulf Coast during these years He portrays the people and their way of life He introduces us to some of the notables who helped to shape the destiny of Texas Sam Houston the old general Lorenzo Sherwood the golden tongued propounder of radical economic doctrines Willard Richardson Hamilton Stuart Ferdinand Flake and Edward Cushing the newspapermen whose writing both reflected and guided the thought of their fellow citizens Arthur Lynn the British consul whose observing and compassionate nature brought him onto the stage of Galveston history with striking frequency and whose voluminous letters provide a rich source for historical details and William Ballinger a minor player on the stage but one whose conscience and interests mirrored those of many other thoughtful Galvestonians Always present affecting and affected by virtually every aspect of life on the Coast the slave labor problem grew ever more acute as the expanding railroad system laid more and more of the land open for development Dr Fornell shows with keen insight how it eventually forced Texans into a position where conflict with the federal government was unavoidable and the decision to secede from the Union inevitable The late Earl W Fornell a native of Wisconsin held B A and M A degrees in political science from the New School for Social Research the M A degree in political history from Columbia University and the Ph D degree in political history from Rice University He taught at Columbia Amarillo College Rice and Lamar State College of Technology
