David E. Bosworth, 2024-05-21 When Paul heard that a Christ follower in Corinth was in an incestuous relationship with his stepmother the apostle insisted the man be removed immediately from the congregation This dramatic response is surprising as Paul responds to other serious situations with much less vehemence Why did Paul react to the immoral man with such urgency and severity Using socio cultural tools this study explains the importance of group identity and witness for Paul s ecclesiology The argument lays a foundation for contemporary readers to appraise contexts where an expulsive response to sin might be appropriate

Handbook of Visual Communication Kenneth L. Smith,Sandra Moriarty,Keith Kenney,Gretchen Barbatsis,2004-12-13 This Handbook of Visual Communication explores the key theoretical areas in visual communication and presents the research methods utilized in exploring how people see and how visual communication occurs With chapters contributed by many of the best known and respected scholars in visual communication this volume brings together significant and influential work in the visual communication discipline The theory chapters included here define the twelve major theories in visual communication scholarship aesthetics perception representation visual rhetoric cognition semiotics reception theory narrative media aesthetics ethics visual literacy and cultural studies Each of these theory chapters is followed by exemplar studies in the area demonstrating the various methods used in visual communication research as well as the research approaches applicable for specific media types The Handbook serves as an invaluable reference for visual communication theory as well as a useful resource book of research methods in the discipline It defines the current state of theory and research in visual communication and serves as a foundation for future scholarship and study As such it is required reading for scholars researchers and advanced students in visual communication and it will be influential in other disciplines in which the visual component is key including advertising persuasion and media studies The volume will also be useful to practitioners seeking to understand the visual aspects of their media and the visual processes used by their audiences

Musicians and their Audiences Ioannis Tsioulakis,Elina Hytönen-Ng,2016-12-19 How do musicians play and talk to audiences Why do audiences listen and what happens when they talk back How do new and old technologies affect this interplay This book presents a long overdue examination of the turbulent relationship between musicians and audiences Focusing on a range of areas as diverse as Ireland Greece India Malta the US and China the contributors bring musicological sociological psychological and anthropological approaches to the interaction between performers fans and the industry that mediates them The four parts of the book each address a different stage of the relationship between musicians and audiences showing its processual nature from conceptualisation to performance and through mediation to off stage discourses The musician audience conceptual division is shown throughout the book to be as problematic as it is persistent

Working in Multi-professional Contexts John M Davis,Mary Smith,2012-04-20 Making links between different professional roles policies and practices this book equips readers with the skills knowledge and understanding that managers practitioners and students require to work in integrated multiprofessional settings It draws on case studies to consider the dilemmas challenges and complexities common within workplaces Chapters cover roles policies and practices in integrated services quality assessment in a multiprofessional context evaluating and developing children and family services participation and engagement in integrated family centres contemporary leadership and management in multiprofessional teams innovative multiprofessional learning creative multiprofessional environments Each chapter incorporates activities to support professional development Six chapters analyse multi professional case studies on inclusive education joint assessment and family support leadership in integrated children s services education health and social services participatory one stop family centre design and mentoring in the childcare early years sector Beer, Babes, and Balls David Nylund,2012-02-01 Beer Babes and Balls explores the increasingly popular genre of sports talk radio and how it relates to contemporary ideas of masculinity Popular culture plays a significant role in fashioning identities and sports talk radio both reflects and inspires cultural shifts in masculinity Through analysis of the content of sports talk radio as well as interviews with radio production staff and audience members scholar and avid sports talk radio listener David Nylund sheds light on certain aspects of contemporary masculinity and recent shifts in gender and sexual politics He finds that although sports talk radio reproduces many aspects of traditional masculinity sexism racism and heterosexism there are exceptions in these discourses For instance the most popular national host Jim Rome is against homophobia and racism in sport which indicates that the medium may be a place for male sports fans to discuss gender race and sexuality in consequential ways Nylund concludes that sports talk radio creates a male bonding community that has genuine moments of intimacy and connection signifying the potential for new forms of masculinity to emerge while simultaneously reproducing traditional forms of masculinity
