

Howard Harper

THE EPISCOPALIAN'S DICTIONARY

Laymen have many questions they would like to ask about the Faith and about the Church, but at so often the answers they are able to obtain when they can be found at all, leave them more confused than before. An Episcopal priest for forty years, Howard Harper understands this better than most people. A witty man, with a very special sense of humor, he also knows how to deal with the problem. The Episcopalian's Dictionary presents, in a completely delightful, occasionally humorous way, and in language any layman can understand, an explanation of Church beliefs, terms, customs, traditions,—and foibles.
