The Hiding House Concept:

Handbook of Research on Methodologies for Design and Production Practices in Interior Architecture Garip, Ervin, Garip, S. Banu, 2020-11-20 Studio environments can be defined as multi dimensional integrated production spaces where basic design trainings take place and where design issues including theoretical notions such as sociological political phenomenological and other dimensions are discussed Present approaches within the literature and social media on this topic gives cause for students to evaluate their future professions over finished and pictorial products rather than ontological and processual means While there are many resources available on the present approaches of aesthetics and visuality of interior spaces there is not much research available on new design methodologies related design processes and new applied methods in interior arcitecture Based on different contexts these methods of design practice have the potential to enrich design processes and create multiple discussion platforms within project studios as well as other design media These different representations and narration methods for research in the context of interior architecture can be effectively used in design processes The Handbook of Research on Methodologies for Design and Production Practices in Interior Architecture proposes new design methodologies and related design processes and introduces new applied method approaches while presenting alternative methods that have been used within design studios in the field of interior architecture The chapters deal with four major sections the design process and interdisciplinay approaches then scenario development and content followed by material texture and atmosphere and concluding with new approaches to design While highlighting topics such as spatial perception design strategies architectural atmosphere and design thinking this book is of interest to architects interior designers practitioners stakeholders researchers academicians and students looking for advanced research on the new design metholodologies and processes for interior architecture

Migration, Settlement, and the Concepts of House and Home Iris Levin, 2015-11-19 How do migrants feel at home in their houses Literature on the migrant house and its role in the migrant experience of home building is inadequate This book offers a theoretical framework based on the notion of home building and the concepts of home and house embedded within it It presents innovative research on four groups of migrants who have settled in two metropolitan cities in two periods migrants from Italy migrated in the 1950s and 1960s and from mainland China migrated in the 1990s and 2000s in Melbourne Australia and migrants from Morocco migrated in the 1950s and 1960s and from the former Soviet Union migrated in the 1990s and 2000s in Tel Aviv Israel The analysis draws on qualitative data gathered from forty six in depth interviews with migrants in their home environments including extensive visual data Levin argues that the physical form of the house is meaningful in a range of diverse ways during the process of home building and that each migrant group constructs a distinct form of home building in their homes houses according to their specific circumstances of migration namely the origin country country of destination and period of migration as well as the historical economic and social contexts around migration

A Fraction of the Whole Steve Toltz,2008-02-12 Meet the Deans The fact is the whole of Australia despises my father more than any other man just as they adore my uncle more than any other man I might as well set the story straight about both of them Heroes or Criminals Crackpots or Visionaries Families or Enemies Anyway you know how it is Every family has a story like this one Most of his life Jasper Dean couldn't decide whether to pity hate love or murder his certifiably paranoid father Martin a man who overanalyzed anything and everything and imparted his self garnered wisdom to his only son But now that Martin is dead Jasper can fully reflect on the crackpot who raised him in intellectual captivity and what he realizes is that for all its lunacy theirs was a grand adventure As he recollects the events that led to his father's demise Jasper recounts a boyhood of outrageous schemes and shocking discoveries about his infamous outlaw uncle Terry his mysteriously absent European mother and Martin's constant losing battle to make a lasting mark on the world he so disdains It's a story that takes them from the Australian bush to the cafes of bohemian Paris from the Thai jungle to strip clubs asylums labyrinths and criminal lairs and from the highs of first love to the lows of failed ambition The result is a rollicking rollercoaster ride from obscurity to infamy and the moving memorable story of a father and son whose spiritual symmetry transcends all their many shortcomings A Fraction of the Whole is an uproarious indictment of the modern world and its mores and the epic debut of the blisteringly funny and talented Steve Toltz
