Sir Henry Pottinger The First Governor Of Hong Kong:

Sir Henry Pottinger George Pottinger, 1997 Hong Kong Island was occupied by Britain in 1841 and formally ceded by the Chinese government under the Treaty of Nanking the following year The Kowloon Peninsula was acquired under the 1860 Peking Convention and the New Territories secured on a ninety nine year lease from 1898 At the end of more than 150 years of British rule this book examines the career of an outstanding imperial servant in order to explain why and how the British came to assume power there at all Sir Henry Pottinger soldier and diplomat was involved in some of the great issues of nineteenth century foreign and military policy As this book shows Pottinger's role in Hong Kong was decisive Without his influence it is most unlikely that the island would have been brought under the Crown It was his decision against advice from London to make Hong Kong the British base and he became the first Governor and Commander in Chief of the colony and its dependants Pottinger created the structure of Hong Kong's administration applying a British system of government to an overwhelmingly Chinese population and initiating its development into a major centre for Sino British trade during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Hong Kong History Man-Kong Wong, Chi-Man Kwong, 2021-11-10 This book aims at providing an accessible introduction to and summary of the major themes of Hong Kong history that has been studied in the past decades Each chapter also suggests a number of key historical figures and works that are essential for the understanding of a particular theme However the book is by no means merely a general survey of the recent studies of Hong Kong history it tries to suggest that the best way to approach Hong Kong history is to put it firmly in its international context
