

What was this area
like before Stonehenge?

Long before the first people built Stonehenge, this area was a busy place. It was a hub of activity, with people coming and going. The area was a meeting place for people from all over the region. It was a place where people came to trade goods and services. It was a place where people came to share ideas and knowledge. It was a place where people came to build a better life.

Over the years, the area has changed. The landscape has shifted. The climate has changed. But the area remains a place of interest. It is a place where people come to learn about the past. It is a place where people come to see the wonders of the world.

Today, the area is a popular destination for tourists. It is a place where people come to see the wonders of the world. It is a place where people come to learn about the past. It is a place where people come to see the wonders of the world.
