Terre Haute Vigo County In Vintage Postcards:

Terre Haute & Vigo County in Vintage Postcards Dorothy W. Jerse, John R. Becker, 2001 For most of the 20th century the Crossroads of America was literally at the intersection of U S 41 and the National Road right at the corner of Seventh Street and Wabash Avenue in downtown Terre Haute Indiana Although the crossroads has shifted Vigo County is still a major transportation center perched on the high side of the Wabash River made famous by songwriter Paul Dresser Captured here in over 200 vintage images is the history of Terre Haute and Vigo County chronicling the area s earliest days all the way through to World War One Offering a unique historical account using only postcard images this new book showcases the people buildings neighborhoods schools and events that shaped the region including Eugene V Debs Chauncey Rose Collett Park and the 1913 Tornado and Flood

A Hoosier's Journey Frank P. Jozsa Jr., 2011 In September 1941 I was born in Terre Haute Indiana I completed elementary and secondary schools there and then in 1963 graduated with a bachelor of science degree from Indiana State College After serving as a logistics officer for five years in the military I worked for Ford Motor Company in Detroit Michigan and later for Indiana National Bank in Indianapolis Indiana In the 1970s I earned master of business administration master of science and doctorate of philosophy degrees and since the late 1970s I have taught classes in economics statistics and business administration to undergraduate and graduate students at various American colleges and universities Besides teaching I have also authored articles and books about the business economics and operations of leagues and their franchises in professional team sports For activities I became a reader of Advanced Placement examinations an investor and a distance runner Being a competitive and dedicated athlete I played varsity baseball and basketball while in high school and college and performed as an all star catcher and pitcher in Little League and on championship teams in Babe Ruth and Connie Mack Leagues At a baseball tryout camp for major league prospects held in Columbus Ohio I tried but unfortunately did not play well enough to sign a contract with a professional team As a student I usually earned good to excellent grades in many subjects and in fact was salutatorian of my class at Gerstmeyer High School Then I graduated with an accounting degree at Indiana State College now University master s degrees at two universities and a PhD in economics at Georgia State University To achieve academically at these schools I disciplined myself to attend lectures complete all assignments conscientiously study my notes and textbooks and maximize scores on examinations and class projects Indeed my accomplishments as a student in high school and colleges and universities led to a career in higher education Between the late 1970s and 2007 I was a teacher and author who taught several types of economics and business administration courses to undergraduate and graduate students at accredited schools in Georgia Florida Pennsylvania and North Carolina In addition I was a classroom instructor with the University of Maryland in Germany The articles I wrote appeared in journals magazines and newspapers while my books analyzed the business economics finance and operations of leagues and teams in professional baseball basketball football ice hockey and soccer Besides these experiences I was a captain in the United States Air Force and stationed for one year in South Vietnam Furthermore I trained as a long distance runner won many age group awards and competed in five marathons including races in Boston and New York City After 35 years of fulltime teaching I retired from Pfeiffer University in Charlotte North Carolina I currently live in Tega Cay South Carolina Greetings from Indiana Robert Reed,2003 During the first half of the twentieth century nearly every store in Indiana had a rack of postcards for sale In the years leading up to World War I postcard collecting became a national craze Reed s book features classic postcards from the early 1900s to the 1950s featuring more than ninety Indiana communities Depicting street scenes landmarks fine homes and roadways the postcards capture the state s rural and urban past adapted from back cover Journal of the Illinois State Historical Society ,2010 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2003
