Holmes, 2020-06-17 This gently told and tenderly illustrated story is for children who have witnessed any kind of violent or traumatic episode including physical abuse school or gang violence accidents homicide suicide and natural disasters such as floods or fire Sherman Smith saw the most terrible thing happen At first he tried to forget about it but soon something inside him started to bother him He felt nervous for no reason Sometimes his stomach hurt He had bad dreams And he started to feel angry and do mean things which got him in trouble Then he met Ms Maple who helped him talk about the terrible thing that he had tried to forget Now Sherman is feeling much better Children who have witnessed violence or other traumatic incidents are at surprisingly greater risk for committing violence in the future than are children who have actually been involved in such events The event might be a car accident domestic or school violence suicide or a natural disaster such as a tornado flood or fire Regardless of the type of incident child witnesses often react by trying to forget or ignore the experience When their feelings are pushed underground in this manner these children may begin to feel bad in ways they don't understand and become angry as a result of feeling bad It is this anger that can give way to violence Caring adults can make all the difference by helping children talk about and understand the experience An afterword by Sasha J Mudlaff written for parents and other caregivers offers extensive suggestions for helping traumatized children including a list of other sources that focus on specific events Terrible Thing Happened Margaret M. Hyde,2020-11-04 A Colorado native Shauna Hyde grew up with three brothers no sisters and a father who was a pastor of a local community church She was taught that women married for life and no woman she knew was a pastor This normal crashed around her when her first husband left her with a newborn baby to raise alone Her second husband confessed his unfaithfulness again her world hit a bruising reality wall despite her efforts to be the best little wife Shauna started studying karate and began to see a correlation between the two disciplines that opened her soul to be empowered by the grace of God God in turn taught her and used her to empower others As a United Methodist minister who is also a black belt in Shota Kahn karate I am often asked how I can be both a martial artist and a pastor There have been a lot of jokes about how I will force people to the altar or smack people who get out of line Then there is always the joke about no one wanting to disobey me in the church because I know how to hurt them In reality anyone who is a true martial artist and or has a deep understanding of the martial arts knows that it is not about violence it is about mercy self discipline a lot of routine practice and a whole other host of characteristics that I would like to address in this book Shauna shares what she has learned with a solid Biblical foundation through thought provoking questions that work well individually and with small groups Karate is a tool that can help people grow understand and become disciplined Church is a tool that also helps people grow understand and become disciplined The greatest tool of all to be used to empower others is the constant and abundant application of grace
