The Old Muslim's Opinions Frank "Sulaiman" Tucci, Remy Parrilla-Tucci, 2009-12 The Old Muslim's Opinions may benefit from the conversational approach that is taken by authors They have also designed the text to be read a chapter at a time with each having its own conclusion The variety of topics a blend of American humor and Filipino backwardness is enjoyable and a good read from beginning to end The Old Muslim's Opinions began in 2007 when the editor of a small town newspaper asked Sulaiman to write a weekly column Shortly thereafter a larger more prodigious newspaper near Tacloban the capital city of Leyte island sought out Sulaiman for his controversial and interesting style of writing Although close to 70 years old he has no intention of slowing down and has just started their third book The Tuccis are retired in Ormoc City Remy's place of birth 68 years ago She keeps herself busy with family former classmates and friends when not typing manuscripts for the old Muslim As for Sulaiman he is very active in the local Muslim community visiting Mosques all over the island Terror in America! Frank M. Tucci, Remy P. Tucci, 2004-08 Terror In America A Muslim Surviving the Federal Prison System may benefit from the conversational approach that is taken by the authors of the material They have also designed the text to be accessible to the readers while carrying impact through references to personal struggle catharsis and a strong insightful criticism of today's societal forces Survival of the African American Family Karen S. Jewell, 2003-11-30 Challenging widely held beliefs this provocative book offers nothing less than a blueprint for enhancing the social and economic status of African American families Despite the implementation of liberal social policies in the 1960s and 70s successive U S administrations continue to dash the hopes and expectations of African Americans who remain subject to racism and discrimination Arguing that social policies and their absence have affected the stability of the African American family Jewell refutes the myth of significant progress for African American families emanating from the civil rights era exposing the myriad reasons why greater advancement toward equality has not occurred in major societal institutions Attention is focused on the extent to which African American families have been adversely affected by a process of assimilation that was socio psychological rather than economic This new edition builds upon the first edition and is revised and expanded to reflect new and persistent institutional policies and practices of race gender and class inequality facing African American families The revised edition explores such issues as racial profiling capital punishment police brutality predatory lending No Child Left Behind welfare reform affirmative action and racial disparities in healthcare academic achievement and home ownership Jewell proposes a variety of strategies and policies that are needed to ensure greater social and economic equality and justice for African American families Survival 49.3 Dana Allin, 2023-05-31 Survival the Institute of Strategic Studies quarterly journal is a leading forum for analysis and debate of international and strategic affairs With a diverse range of authors eight to ten articles per issue plus thoughtful reviews and review essays Survival is scholarly in depth while vivid well written and policy relevant in approach Shaped by its editors to be both timely and forward thinking the journal encourages writers to
