Terrorist Within:

Inside Terrorist Organizations David C. Rapoport, 2001 Describing the internal life of terrorist organizations these essays contend that no description of terrorist behaviour is adequate without a grasp of the deep tensions which often characterize the groups and without appreciating how firmly implanted in our culture terrorist traditions have become since the middle of the 19th century Terrorist in Search of Humanity Faisal Devji, 2019-12-01 Argues that various forms of militancy such as the actions of al Qaeda are informed by the same desire for agency and equality that animates other humanitarian interventions such as environmentalism and pacifism Terrorism in the United States, 1989 Inside Terrorism Bruce Hoffman, 2006 Defining terrorism The end of empire and the origins of contemporary terrorism The internationalization of terrorism Religion and terrorism Suicide terrorism The old media terrorism and public opinion The new media terrorism and the shaping of global opinion The modern terrorist mind set tactics targets tradecraft and technologies Terrorism today and tomorrow Homeland Security Organization in Defence Against Terrorism J. Victoroff, 2006-11-14 The book is organized to assist readers in finding the topics that interest them the most What do we really know about the contributing causes of terrorism Are all forms of terrorism created equal or are there important differences in terrorisms that one must know about to customize effective counter strategies Does poverty cause terrorism Are terrorists typically crazy vengeful misled or simply making an entirely sensible choice Why would people blow themselves and others up Is the war on terrorism even a useful idea Is it being fought wisely or are much better ideas staring policy makers in the face Do leaders of targeted nations wilfully neglect the best solutions Most of the lessons in this book concern the basic human ingredients that combust to produce violent extremism Thus regardless of the mutations that occur in substate terrorism the timeless scholarship here will hopefully be somewhat helpful even to our grandchildren The Psychology of Terrorism Fears Samuel Justin Sinclair, Daniel Antonius, 2012-06-13 The psychology of terrorism in its most basic form is about fear Although academics continue to debate the meaning of terrorism the end result for victims of terrorism is very often fear and terror Many studying the effects of terrorism have focused more exclusively on discrete psychopathological constructs most of which are clinically based Ironically these paradigms fail to acknowledge the primacy of basic fear in the context of terrorism as well as how fear affects people in both positive and negative ways above and beyond whether one meets criteria for a clinical disorder The purposes of this book are to unpack the complexity of terrorism fears and to present a new paradigm for understanding the psychology of terrorism As such this book presents empirical and theoretical frameworks for understanding fear as a dynamic process that motivates and affects people on a myriad of levels from the individual to society at large The book also highlights the paradox of how fear can negatively impact people and societies but also be a central force underlying resilience and post traumatic growth Finally The Psychology of Terrorism Fears discusses how society has changed as a result of terrorism and specifically how our own systems for managing terrorism may in fact contribute to fear
