Teso In Transformation The Political Economy Of Peasant And Class In Eastern Africa:

Teso in Transformation Joan Vincent,1982 The State and Rural Transformation in Northern Somalia, 1884-1986 Abdi Ismail Samatar,1989 Scandinavia's most famous painter the Norwegian Edvard Munch 1863 1944 is probably best known for his painting The Scream a universally recognized icon of terror and despair A version was stolen from the Munch Museum in Oslo Norway in August 2004 and has not yet been recovered But Munch considered himself a writer as well as a painter Munch began painting as a teenager and in his young adulthood studied and worked in Paris and Berlin where he evolved a highly personal style in paintings and works on paper And in diaries that he kept for decades he also experimented with reminiscence fiction prose portraits philosophical speculations and surrealism Known as an artist who captured both the ecstasies and the hellish depths of the human condition Munch conveys these emotions in his diaries but also reveals other facets of his personality in remarks and stories that are alternately droll compassionate romantic and cerebral This English translation of Edvard Munch's private diaries the most extensive edition to appear in any language captures the eloquent lyricism of the original Norwegian text The journal entries in this volume span the period from the 1880s when Munch was in his twenties until the 1930s reflecting the changes in his life and his work The book is illustrated with fifteen of Munch's drawings many of them rarely seen before While these diaries have been excerpted before no translation has captured the real passion and poetry of Munch's voice This is a translation that lets Munch speak for himself and evokes the primal passion of his diaries J Gill Holland's exceptional work adds a whole new level to our understanding of the artist and the depth of his scream Poverty and Wealth in East Africa Rhiannon Stephens,2022-10-24 Rhiannon Stephens offers a conceptual history of how people living in eastern Uganda have sustained and changed their ways of thinking about wealth and poverty over the past two thousand years The Blackwell Companion to Religion and Violence Andrew R. Murphy,2011-04-20 The timely Blackwell Companion to Religion and Violence brings together an international interdisciplinary group of scholars who provide a coherent state of the art overview of the complex relationships between religion and violence This companion tackles one of the most important topics in the field of Religion in the twenty first century pulling together a unique collection of cutting edge work A focused collection of high quality scholarship provides readers with a state of the art account of the latest work in this field The contributors are broad ranging international and interdisciplinary and include historians political scientists religious studies scholars sociologists anthropologists theologians scholars of women's and gender studies and communication The African Colonial State in Comparative Perspective Crawford Young,1994-01-01 In this comprehensive and original study a distinguished specialist and scholar of African affairs argues that the current crisis in African development can be traced directly to European colonial rule which left the continent with a singularly difficult legacy that is unique in modern history Crawford Young proposes a new conception of the state weighing the different characteristics of earlier European empires including those of Holland Portugal England and Venice and distilling their common qualities He then presents a concise and wide ranging history of colonization in Africa from the era of construction through consolidation and decolonization Young argues that several qualities combined to make the European colonial experience in Africa distinctive The high number of nations competing for power around the continent and the necessity to achieve effective occupation swiftly yet make the colonies self financing drove colonial powers toward policies of ruthless extractive action The persistent virulent racism that established a distance between rulers and subjects was especially central to African colonial history Young concludes by turning his sights to other regions of the once colonized world comparing the fates of former African colonies to their counterparts elsewhere In tracing both the overarching traits and variations in African colonial states he makes a strong case that colonialism has played a critical role in shaping the fate of this troubled continent

The Culture of Politics in Modern Kenya Angelique Haugerud,1997-05-13 Once the major success story of a troubled continent by the early 1990s Kenya came to be regarded as its fallen star This book challenges such images of reversal and the analytical polarities which sustain them The analysis ranges from telescopic to microscopic fields and combining many disciplines and perspectives to give a rich and varied picture of the culture of politics in twentieth century Kenya a highly perceptive and interesting analysis deconstruction is not too strong a term of Kenya s politics A well researched documented and enlightening book African Affairs

Pentecostalism in Africa ,2014-10-16 Within recent decades Pentecostal charismatic Christianity has moved from an initially peripheral position to become a force to be reckoned with within Africa s religious landscape Bringing together prominent Africanist scholars from a wide range of disciplines this book offers a comprehensive and multifaceted treatment of the ways in which Pentecostal Charismatic movements have shaped the orientations of African Christianity and extended their influence into other spheres of post colonial societies such as politics developmental work and popular entertainment Among other things the chapters of the book show how Pentecostal charismatic Christianity responds to social and cultural concerns of Africans and how its growth and increasingly assertive presence in public life have facilitated new kinds of social positioning and claims to political power

Contesting Catholics Jonathon L. Earle,J. J. Carney,2021 First scholarly treatment of Uganda s first elected ruler offers new insights into the religious and political history of modern Uganda

Tensions of Empire Frederick Cooper,Ann Laura Stoler,1997-01-07 Carrying the inquiry into zones previous itineraries have typically avoided the creation of races sexual relations invention of tradition and regional rulers strategies for dealing with the conquerors the book brings out features of European expansion and contraction we have not seen well before Charles Tilly The New School for Social Research What is important about this book is its commitment to shaping theory through the careful interpretation of grounded empirically based historical and ethnographic studies By far the best collection I have seen on the subject Sherry B Ortner Columbia University

Rural Households in Emerging Societies Margaret Haswell,Diana Hunt,2020-12-17 The constantly changing circumstances of rural life in sub Saharan Africa have brought with them both successes and failures The essays in this volume examine the various pressures and inducements to changing resource use patterns faced by rural households and explore the two way causal relationship between technology and technological change on the one hand and other key elements of rural change demographic environmental economic social and political on the other Contemporary approaches to the introduction of technical innovations are examined and new approaches are proposed Through case studies of particular communities the wide ranging impacts of past experiences are assessed and the causes and consequences of indigenous initiatives are explored ICGR 2022 5th International Conference on Gender Research Elisabeth Pereira, Carlos Costa, Zélia Breda, 2022-04-28

Purity and Exile Liisa H. Malkki, 2012-12-14 In this study of Hutu refugees from Burundi driven into exile in Tanzania after their 1972 insurrection against the dominant Tutsi was brutally quashed Liisa Malkki shows how experiences of dispossession and violence are remembered and turned into narratives and how this process helps to construct identities such as Hutu and Tutsi Through extensive fieldwork in two refugee communities Malkki finds that the refugees current circumstances significantly influence these constructions Those living in organized camps created an elaborate mythico history of the Hutu people which gave significance to exile and envisioned a collective return to the homeland of Burundi Other refugees who had assimilated in a more urban setting crafted identities in response to the practical circumstances of their day to day lives Malkki reveals how such things as national identity historical consciousness and the social imagination of enemies get constructed in the process of everyday life The book closes with an epilogue looking at the recent violence between Hutu and Tutsi in Rwanda and Burundi and showing how the movement of large refugee populations across national borders has shaped patterns of violence in the region Deadly Developments Stephen and Downs Reyna, 2005-08-04 Ten anthropologists trace the machinations of war and the effects of violence in capitalist states from their formation to the present This collection the newest volume in the War and Society series questions the foundations of classical social theory while investigating local and international conflict through the critical and cross cultural lens of social theory history and anthropology The essays combine to challenge the notion developed by social theorists such as Comte Spencer Durkheim and Engels that war will diminish with the formation and the perpetuation of a capitalist economy and industry The development of capitalist states and the nefarious and violent processes which must occur to reproduce capitalism are rarely realized and then infrequently analyzed Many western and ethnocentric scholarly representations of war succeed in hiding the deadly developments that occur as a result of capitalist state formation and relations Colonialism and Culture Nicholas B. Dirks, 1992 Provides new and important perspectives on the complex character of colonial history

Childhood, Youth and Emotions in Modern History Stephanie Olsen, 2015-10-06 Childhood Youth and Emotions in Modern History is the first book to innovatively combine the history of childhood and youth with the history of emotions combining multiple national colonial and global perspectives Spirits of Resistance and Capitalist Discipline, Second Edition Aihwa Ong, 2010-09-03 In the two decades since its original publication Spirits of

Resistance and Capitalist Discipline has become an ethnographic classic in the fields of anthropology labor studies and gender and globalization studies Based on anthropological field work in an agricultural district in Selangor Peninsular Malaysia Spirits of Resistance captures a moment of profound transformation illustrated by the disruptions conflicts and ambivalences in the lives of Malay women during the rapid industrialization associated with Malaysia s rise as a tiger economy Aihwa Ong s nuanced approach to the Malay women factory workers experiences of the contradictions of modern globalized capitalism has inspired subsequent generations of feminist ethnographers in their explorations of key questions of power resistance femininities religious community and social change With a new critical introduction by anthropologist Carla Freeman this new edition of Spirits of Resistance continues to offer an exemplary model of sophisticated analysis of culturally based resistance to the ideology surveillance and institutional authority of globalized corporate capitalism

One Discipline, Four Ways Fredrik Barth, Andre Gingrich, Robert Parkin, Sydel Silverman, 2010-03-17 One Discipline Four Ways offers the first book length introduction to the history of each of the four major traditions in anthropology British German French and American The result of lectures given by distinguished anthropologists Fredrik Barth Andre Gingrich Robert Parkin and Sydel Silverman to mark the foundation of the Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology this volume not only traces the development of each tradition but considers their impact on one another and assesses their future potentials Moving from E B Taylor all the way through the development of modern fieldwork Barth reveals the repressive tendencies that prevented Britain from developing a variety of anthropological practices until the late 1960s Gingrich meanwhile articulates the development of German anthropology paying particular attention to the Nazi period of which surprisingly little analysis has been offered until now Parkin then assesses the French tradition and in particular its separation of theory and ethnographic practice Finally Silverman traces the formative influence of Franz Boas the expansion of the discipline after World War II and the fault lines and promises of contemporary anthropology in the United States

States of Grace Donald Martin Carter, 1997 States of Grace was first published in 1997 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions Leaving their depleted fields for better prospects Senegalese immigrants have made their way to Italy in significant numbers What this migration means in the context of both the migratory traditions and conditions of Africa and the history and future of the European nation state is the subject of this timely and ambitious book Focusing on Turin the northern Italian point of entry for so many Senegalese States of Grace chronicles the arrival and formation of a transnational African Islamic community in a largely Catholic Western European country one that did not have immigrant legislation until 1991 With no colonial relation to Italy the Senegalese represent the vanguard of population movements expanding outside of the arch of former colonial powers Donald Martin Carter locates the Senegalese migration in the context of past African internal and international migration and of present crises in West African agriculture He also shows how the Senegalese migration constituting a phenomenon and catalyzing new immigration restrictions among European states calls into question the European interstate system the future of the nation state and the nature of its relationship with non European states Throughout Europe protectionist immigration policies are often crafted in chauvinist and racist tones in which migrants is a euphemism for blacks Arabs and Asians States of Grace uses Senegalese migration to demonstrate that racial conceptions are crucial to understanding the classifications of non national outside and internal other The book is a bracing encounter with the ever increasing cultural and ethnic heterogeneity that is the new and pressing reality of European society Donald Martin Carter is visiting assistant professor of anthropology at Johns Hopkins University Flexible Citizenship Aihwa Ong,1999 Ethnographic and theoretical accounts of the transnational practices of Chinese elites showing how they constitute a dispersed Chinese public but also how they reinforce the strength of capital and the state Relating to Rock Art in the Contemporary World Liam M. Brady,Paul S.C. Taçon,2016-12-01 Rock art has long been considered an archaeological artifact reflecting activities from the past yet it is also a phenomenon with present day meaning and relevance to both indigenous and non indigenous communities Relating to Rock Art in the Contemporary World challenges traditional ways of thinking about this highly recognizable form of visual heritage and provides insight into its contemporary significance One of the most visually striking forms of material culture embedded in landscapes rock art is ascribed different meanings by diverse groups of people including indigenous peoples governments tourism offices and the general public all of whom relate to images and sites in unique ways In this volume leading scholars from around the globe shift the discourse from a primarily archaeological basis to one that examines the myriad ways that symbolism meaning and significance in rock art are being renegotiated in various geographical and cultural settings from Australia to the British Isles They also consider how people manage the complex meanings emotions and cultural and political practices tied to rock art sites and how these factors impact processes relating to identity construction and reaffirmation today Richly illustrated and geographically diverse Relating to Rock Art in the Contemporary World connects archaeology anthropology and heritage studies The book will appeal to students and scholars of archaeology anthropology heritage heritage management identity studies art history indigenous studies and visual theory as well as professionals and amateurs who have vested or avocational interests in rock art Contributors Agust n Acevedo Manuel Bea Jutinach Bowonsachoti Gemma Boyle John J Bradley Noelene Cole In s Domingo Kurt E Dongoske Davida Eisenberg Degen D nae Fiore Ursula K Frederick Kelley Hays Gilpin Catherine Namono George H Nash John Norder Marianna Ocampo Joshua Schmidt Duangpond Singhaseni Benjamin W Smith Atthasit Sukkham Noel Hidalgo Tan Watinee Tanompolkrang Luke Taylor Dagmara Zawadzka
