Charles Humble Dudley Ward

The Big World Of Love:

Story World and Photodramatist, 1924 Jenny Peters Charles Humble Dudley Ward, 1909 Nautilus Magazine of New Thought Elizabeth Jones Towne, 1926 Morning to Midnight in the Saddle Otho James McManus, 2012-01-01

Seven days before Lee's surrender Lieutenant Otho McManus was killed leading a battle charge in Alabama. During the previous thirty months the young Midwestern schoolteacher wrote more than a hundred letters. His polished writing reflects his hopes, ambitions, fears, war experience, and domestic concerns. The letters describe his capture while rescuing a wounded cousin, a deadly case of friendly fire, opinions of officers and war prospects, and strong feelings about anti-war dissent. McManus served in the 123rd Illinois Mounted Infantry. This regiment was an integral component of the elite Wilder's Lightning Brigade. Wilder's Brigade played pivotal roles in battles and campaigns in Tennessee, Georgia, and Alabama. McManus's letters include extended accounts of the battles of Chickamauga, Hoover's Gap, and Perryville, and the Atlanta Campaign, among other campaigns, battles, and skirmishes. The editors have supplemented the letters with a detailed chronology of the regiment's movements, with an account of explosive political developments in McManus's home country, and with post-war sketches of people mentioned in the letters. The editors have also included statistical analyses of the regiment's demographics, mortality, and desertion rates. The commentary is based on hundreds of commanders' reports from the Official Records of the War of the Rebellion, from dozens of pension and compile service records from more than a dozen court martial transcripts, and from other soldiers' diaries and letters. Catholic World, 1926 Love Never Dies: From Heaven My Sister Speaks Angela Dawn, 2014-09-04

Two sisters bound by love and courage continue their oh-so-familiar conversations regardless of being separated between the paths of life and death. This is a true story of two deaths and one life which has proven that the bonds of love do exist beyond the grave. After the sudden death of Angela's mother, and shortly thereafter her sister Angela refused to believe that she had lost them forever. She set off on a journey in search of the truth. Her mother and sister guided and supported her as she discovered a world of existence in the afterlife. They speak about their life in heaven, about God, the Creator, the universe, mankind, the reason for living, and the soul's purpose. The discovery and understanding that Angela experienced brought much comfort in a time of grief. Join Angela as she is taken on a journey in which she unravels the truth, the truth of life. Experience George Vere Hobart, 1915

An episodic tale of Youth setting forth with Ambition and Experience to see life. Love and Sexuality in Dystopian Fiction. An Analysis of "Brave New World" and "Nineteen Eighty-Four" Lena Gräf, 2016-04-26

Seminar paper from the year 2015 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies. Literature grade 2-3. Language: English. Abstract: This term paper is supposed to deal with how love and sex are depicted in Brave New World and 1984, and if there are any similarities between them. Furthermore, we will take a brief look at differences and similarities to love and sex in our society. What is the attitude towards marriage these days? And what is the role of love in all of that? After this, we will then hopefully be able to identify what love and sex in dystopian fiction means Ever since Thomas More's Utopia love and sex have been a part of dystopian novels In Thomas More's times his depictions were ground breaking Women were not allowed to marry until they were 18 In the past this was highly unusual since most women married at the age of around 14 Furthermore divorce is forbidden which at this point mirrors the time More lived in This clearly influenced all the following writers of dystopian novels They imagine a world that is negatively silhouetted against their own world And since love is a big part of every society it is also a big part in every dystopian society When looking for the most famous dystopian novels on Google two that are immediately suggested are Brave New World by Aldous Huxley and 1984 by George Orwell Both have one thing in common their rather negative and for us rather unusual attitude towards love relationships and sex
