Bethke Elshtain John Finnis Sohail H Hashmi Theodore J Koontz David R Mapel Jeff McMahan Richard B Miller Aviezer Ravitzky Bassam Tibi Sarah Tobias and Michael Walzer War's Ends James G. Murphy, 2014-01-27 Before military action and even before mobilization the decision on whether to go to war is debated by politicians pundits and the public As they address the right or wrong of such action it is also a time when in the language of the just war tradition the wise would deeply investigate their true claim to jus ad bellum the right of war Wars have negative consequences not the least impinging on human life and offer infrequent and uncertain benefits yet war is part of the human condition James G Murphy s insightful analysis of the jus ad bellum criteria competent authority just cause right intention probability of success last resort and proportionality is grounded in a variety of contemporary examples from World War I through Vietnam the soccer war between Honduras and El Salvador Afghanistan and the Middle East conflict Murphy argues persuasively that understanding jus ad bellum requires a primary focus on the international common good and the good of peace Only secondarily should the argument about going to war hinge on the right of self defense in fact pursuing the common good requires political action given that peace is not simply the absence of violence He moves on to demonstrate the interconnectedness of the jus ad bellum criteria contending that some criteria depend logically on others and that competent authority not just cause is ultimately the most significant criterion in an analysis of going to war This timely study will be of special interest to scholars and students in ethics war and peace and international affairs The ethics of war and peace ,2014 The Ethics of War and Peace Revisited Daniel R. Brunstetter, Jean-Vincent Holeindre, 2018-01-10 How do we frame decisions to use or abstain from military force Who should do the killing Do we need new paradigms to guide the use of force And what does victory mean in contemporary conflict In many ways these are timeless questions But they should be revisited in light of changing circumstances in the twenty first century The post Cold War post 9 11 world is one of contested and fragmented sovereignty contested because the norm of territorial integrity has shed some of its absolute nature fragmented because some states do not control all of their territory and cannot defeat violent groups operating within their borders Humanitarian intervention preventive war and just war are all framing mechanisms aimed at convincing domestic and international audiences to go to war or not as well as to decide who is justified in legally and ethically killing The international group of scholars assembled in this book critically examine these frameworks to ask if they are flawed and if so how they can be improved Finally the volume contemplates what all the killing and dying is for if victory ultimately proves elusive
