Defiled Trades and Social Outcasts Kathy Stuart,2000-05-04 This book presents a social and cultural history of dishonourable people unehrliche Leute an outcast group in early modern Germany Executioners skinnners grave diggers shepherds barber surgeons millers linen weavers sow gelders latrine cleaners and bailiffs were among the dishonourable by virtue of their trades This dishonour was either hereditary often through several generations or it arose from ritual pollution whereby honourable citizens could become dishonourable by coming into casual contact with members of the outcast group. The dishonourable milieu of the city of Augsburg from the sixteenth to the eighteenth centuries is reconstructed to show the extent to which dishonour determined the life chances and self identity of dishonourable people. The book then investigates how honourable estates interacted with dishonourable people and how the pollution anxieties of early modern Germans structured social and political relations within honourable society.
