Slim Chance:

Slim Chance Fat Hope: Society's Obsession With Thinness Catherine Swee Kian Tay, 2004-04-07 Slimming and dieting has become such a fixation among Singaporeans that manufacturers and distributors of weight reducing products are laughing all the way to the bank. However, the recent spate of controversies surrounding slimming pills is no laughing matter. This book is a collection of articles accessible to anyone who wants to know more about the phenomenon, its consequences and related topics. Its purpose is not to champion the ideal of being slim but rather to provide a platform for meaningful discussion and for educating the general public about a healthier way of living. Written by people from all walks of life such as doctors, lawyers, academics, counsellors and journalists, the book takes a thoughtful and at times light-hearted look at Singaporeans' obsession with their body image and reflects on other issues it raises. The star attractions of this book are interviews with two of Singapore's best-loved comedians, Moses Lim and Hossan Leong. Let them give you a humorous first-hand account of how they view and come to terms with their own body size and turn it into confidence both on and off the stage.

Killigrew's Run Jonathan Lunn, 2017-10-23 Killigrew meets his match as the Crimean War heats up. The Baltic 1854. Navies like armies have camp followers and the British fleet that sails to the Baltic on the eve of the Crimean War is no exception. Along with the floating grog shop and brothels come war tourists, aristocratic gentlemen travelling to see the war first-hand. When Viscount Bullivant is taken prisoner by the Russians, it falls to Commander Kit Killigrew to negotiate his release. But the Russians suspect his lordship has vital information and before long Killigrew is a prisoner of the Third Section, the feared Tsarist secret police. In the ensuing forty-eight hours, Killigrew must escape, rescue Bullivant, steal back his yacht, sail through the treacherous Eken's Archipelago and take on a Russian ship with an unarmed schooner. And in Captain Lieutenant Count Mikhail Yurievich Pechorin, he may finally have met his match. Praise for the Killigrew Novels: Leaves the reader breathless for his next voyage. Northern Echo. Action-packed and well-researched in the vein of Forester and O'Brien but with its own distinctive flavour. Good Book Guide. A rollicking tale with plenty of punches. Lancashire Evening Post. A hero to rival any Horatio Hornblower. Swashbuckling. You bet. Belfast Telegraph. The Kit Killigrew Naval Series. Killigrew of the Royal Navy. Killigrew and the Golden Dragon. Killigrew and the Incorrigibles. Killigrew and the North West Passage. Killigrew's Run. Killigrew and the Sea Devil.

American Foreign Policy and The Politics of Fear A. Trevor Thrall, Jane K. Cramer, 2009-05-07 This edited volume addresses the issue of threat inflation in American foreign policy and domestic politics The Bush administration s aggressive campaign to build public support for an invasion of Iraq reheated fears about the president s ability to manipulate the public and many charged the administration with threat inflation duping the news media and misleading the public into supporting the war under false pretences Presenting the latest research these essays seek to answer the question of why threat inflation occurs and when it will be successful Simply defined it is the effort by elites to create concern for a threat that goes beyond the scope and urgency that disinterested analysis would justify More broadly the process concerns how elites view threats the political uses of threat inflation the politics of threat framing among competing elites and how the public interprets and perceives threats via the news media The war with Iraq gets special attention in this volume along with the War on Terror Although many believe that the Bush administration successfully inflated the Iraq threat there is not a neat consensus about why this was successful Through both theoretical contributions and case studies this book showcases the four major explanations of threat inflation realism domestic politics psychology and constructivism and makes them confront one another directly The result is a richer appreciation of this important dynamic in US politics and foreign policy present and future This book will be of much interests to students of US foreign and national security policy international security strategic studies and IR in general Trevor Thrall is Assistant Professor of Political Science and directs the Master of Public Policy program at the University of Michigan Dearborn Jane Kellett Cramer is an Assistant Professor of Political Science at the University of Oregon
