Approaches to the Theory of Freedom in Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz Virginia Aspe Armella, 2018-05-06 Virginia Aspe's erudite Approaches to the Theory of Freedom offers a new interpretation of Primero Sueño probably the highest Spanish written poem written by the nun Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz Aspe considers the philosophical and theological influences regarding Sor Juana's development of her concept and ideal of freedom. With vast erudition, Aspe helps advance the field of Sor Juana studies beyond what Paz was able to accomplish. She emphasises the influence of the Jesuit theology of the University of Coimbra. New perspectives and references available to the Spanish-speaking world, such as the recent translation of several previously unknown Latin texts from Sor Juana's Mexican contemporaries, provide insights that help Aspe take our understanding of the poem further and cast new lights on her idea of freedom as well as her background and references. Approaches to the Theory of Freedom help us to become familiar with the way this magnificent poem becomes a defense of freedom. That is why this book means a significant contribution to our understanding of Sor Juana's thought and the poetry of Sor Juana's period.

Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz (CWS) Juana Inés de la Cruz (sor), 2005. The interest in Mexican Hieronymite nun Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz (1648-1695) is reaching extraordinary new levels. She has been the subject of plays, a feature film, scholarly conferences, books, and articles. Nobel Laureate poet Octavio Paz has called her one of the great poets of the Spanish language and considers her Response to Sor Philotea de la Cruz to be the first intellectual autobiography in the Hispanic world. At her death in 1695, Sor Juana was an internationally known poet, dramatist, and religious writer. Today she is still considered an exceptional lyric poet and one of the great writers of Spain's siglo de oro (its Golden Age of drama). Included here are religious songs and devotional poetry, Sor Juana's sacramental drama and preface play Divine Narcissus, two devotional works, first English translation Devotional Exercises for the Feast of the Incarnation and Offerings for the Sorrows of Our Lady, a theological disputation Critique of a Sermon, Athenagoric Letter, and her autobiographical Response to Sor Philotea de la Cruz. Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz Selected Religious Works in the Classics of Western Spirituality Series is essential reading for those interested in great literary figures, religious studies, and women's history.

Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz, Critique of a Sermon and Other Letters, 2025-02-04. Sor Juana's Respuesta a sor Filotea (1691) is one of her most widely read works and an established text in the history of women's writing. Less frequently studied is the epistolary exchange to which it responds, particularly Juana's Crisis sobre un sermón or Carta atenagórica (1690), her response to a sermon by the Portuguese Jesuit Antonio Vieira on Christ's greatest fineza or demonstration of love. In the Crisis, Sor Juana puts into practice what she would later argue in the Respuesta: that women could and should engage in theological study and that a woman's well-reasoned argument would defeat any man's ill-founded and unorthodox thought. This is the first annotated critical edition and English translation of the complete published exchange between Sor Juana and Manuel Fernández de Santa Cruz, with a comprehensive introduction, commented textual variants, and extensive textual notes. The introduction explores how the Crisis can be read in relation to Juana's other works, including her love poetry, her eucharistic drama El mrtir del Sacramento, and Primero sueo. By analysing its central themes, this study argues that the Crisis is key to Juana's defence of women's learning while also shedding light on her views on gender, theological enquiry, and the dynamics of love, both religious and secular.

Women Past and Present Maria Zina Gonçalves de Abreu, 2014-06-02 In Western societies many traditional feminist claims have already been fulfilled both in law and in official discourse Indeed legislative steps have already been taken towards securing civil and political rights and equal opportunities for women This of course is not the case in many other regions of the world as some of the chapters in this book clearly testify Yet notwithstanding the gains achieved in Western societies residual forms of resistance and prejudice still persist in discourses categories and discriminative practices in this so called post feminist era Furthermore new manifestations of asymmetries in gender relations and new ways of thinking and experiencing subjectivity are currently emerging as a result of growing globalisation economic crises migration patterns female sex and labour trafficking trans nationalism and new technologies not to mention the beauty and body sculpting industries The Routledge Research Companion to the Works of Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz Emilie L. Christian Solar Symbolism and Jesus the Sun of Justice Kevin Duffy, 2022-02-24 This pioneering study of Christian sun symbolism describes how biblical light motifs were taken up with energy in the early Church Kevin Duffy argues that living in a world of 24/7 illumination we need to reconnect with the sun and its light to appreciate the meaning of light in the Bible and Christian tradition With such a retrieval we can appreciate Pope Francis's insistence that like the moon the Church does not shine with its own light and assess the claim that the Eucharist is to be celebrated Ad Orientem that is towards the rising sun in the East Liturgy architecture poetry and the writings of saints and theologians such as Augustine Hildegard of Bingen Francis of Assisi and Thomas Traherne offer abundant resources for a much needed ressourcement While Christ was preached as the True Sun among sun worshipping Aztecs and the consecrated host was placed in a solar monstrance on Baroque altars in the modern era solar themes have been neglected In this accessible work the author suggests that we rebalance a spiritual symbolism that has over emphasised darkness and cloud at the expense of light and sun He proposes a creative retrieval of the traditional title of Christ as the Sun of Justice This title blends the personal the social and the cosmic ecological and speaks powerfully to a secularising era that contemporaries Friedrich Nietzsche and Thérèse of Lisieux both described as one where the sun does not shine
