Spirit Of Place:

The Spirit of Place Loren Cruden, 1995-09 All of Earth's life is interconnected and sacred. An awareness of that sacred relationship opens a direct path to spiritual understanding. These powerful techniques join mind, will, spirit, and intuition to the plants, animals, and minerals sharing our world, aligning the practitioner in a deeper relationship with life's sacred matrix.

Spirits of Place in American Literary Culture John Gatta, 2018 What might it mean existentially and spiritually to form an intimate relation with discrete places on earth? This book offers a uniquely integrative perspective on the matter. Centered on analyzing US literatures, it reflects a theological phenomenology cognizant of the spiritualities grounded in First Nature as well as settled spaces.

The Art of Ruskin and the Spirit of Place John Dixon Hunt, 2020-10-14 English art critic John Ruskin was one of the great visionaries of his time, and his influential books and letters on the power of art challenged the foundations of Victorian life. He loved looking. Sometimes it informed the things he wrote, but often it provided access to the many topographical and cultural topics he explored: rocks, plants, birds, Turner, Venice, the Alps. In The Art of Ruskin and the Spirit of Place, John Dixon Hunt focuses for the first time on what Ruskin drew rather than wrote, offering a new perspective on Ruskin's visual imagination. Through analysis of more than 150 drawings and sketches (many reproduced here), he shows how Ruskin's art shaped his writings, his thoughts, and his sense of place.

The Soul of Place Linda Lappin, 2015-04-20 This is such a pleasure to read. Unlike most books with writing prompts, this one goes in depth with sensitizing you to ground yourself in awareness of where you are and why. Grazie, Linda, for this marvelous work.

Frances Mayes, author of Under the Tuscan Sun. In this engaging creative writing workbook, novelist and poet Linda Lappin presents a series of insightful exercises to help writers of all genres (literary, travel, writing, memoir, poetry, fiction, creative nonfiction) discover imagery and inspiration in the places they love. Lappin departs from the classical concept of the Genius Loci, the indwelling spirit residing in every landscape, house, city, or forest, to argue that by entering into contact with the unique energy and identity of a place, writers can access an inexhaustible source of creative power. The Soul of Place provides instruction on how to evoke that power. The writing exercises are drawn from many fields: architecture, painting, cuisine, literature, and literary criticism, geography, and deep maps, Jungian psychology, fairy tales, mythology, theater, and performance art, metaphysics, all of which offer surprising perspectives on our writing and may help us uncover raw materials for fiction, essays, and poetry hidden in our environment. An essential resource book for the writer's library, this book is ideal for creative writing courses with stimulating exercises adaptable to all genres. For writers or travelers about to set out on a trip abroad, The Soul of Place is the perfect road trip companion, attuning our senses to a deeper awareness of place.

Spirits of the Place John Clifford Holt, 2009-07-29 Spirits of the Place is a rare and timely contribution to our understanding of religious culture in Laos and Southeast Asia. Most often studied as a part of Thai, Vietnamese, or Khmer history, Laos remains a terra incognita to most Westerners and to many of the people living throughout Asia, as well. John Holt's new book brings this fascinating nation into focus With its overview of Lao Buddhism and analysis of how shifting political power from royalty to democracy to communism has impacted Lao religious culture the book offers an integrated account of the entwined political and religious history of Laos from the fourteenth century to the contemporary era Holt advances the provocative argument that common Lao knowledge of important aspects of Theravada Buddhist thought and practice has been heavily conditioned by an indigenous religious culture dominated by the veneration of phi spirits whose powers are thought to prevail over and within specific social and geographical domains The enduring influence of traditional spirit cults in Lao culture and society has brought about major changes in how the figure of the Buddha and the powers associated with Buddhist temples and reliquaries indeed how all ritual spaces and times have been understood by the Lao Despite vigorous attempts by Buddhist royalty French rationalists and most recently by communist ideologues to eliminate the worship of phi spirit cults have not been displaced they continue to persist and show no signs of abating Not only have the spirits resisted eradication but they have withstood synthesis subordination and transformation by Buddhist political and ecclesiastical powers Rather than reduce Buddhist religious culture to a set of simple commonalities Holt takes a comparative approach using his nearly thirty years experience with Sri Lanka to elucidate what is unique about Lao Buddhism This stimulating book invites students in the fields of the history of religion and Buddhist and Southeast Asian studies to take a fresh look at prevailing assumptions and perhaps reconsider the place of Buddhism in Laos and Southeast Asia

A Sense of the American West James E.

Sherow,1998-10 An anthology of diverse approaches and issues in the environmental history of the American West

Virtual America John Opie,2008-01-01 Virtual America traces the complex relationship between Americans technology and their environment as it has unfolded over the past several centuries Throughout history Americans have constructed mental pictures of unique places such as the American West that have taken on more authority than the actual gritty landscapes This disconnect from reality is magnified by the new world of virtual realities on the computer screen where personal immersion in interactive simulations becomes the default environment Virtual America identifies the connections or lack thereof between our individual selves an American identity and the geography out there John Opie examines what he calls First Nature the natural world Second Nature metropolitan infrastructure built environment and Third Nature virtual reality in cyberspace He also explores how Americans have historically dreamed about a better life in daily ordinary existence and then fulfilled it through the Engineered America of our built environment the Consumer America of material well being and the Triumphal America of our conviction that we are the world s exceptional model But these dream worlds have also encouraged placelessness and thus indifference to our dwelling in home ground Finally Opie explores Last Nature a sense of place and argues that when we identify an authentic place we can locate authenticity of self a reification of place and self by their connectedness

Poetics of Place Dermot McCarthy,1990-12-01 Dermot McCarthy has made extensive use of manuscripts correspondence and other archival material to uncover the complexity and genius of Gustafson s creativity He traces Gustafson s development from an early adolescent romanticism to his later modernist and post modernist approaches and situates this progression in the context of the general shifts in poetic approach and theory which took place during the same period A Poetics of Place surveys not only the life of a poet but the evolution of literary sensibilities from the thirties to the eighties Rather than force Gustafson s work into a theoretical matrix McCarthy has avoided critical jargon and fads of literary theory and has focused on Gustafson as a writer providing a perceptive and detailed analysis of all the major poems and volumes McCarthy shows Gustafson s appreciation of the local his poetics of place to be a distinguishing feature of his genius McCarthy allows the reader to return to the poetry itself

Mediated Identities in the Futures of Place: Emerging Practices and Spatial Cultures Lakshmi Priya Rajendran, NezHapi Dellé Odeleye, 2020-01-02 This book examines the emerging problems and opportunities that are posed by media innovations spatial typologies and cultural trends in re shaping identities within the fast changing milieus of the early 21st Century Addressing a range of social and spatial scales and using a phenomenological frame of reference the book draws on the works of Heidegger Merleau Ponty and Don Hide to bridge the seemingly disparate yet related theoretical perspectives across a number of disciplines Various perspectives are put forward from media human geography cultural studies technologies urban design and architecture etc and looked at thematically from networked culture and digital interface and other perspectives The book probes the ways in which new digital media trends affect how and what we communicate and how they drive and reshape our everyday practices This mediatization of space with fast evolving communication platforms and applications of digital representations offers challenges to our notions of space identity and culture and the book explores the diverse yet connected levels of technology and people interaction
