   The International Library of Famous Literature Richard Garnett,Alois Brandl,Donald Grant Mitchell,1900   The International Library of Famous Literature ,1898   God and the American Writer Alfred Kazin,2013-09-11 God and the American Writer does more to illuminate the fundamental purposes and motivations of our greatest writers from Hawthorne to Faulkner than any study I have read in the past fifty five years that is since the same author s On Native Grounds Louis S Auchincloss This is the culminating work of the finest living critic of American literature Alfred Kazin brings a lifetime of thought and reading to the triumphant elucidation of his fascinating and slippery subjects what the meaning of God has been for American writers and how those writers from the New England Calvinists to William Faulkner have expressed it In a series of trenchant critical studies of writers as divergent as Hawthorne Melville Emerson Lincoln Whitman Dickinson Twain William James Eliot Frost and Faulkner Kazin gives a profound sense of each and his quotations from their works are artfully chosen to pursue the main theme The centerpiece of the book is the reflection in American writing of the great American tragedy the Civil War so deeply involved in the whole complex issue of religion in America An enthralling book by a major writer This is a book about the place of God in the imaginative life of a country that for two centuries countenanced slavery and then engaged in a fratricidal war to end it For Americans no subject is more compelling or in its entanglement with the deepest roots of the national soul more terrible And no one has ever written as incisively as movingly or as unforgivingly about it as Alfred Kazin has here Louis Menand In the era of willful obfuscation Alfred Kazin is the good clear word a brilliant scholar and an original reader His latest book God and the American Writer which comes fifty five years after On Native Grounds proves he has lost nothing and gives us everything he has David Remnick American writers have been born into all sorts of religious sects but have had to struggle in solitude to make sense of God Alfred Kazin a cosmos

unto himself has written brilliantly and affectingly of how a dozen or so of our finest authors poets novelists philosophers and one president endured and illuminated that struggle Kazin is sometimes passionate even fierce especially in his discussions of slavery and of his hero and mine Abraham Lincoln But as ever Kazin s writing is tempered by an enormous American empathy and by his sense of irony about our country and its spiritual predicaments Spare sharp and immensely learned God and the American Writer is the most moving volume of criticism yet by our greatest living critic Sean Wilentz Who's who Among North American Authors ,1929 The Twentieth Century Biographical Dictionary of Notable Americans ... Rossiter Johnson,John Howard Brown,1904 Herringshaw's Encyclopedia of American Biography of the Nineteenth Century Thomas William Herringshaw,1898 Partners in God's Love John Davey,2007-04 Written by a retired missionary in the form of a daily devotional this book combines a lifetime of personal experiences with biblical principles It covers topics such as patriotic love brotherly love love calling children home love among the ruins and self love Practical Life The Harvard Register Moses King,1880 Encyclopedia of American Poetry: The Nineteenth Century Eric L.
