The McMichael Canadian Collection McMichael Canadian Collection, Paul Duval, 1979 A Heritage of Canadian Art McMichael Canadian Collection, 1979 The McMichaels and The McMichael Canadian Art Collection Richard Daniel Laurin, 2017 The project is an event based analysis of a group of pioneer objects held at the McMichael Canadian Art Collection Using institutional records and published accounts collecting and cataloguing activities are examined and present evidence of historical discrepancies in the treatment of these objects throughout the development of the institution The project exposes how historical attitudes towards the pioneer objects categorically separated them from the original donation of the McMichael collection in 1965 and how institutional publications helped frame the growing collection as exclusively art focused Significant historical cataloguing activities and projects expose institutional discrepancies related to the treated and

cataloguing of pioneer objects at the McMichael As a whole the project uses these historical discrepancies as part of a framework that begins to question the continued nature of the relationship of the pioneer objects to the McMichael given the institution's current silence towards this element of its development and collection holdings Explore, Experience, Eventure McMichael Canadian Collection, 198?
