FALLING IN LOVE AT THE END OF THE ROAD Ronald John Vierling, 2013-03-25 A Most Unlikely Likely American Tale Appearances can be deceptive First impressions can be misleading People who might seem so different that they could never become a couple sometimes turn around and fall in love Perhaps that's part of what makes the world interesting Falling in Love at the End of the Road is that kind of story A young unmarried Haitian woman Isabel Jean fleeing with her ten year old daughter as far away from the dangers of violent abuse as she can all the way to Ely Minnesota crosses paths with a mature Caucasian widower Samuel Woolf who has lived in lonely isolation in his family's lake house for two years following his beloved wife's death Initially drawn together by her financial and his emotional needs as time passes they discover their apparent ethnic differences are superficial their psychological similarities are profound However be advised while this tale might initially appear predictable and simple it is in fact deceptively compelling and complex as compelling as the heroine and hero's evolving relationship and as complex as the surprising if terrifying climax Isabel Ebony Jean and Samuel Singer

Woolf may well be the most unlikely likely couple modern readers have ever had the experience of meeting Joyce Davidse M Ed University of Central Florida
