The Memoirs Of Sir Ronald Storrs:

The Memoirs of Sir Ronald Storrs Sir Ronald Storrs,1937 The Memoirs of Sir Ronald Storrs Ronald Storrs,2013-10

This is a new release of the original 1937 edition T. E. Lawrence Jeffrey Meyers,1974 The EOKA Cause Andrew R. Novo,2020-11-12 This book explores the origins conduct and failure of Greek Cypriot nationalists to achieve the unification of Cyprus with Greece Andrew Novo addresses the anti colonial struggle in the context of the competition for the nationalist narrative in Cyprus between the Left and Right the duelling Greek Cypriot and Turkish Cypriot nationalisms in Cyprus the role of Turkey and Greece in the conflict on the island and the concerns of the British Empire during its retrenchment following the Second World War More than a narrative history of the period an analysis of British policy or a description of counter insurgency operations this book lays out an examination of the underpinnings of the enosis cause and its manifestation in action It argues that the strategic myopia of the enosis movement shackled the cause defined its conduct and was the primary reason for its failure Divided and occupied Cyprus and the world deal with its unresolved legacy to this day Empires of Antiquities Billie Melman,2020-03-31 Empires of Antiquities is a history of the rediscovery of civilizations of the ancient Near East in the imperial order that evolved between the outbreak of the First World War and the 1950s It explores the ways in which Near Eastern antiquity was redefined and experienced becoming the subject of new regulation new modes of knowledge and international and local politics A series of globally publicized spectacular archaeological discoveries in Iraq Egypt and Palestine which the book follows made antiquity visible palpable and accessible as never before The new uses of antiquity and its relations to modernity were inseparable from the emergence of the post war world order imperial collaboration and collisions and national aspirations Empires of Antiquities uniquely combines a history of the internationalization of a new regime of archaeology under the oversight of the League of Nations and its web of institutions a history of British passions for Near Eastern antiquity on the ground colonial mechanisms and nationalist claims on the past It points to the centrality of the mandate system particularly mandates classified A in Mesopotamia Iraq Palestine and Transjordan formerly governed by the Ottoman Empire and of Egypt in a new culture of antiquity Drawing on an unusually wide range of archives in several countries as well as on visual and material evidence the book weaves together imperial international and local histories of institutions people ideas and objects and offers an entirely new interpretation of the history of archaeological discovery and its connections to empires and modernity Worlds at War Anthony Pagden,2009-07-16 The differences that divide West from East go deeper than politics deeper than religion argues Anthony Pagden To understand this volatile relationship and how it has played out over the centuries we need to go back before the Crusades before the birth of Islam before the birth of Christianity to the fifth century BCE Europe was born out of Asia and for centuries the two shared a single history But when the Persian emperor Xerxes tried to conquer Greece a struggle began which has never ceased This book tells the story of that long conflict First Alexander the Great and then the Romans tried to unite Europe and Asia into a single civilization With the conversion of the West to Christianity and much of the East to Islam a bitter war broke out between two universal religions each claiming world dominance By the seventeenth century with the decline of the Church the contest had shifted from religion to philosophy the West's scientific rationality in contrast to those sought ultimate guidance in the words of God The eighteenth and nineteenth centuries witnessed the disintegration of the great Muslim empires the Ottoman the Mughal and the Safavid in Iran and the increasing Western domination of the whole of Asia The resultant attempt to mix Islam and Western modernism sparked off a struggle in the Islamic world between reformers and traditionalists which persists to this day The wars between East and West have not only been the longest and most costly in human history they have also formed the West's vision of itself as independent free secular and now democratic They have shaped and continue to shape the nature of the modern world

A Short History of Jerusalem Abraham Ezra Millgram,1998 A Short History of Jerusalem offers a concise easy to read history of the land and the country's significance to the rest of the world

The Making of the First World War Ian F. W. Beckett,2012-11-15 Nearly a century has passed since the assassination of Austria Hungary's Archduke Ferdinand yet the repercussions of the devastating global conflict that followed echo still In this provocative book historian Ian Beckett turns the spotlight on twelve particular events of the First World War that continue to shape the world today Focusing on episodes both well known and scarcely remembered Beckett tells the story of the Great War from a new perspective stressing accident as much as strategy the small as well as the great the social as well as the military and the long term as much as the short term The Making of the First World War is global in scope The book travels from the deliberately flooded fields of Belgium to the picture palaces of Britain's cinema from the idealism of Wilson's Washington to the catastrophic German Lys offensive of 1918 While war is itself an agent of change Beckett shows the most significant developments occur not only on the battlefields or in the corridors of power but also in hearts and minds Nor may the decisive turning points during years of conflict be those that were thought to be so at the time With its wide reach and unexpected conclusions this book revises and expands our understanding of the legacy of the First World War

The Contest and Control of Jerusalem's Holy Sites Marshall J. Breger,Leonard M. Hammer,2023-08-17 The Holy Places of Jerusalem's Old City are among the most contested sites in the world and the ground zero of the Israeli Palestinian conflict Tensions regarding control are rooted in misperceptions over the status of the sites the role of external bodies such as religious organizations and civil society and misunderstanding regarding the political roles of the many actors associated with the sites In this volume Marshall J Breger and Leonard M Hammer clarify a complex and fraught situation by providing insight into the laws and rules pertaining to Jerusalem's holy sites Providing a compendium of important legal sources and broad form policy analysis they show how laws pertaining to Holy Places have been implemented and engaged The book weaves aspects of history politics and religion that have played a role in creation and identification of the law It also offers solutions for solving some of the central challenges related to the creation control and use of Holy

Places in Jerusalem An Arabian Diary Gilbert Clayton, 2022-04-29 This personal diary of six months of diplomacy and travel in Arabia represents an impressive document to the quiet ability and resourcefulness of one of Great Britain's leading officials in the Middle East in the 1920s. The sudden expansion of the Arabian Sultanate of Najd under the leadership of Abd al Aziz ibn Saud after the First World War presented a clear danger to British interests in the Middle East and threatened the strategically important Arabian corridor to India. To resolve this problem the British government selected Sir Gilbert Clayton as their envoy to negotiate a settlement of differences and to determine the frontier between Saudi Arabia and the British Mandates of Trans Jordan and Iraq. Sir Gilbert Falkingham Clayton 1875-1929 was a quiet able soldier administrator and diplomat who had come out to the Middle East during the reconquest of the Sudan and remained as a political officer in the Sudan service secretary to the Governor General of the Sudan Sir Reginald Wingate and finally the Sudan agent at Cairo. At the outbreak of the First World War Clayton served as the director of Military Intelligence and forged that remarkable intelligence team which included among others Leonard Woolley, George Lloyd and T E Lawrence. Experience and resourceful Clayton was an obvious choice to travel to the tents of Ibn Saud where in the autumn of 1925 he negotiated the Bahra and Hadda Agreements fixing the frontiers of Saudi Arabia with Trans Jordan and Iraq and cementing friendship between Britain and Ibn Saud. These results represent a brilliant triumph of personal diplomacy which protected British interests and inaugurated the lifelong friendship between Sir Gilbert and Ibn Saud. The story of these negotiations and Sir Gilbert's subsequent mission to the Imam of Yemen as the first official representative of the British government to visit San'a are told in this valuable historical diary. This title was originally published in 1969. The Persians Amongst the English Denis Wright, 1985-12-31 Mandated Landscape Roza El-Eini, 2004-11-23 In this ground breaking authoritative study a highly documented and incisive analysis is made of the galvanising changes wrought to the people and landscape of British Mandated Palestine 1929-1948. Using a comprehensive and interdisciplinary approach the book's award winning author examines how the British imposed their rule dominated by the clashing dualities of their Mandate obligations towards the Arabs and the Jews and their own interests. The rulers' Empire wide conceptions of the White man's burden and preconceptions of the Holy Land were potent forces of change influencing their policies. Lucidly written Mandated Landscape is also a rich source of information supported by numerous maps, tables and illustrations and has 66 appendices, a considerable bibliography and extensive index. With a theoretical and historical backdrop the ramifications of British rule are highlighted in their impact on town planning, agriculture, forestry, land, the partition plans and a case study presenting discussions on such issues as development, ecological shock law and the controversial division of village lands as the British operated in a politically turbulent climate often within their own administration This book is a major contribution to research on British Palestine and will interest those in Middle East history geography development and colonial postcolonial studies

The Poetry and Essays of Uri Zvi Grinberg Tamar Wolf-Monzon,2024-04-30 This book focuses on the complex network of relationships between the poet Uri Zvi Grinberg and the Labor Movement in Mandate Palestine from 1923 to 1937 Making use of letters found in the Uri Zvi Grinberg Archive at the National Library of Israel NLI the author reconstructs the characteristics of Grinberg s pioneer readership attesting to their special relationship with his poetry In the 1920s it is argued they considered Grinberg s poetry an authentic expression of their complex spiritual world and especially of the reality of their lives On his side Grinberg accepted the pioneering ethos as the ideological basis of his works becoming an outstanding poet of the Labor Movement The chapters of this book track the various phases of Grinberg s life and poetry from his emigration to Palestine through to the 1930s when he joined the Revisionist Movement and became increasingly ostracized from the Labor Movement The story of Grinberg s relations with the pioneers was emotionally charged a mixture of enchantment and rejection spiritual closeness and repulsion Ultimately this book analyzes the intensity of this connection and its many contradictory layers This book will interest researchers in a range of fields including Hebrew poetry and reception theory as well as anyone interested in Israeli studies and the history of the Labor Movement in Palestine

The Routledge Handbook of the History of the Middle East Mandates Cyrus Schayegh,Andrew Arsan,2015-06-05 The Routledge Handbook of the History of the Middle East Mandates provides an overview of the social political economic and cultural histories of the Middle East in the decades between the end of the First World War and the late 1940s when Britain and France abandoned their Mandates It also situates the history of the Mandates in their wider imperial international and global contexts incorporating them into broader narratives of the interwar decades In 27 thematically organised chapters the volume looks at various aspects of the Mandates such as The impact of the First World War and the development of a new state system The impact of the League of Nations and international governance Differing historical perspectives on the impact of the Mandates system Techniques and practices of government The political social economic and cultural experiences of the people living in and connected to the Mandates This book provides the reader with a guide to both the history of the Middle East Mandates and their complex relation with the broader structures of imperial and international life It will be a valuable resource for all scholars of this period of Middle Eastern and world history

Feast of Ashes Sato Moughalian,2019-04-23 The compelling life story of Armenian ceramicist David Ohannessian whose work changed the face of Jerusalem and a granddaughter s search for his legacy Along the cobbled streets and golden walls of Jerusalem brilliantly glazed tiles catch the light and beckon the eye These colorful wares known as Armenian ceramics are iconic features of the Holy City Silently these works of ceramic art art that also graces homes and museums around the world represent a riveting story of resilience and survival In the final years of the Ottoman Empire as hundreds of thousands of Armenians were forcibly marched to their deaths one man carried the secrets of this age old art with him into exile toward the Syrian desert Feast of Ashes tells the story of David Ohannessian the renowned ceramicist who in 1919 founded the art of Armenian pottery in Jerusalem where his work and that of his followers is now celebrated as a local treasure Ohannessian s life encompassed some of the most tumultuous upheavals of the modern Middle East Born in an isolated Anatolian mountain village he witnessed the rise of violent nationalism in the waning years of the Ottoman Empire endured arrest and deportation in the Armenian Genocide founded a new ceramics tradition in Jerusalem under the British Mandate and spent his final years uprooted in Cairo and Beirut Ohannessian s life story is revealed by his granddaughter Sato Moughalian weaving together family narratives with newly unearthed archival findings Witnessing her personal quest for the man she never met we come to understand a universal story of migration survival and hope

The Cyprus Tribute and Geopolitics in the Levant, 1875-1960 Diana Markides, 2019-04-03 This book examines the history of the Cyprus Tribute and takes a longer and broader view of the issue than previous studies It analyses the regional context of the decision to use revenue surpluses for the repayment of debt within the framework of the Eastern Question and Ottoman bankruptcy We see that the island was always strategically and financially overshadowed by Egypt Scrutinising political developments in Cyprus through the prism of the tribute issue facilitates a better understanding of its considerable effect on them The absence of any imperial role for Cyprus as a place d armes meant that there was no imperial interest in funding the infrastructural development of the island British policy was treasury driven Diana Markides analyses why it failed and how its failure resulted in the local colonial government having to impose a deeply unpopular fiscal policy for which there was no adequate explanation She examines the extent to which local resistance to this policy affected not only constitutional development on the island and Anglo Cypriot relations but the nature of the relations between the two major communities
