Tripping the Prom Queen Susan Shapiro Barash, 2007-03-06 Tripping the Prom Queen is a groundbreaking investigation into the dark secret of female friendship rivalry Susan Shapiro Barash has exploded the myth that women help one another are supportive of one another and want each other to succeed Based on interviews with women across a broad social spectrum she has discovered that the competition between women is more vicious precisely because it is covert She tells us Why women can't and won't admit to rivalry How women are trained from an early age to compete with one another In which areas women most heatedly compete How rivalry is different among women than among men The differences between competition envy and jealousy When competition is healthy and when it isn't Why women find it irresistible to trip the prom queen Useful strategies to stop the competition and forge a new kind of relationship with other women Whether you've tripped the prom queen or been tripped yourself you will discover an engrossing exploration of this female phenomenon as well as a beacon of hope for better more fulfilling relationships Ebony, 1991-09 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Women and Dance Christy Adair, 1992-10-27 A broad ranging account of women's roles and experience in dance which demolishes the myth that dance is a female art form by demonstrating the way in which it is dominated by male managers choreographers and directors While most dancers are women for the most part they interpret male constructed images rather than create their own This is not inevitable however the author argues dance is a possible arena for feminist practice and women's liberation Cincinnati Magazine, 1983-12 Cincinnati Magazine taps into the DNA of the city exploring shopping dining living and culture and giving readers a ringside seat on the issues shaping the region Why 70% Of Black Women Are Single Shawn James, Statistics state that 70 Percent of Black women are single And many believe that it's because Black women can't find a good Black man However what's keeping Black women single isn't a shortage of good Black men it's the fact that most Black women have learned a life paradigm from her mother that prevents her from having a successful relationship with any man In this eBook Shawn James explains all the historical economic political and social reasons leading to many Black women being single and how many of the approaches Black women have learned growing up from their mothers and grandmothers will keep them single and their daughters single in some cases for the rest of their lives With a Woman's Unit in Serbia, Salonika and Sebastopol Isabel Galloway Emslie Hutton, 1928 Black Belt, 1976-12 The oldest and most respected martial arts title in the industry this popular monthly magazine addresses the needs of martial artists of all levels by providing them with information about every style of self defense in the world including techniques and strategies In addition Black Belt produces and markets over 75 martial arts oriented books and videos including many about the works of Bruce Lee the best known martial arts figure in the world

Shirley Chisholm Barbara Winslow, 2018-04-27 A staunch proponent of breaking down racial and gender barriers Shirley

Chisholm had the esteemed privilege of being a pioneer in many aspects of her life. She was the first African American woman from Brooklyn elected to the New York State legislature and the first African American woman elected to Congress in 1968. She also made a run for the Democratic Party nomination for president in 1972. Focusing on Chisholm's lifelong advocacy for fair treatment, access to education, and equal pay for all American minority groups, this book explores the life of a remarkable woman in the context of twentieth-century urban America and the tremendous social upheaval that occurred after World War II. About the Lives of American Women series. Selected and edited by renowned women's historian Carol Berkin, these brief biographies are designed for use in undergraduate courses. Rather than a comprehensive approach, each biography focuses instead on a particular aspect of a woman's life that is emblematic of her time or which made her a pivotal figure in the era. The emphasis is on a good read featuring accessible writing and compelling narratives without sacrificing sound scholarship and academic integrity. Primary sources at the end of each biography reveal the subject's perspective in her own words. Study questions and an annotated bibliography support the student reader.

Black in America - Second Edition Jessica Edwards, 2024-02-15 Black in America samples the breadth of nonfiction writing on African American experiences in the United States from the eighteenth century to the present. The anthology emphasizes twenty-first century authors such as Ta-Nehisi Coates, Claudia Rankine, and Roxane Gay, but a substantial selection of important earlier writers from Phillis Wheatley and Olaudah Equiano through Sojourner Truth and Frederick Douglass to James Baldwin and Audre Lorde is also included. The second edition has been updated to feature notable works that have appeared since the first edition was published in 2018, particularly including works addressing the COVID-19 pandemic and the Black Lives Matter movement. The new edition also includes more selections that emphasize the joy and beauty of being Black in America. Selections are arranged by author in rough chronological order and feature headnotes, explanatory notes, and discussion questions to facilitate student engagement. A companion website contains additional readings, alternative tables of contents listing material by thematic subject and by genre and rhetorical style, an additional set of explanatory notes for the benefit of international students and/or non-native speakers of English, and links to further readings and other resources such as speeches, recitations, TED talks, and music videos. A percentage of the revenue from this book's sales will be donated to two organizations: Equal Justice Initiative and Color of Change. The Nation, 1901 The

Why Black Men Love White Women Rajen Persaud, 2009-03-03 Why do so many black men desire and covet the company of white women? And why does this subject deeply touch so many people of both races? Is it a matter of love, sex, revenge, power, or politics? All of the above, asserts Rajen Persaud in this illuminating no-holds-barred book that will have readers laughing with recognition while fundamentally changing the way they see just about everything from sex and marriage to gender and race in all its foibles, pretensions, and ultimate possibilities.

Ebony, 1971-10 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing. Founded in 1945 by John H. Johnson, it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine.

Black Women in America Kim Marie Vaz, 1994-11-02 This stimulating volume challenges the tendency to represent African American women's experiences as a monolithic whole. The interdisciplinary approach, organized around the theme of activism, enables an unusual and inventive selection of topics to be presented. The history, culture, sociology, and psychology of black women are richly represented.

How to Be a Super Man to Your Wife Jerry Humphrey, 2007-08 In a work geared toward male readers, Humphrey discusses the keys to saving a marriage and establishing it upon the principles of the Bible.
