The Mind of Norman Bethune Roderick Stewart, 1977 The Mind of Norman Bethune contains the most important and revealing writings by Norman Bethune himself presented in a biographical context and illustrated with over 100 related photographs much of the material and many of the pictures are published here for the first time Bethune's distinctive place in modern history is now nearly 40 years after his death fully acknowledged As a Montreal surgeon in the 1930s he was drawn to left wing political commitment Determined to act he went to Spain at the outbreak of the Civil War and set up a mobile blood transfusion service for the Loyalist forces which operated in the thick of the fighting Shortly thereafter in 1937 Dr Bethune decided to go to China and aid as best he could Mao Tse tung's forces and the Chinese people who were then under attack by the Japanese Organizing a mobile medical unit and working under the most primitive and war torn conditions Bethune set an example of personal sacrifice and commitment which after his death in November 1939 made a permanent impression on China Mao Tse tung wrote of Bethune in a memorial essay We must all learn the spirit of absolute selflessness from him Bethune was a complex volatile man His interests were not only medical and political but literary and artistic as well and are effectively revealed by his writing In The Mind of Norman Bethune the development of his character can be seen directly as can his passionate and paradoxical nature

Spaces Counter narratives and Culture from Below in Canada and Quebec explores strategies for reading space and conflict in Canadian and Quebecois literature and cultural performances posing questions such as how do these texts and performances produce and contest spatial practices What are the roles of the nation city community and individual subject in reproducing space particularly in times of global hegemony and neocolonialism And in what ways do marginalized individuals and communities represent contest or appropriate spaces through counter narratives and expressions of culture from below Focusing on discord rather than harmony and consensus this collection disturbs the idealized space of Canadian multicultural pluralism to carry literary analysis and cultural studies into spaces often undetected and unforeseen including flophouses and slums shantytowns and urban alleyways underground spaces and peep shows and inner city urban parks as they are experienced by minorities and other marginalized groups These essays are the products of sustained high level collaboration across French and English academic communities in Canada to facilitate theoretical exchange on the topic of space and contestation uncover geographies of exclusion and generate new spaces of hope in the spirit of pioneering works by Henri Lefebvre Michel Foucault Michel de Certeau Doreen Massey David Harvey and other prominent theorists of space establishing itself in world affairs An overview of Canada's initial foray into Pacific affairs it begins with the opening in 1929 of the Canadian legation in Tokyo Canada's third such office overseas and concludes with the outbreak of hostilities in 1941 Primarily a diplomatic history the book also explores the impact of traders interest groups and missionaries on Canadian attitudes toward Japan during the interwar years More fundamentally it examines Canada's diplomatic coming of age closely revealing its important Pacific dimension a fact overlooked by historians until now as well as the disjunct between Canada's commitment to peace and its trade with an aggressor Meehan suggests that Canada's initially benign view of Japan its reluctance to adopt positions in advance of its Anglo American allies and its lucrative Pacific trade led to a credibility gap in its policies towards East Asia The Dominion and the Rising Sun charts Canada's relationship with Japan and is essential reading for those interested in Canadian history international relations and Asia Pacific studies

Sweeter Than All The World Rudy Wiebe, 2010-10-22 Rudy Wiebe's latest novel is at once an enthralling saga of the Mennonite people and one man's emotional voyage into his heritage and his own self discovery Ambitious in its historical sweep tender and humane Sweeter Than All the World takes us on an extraordinary odyssey never before fully related in a contemporary novel The novel tells the story of the Mennonite people from the early days of persecution in sixteenth century Netherlands and follows their emigration to Danzig London Russia and the Americas through the horrors of World War II to settlement in Paraguay and Canada It is told episodically in a double stranded narrative The first strand consists of different voices of historical figures The other narrative voice is that of Adam Wiebe born in Saskatchewan in 1935 whom we encounter at telling stages of his life as a small boy playing in the bush as a student hunting caribou a week before his wedding and as a middle aged man carefully negotiating a temporary separation from his wife As Adam faces the collapse of his marriage and the disappearance of his daughter he becomes obsessed with understanding his ancestral past Wiebe meshes the history of a people with the story of a modern family laying bare the complexities of desire and family love religious faith and human frailty The past comes brilliantly alive beginning with the horrors of the Reformation when Weynken Claes Wybe is burned at the stake for heretical views on Communion We are caught up in the great events of each century as we follow in the footsteps of Adam's forebears the genius engineer who invented the cable car system the artist Enoch Seeman who found acclamation at the royal court in London after having been forbidden to paint by the Elders Anna who endures the great wagon trek across the Volga in 1860 leaving behind her hopes of marriage so that her brothers will escape conscription in the Prussian army and Elizabeth Katerina caught in the Red Army's advance into Germany when rape and pillage are the rewards given to soldiers The title of the novel taken from a hymn reflects the beauty and sorrow of these stories of courage In a startling act of invention Sweeter Than All the World sets one man's quest for family and love against centuries of turmoil Rudy Wiebe first wrote of Mennonite resettlement in his 1970 epic novel The Blue Mountains of China Since then much of his work has focused on re imagining the history of the Canadian Northwest In Sweeter Than All the World as in many of his most acclaimed novels Wiebe has sought out real historical characters to tell an extraordinary story William Keith a University of Toronto professor and author of a book about Wiebe writes Wiebe has a knack for divining wells of human feeling in historical sources Here all the main characters share his name and the history is one to which he belongs Moreover alongside those flashbacks into history is revealed an utterly compelling contemporary story of a man whose background is not totally unlike the author s own Wiebe sets his narrative against his two favourite backdrops the northern Alberta landscape and the shared memories of the Mennonite people Sweeter Than All the World is a compassionate erudite and stimulating work of fiction that shares the deep rooted concerns of all of Wiebe s work how to make history live in our imagination and how we can best live our lives This Time a Better Earth, by Ted Allan Ted Allan,2015-01-22 A young man marches over the Pyrenees to fight fascism This new edition of Ted Allan s novel reintroduces readers to the electrifying milieu of the Spanish Civil War Daily Report, Foreign Radio Broadcasts United States. Central Intelligence Agency,1966

Bibliography of the History of Medicine ,1984 Spirits of Protestantism Pamela E. Klassen,2011-06-25 Klassen s book is much more than a first rate study of how two churches in Canada positioned themselves within the ostensibly parallel worlds of biomedicine and spiritual healing It is at its core an insightful meditation on the relationship between liberal Protestantism and the project of modernity A must read not only for students of Christianity but all those interested in the legacies of secularism and enchantment Matthew Engelke London School of Economics
