The Place Of Faith And Grace In Judaism:

The Place of Faith and Grace in Judaism David R. Blumenthal, 1985 Exploring Our Hebraic Heritage Marvin R. Wilson, 2014-07-09 In this very readable sequel to his popular book Our Father Abraham which has sold more than 70 000 copies Marvin Wilson illuminates theological spiritual and ethical themes of the Hebrew scriptures that directly affect Christian understanding and experience Exploring Our Hebraic Heritage draws from both Christian and Jewish commentary in discussing such topics as thinking theologically about Abraham understanding the God of Israel and his reputation in the world and what it means for humans to be created in God's image Wilson calls for the church to restore renew and protect its foundations by studying and appreciating its origins in Judaism Designed to serve as an academic classroom text or for use in personal or group study the book includes hundreds of questions for review and discussion Reading Paul within Judaism Mark D. Nanos, 2017-10-17 The dominant portrayals of the apostle Paul are of a figure who no longer valued Jewish identity and behavior opposing them for both Jew and non Jew in his assemblies This prevailing version of Paul depends heavily upon certain interpretations of key flashpoint passages In this book and the subsequent volumes in this series Mark Nanos undertakes to test a Paul within Judaism re reading of the apostle especially of these flashpoint texts Nanos demonstrates how traditional conclusions about Paul and the meaning of his letters are dramatically altered by testing the hypothesis that the historical Paul practiced a Jewish Torah observant way of life and that he expected those whom he addressed to know that he did so Nanos also tests the hypothesis that the non Jews addressed were expected to know that his guidance was based on promoting a Jewish way of life for themselves at the same time insisting that they remain non Jews and thus not technically under Torah on the same terms as himself and the other Jews in this new Jewish movement In conversation with the prevailing views Nanos argues that the Paul within Judaism perspective offers not only more historically probable interpretations of Paul's texts but also more promise for better relations between Christians and Jews because these texts have informed Christian concepts of ways of talking about and behavior toward Jews based on the premise that Paul considered Jews and Judaism the mirror opposites of what Christians should be and become Paul Unbound Mark D. Given, 2022-06-24 As long as there are readers of Paul there will be always be other perspectives The essays in this second edition of Paul Unbound Other Perspectives on the Apostle provide introductions to Paul's relationship to and views on the Roman Empire first century economic stratification his opponents ethnicity the law Judaism women and Greco Roman rhetoric Contributors Warren Carter Charles H Cosgrove A Andrew Das Steven J Friesen Mark D Given Deborah Krause Mark D Nanos and Jerry L Sumney have added addendums to their original essays and updated the bibliography to take into account scholarship produced in the decade since the publication of the first edition The collection provides essential background and sets out new directions for study useful to students of the New Testament and Paul's letters The Gospel of Matthew and Christian Judaism David C. Sim, 1998-01-01 In this meticulously researched study

David C Sim reconstructs the Matthean community at the time the Gospel was written and traces its full history Dr Sim demonstrates that the Matthean community should be located in Antioch in the late first century and he argues that the history of this community can only be understood in the context of the factionalism of the early Christian movement He identifies two distinctive and opposing Christian perspectives the first represented by the Jerusalem church and the Matthean community which maintained that the Christian message must be preached within the context of Judaism and the second represented by Paul and the Pauline communities in which Christians were not expected to observe the Jewish law Dr Sim reconstructs not only the conflict between Matthew's Christian Jewish community and the Pauline churches but also its further conflicts with the Jewish and Gentile worlds in the aftermath of the Jewish war

Paul and Palestinian Judaism E. P. Sanders, 2017-10-12 This landmark work which has shaped a generation of scholarship compares the apostle Paul with contemporary Judaism both understood on their own terms E P Sanders proposes a methodology for comparing similar but distinct religious patterns demolishes a flawed view of rabbinic Judaism still prevalent in much New Testament scholarship and argues for a distinct understanding of the apostle and of the consequences of his conversion A new foreword by Mark A Chancey outlines Sanders's achievement reviews the principal criticisms raised against it and describes the legacy he leaves future interpreters

Israel's Law and the Church's Faith Stephen Westerholm, 1988 Westerholm is admirably concerned to focus our attention on Paul's theology specifically on the theological issues that arose for the Apostle in his valiant attempt to assess the role of the law after the advent of Christ Beginning with an unusually mature account of the debate that is currently raging over Paul's understanding of the law Westerholm has provided an analysis of his own that will certainly claim the attention of all students of Paul the theologian J Louis Martyn This is the most clearly written and understandable treatment of the debate over the law in Pauline thought that I have seen Robert Jewett Westerholm has produced an illuminating engaging and refreshing book He sets forth the views of major interpreters of Paul with clarity and candor engages them and then makes proposals of his own which are both well considered and instructive The book is both interesting and informative a reader's delight Arland J Hultgren

Reading Paul in Context: Explorations in Identity Formation Kathy Ehrensperger, J. Brian Tucker, 2010-09-30 This new collection celebrates the distinguished contribution of William S Campbell to a renewed understanding of Paul's theologizing and its influence on the shaping of early Christian identity The essays are clustered around two closely related topics Paul's theologizing and the way it influenced Christian identity within the context of Roman Empire The essays consider the continued relevance of previous identities in Christ the importance of the context of the Roman Empire and the significance of the Jewishness of Paul and the Pauline movement in the shaping of identity The political context is discussed by Neil Elliott Ekkehard Stegemann Daniel Patte and Ian Rock whilst the Jewish roots of Paul and the Christ movement are addressed in essays by Robert Jewett Mark Nanos Calvin Roetzel and Kathy Ehrensperger Paul's specific influence in shaping the identity of the early Christ movement is the concern of essays by

Robert Brawley Jerry Sumney Kar Yong Lim and J Brian Tucker Finally methodological reflection on Paul's theologizing within Pauline studies is the concern of essays by Terrence Donaldson and Magnus Zetterholm Paul, Judaism, and Judgment According to Deeds Kent L. Yinger, 1999-04-22 Why does judgment according to deeds produce no discernible theological tension for Paul the apostle of justification by faith For students of his writings paradox incoherence or eschatological tension come more readily to mind Paul felt no such theological tension because there was none neither within his own soteriology nor in that of the Judaism from which he learned to speak of judgment according to deeds For both salvation is wholly by God's grace and the saved will be repaid i.e. saved or condemned in accordance with what they have done Thus Paul can promise eternal life to those who do good while threatening wrath upon the disobedient Rom 2:6-11 and without undermining justification by faith This thorough 1999 examination of second temple and pauline texts interacts with discussions of covenantal nomism justification and the new perspective on Paul to explore the Jewishness of the apostle's theology The Best Books: Class A, Theology. B, Mythology and folklore. C, Philosophy. 1910 William Swan Sonnenschein, 1910
