The Postimpressionists A Retrospective:

The Post-impressionists Martha Kapos,1993 In 1910 the critic Roger Fry organized an exhibition at the Grafton Galleries London of avant garde painting which included works by Cezanne Van Gogh Gauguin and Matisse This exhibition became as important a landmark in the official histories of modern art as the subsequent Armory Show in America These artists did not belong to a single unified movement defined or recognized at the time and Fry in a quandary as to what to call the exhibition and losing patience at the last minute said Oh let s just call them Post Impressionists at any rate they came after the Impressionists In this way one of the important critical categories one of the isms of modern art was born But Post Impressionism was not a name which Van Gogh Gauguin Seurat or Cezanne or any artists of the period would have applied to themselves The documents in this book many of which appear in English for the first time show how artists and critics in the aftermath of Impressionism did describe themselves how they responded to tradition to each other and to the kaleidoscope of the contemporary scene This was a period of reconsideration of moving on from aspects of Impressionism and of coming to grips with the isolation that avant garde art had imposed on the individual artist It was a period in which the emphasis within Impressionism on the construction of painting purely by means of color had left artists with the question of how the power of this basic form related to their own feelings and to nature New ideas were coming from poetry as well as painting that laid the basis for modernism These issues and the personal struggles of the artists themselves are revealed in their letters and in the writings of friends and critics many of whom such as Mallarme Laforgue Huysmans and Proust were novelists and poets This book also includes commentaries from Rainer Maria Rilke Virginia Woolf and W H Auden as well as modern critics artists philosophers and art historians Georges Bataille Paul Klee and Meyer Schapiro on Van Gogh John Berger on Bonnard Maurice Merleau Ponty Clement Greenberg Adrian Stokes and Lawrence Gowing on Cezanne The text is illustrated with 119 colorplates and 125 black and white reproductions of contemporary photographs cartoons documents prints and drawings

The Post-impressionists Martha Kapos,1993 The Post-impressionists Belinda Thomson,1983 Marketing Modernism in Fin-de-Siècle Europe Robert Jensen,2022-02-08 In this fundamental rethinking of the rise of modernism from its beginnings in the Impressionist movement Robert Jensen reveals that market discourses were pervasive in the ideological defense of modernism from its very inception and that the avant garde actually thrived on the commercial appeal of anti commercialism at the turn of the century The commercial success of modernism he argues depended greatly on possession of historical legitimacy The very development of modern art was inseparable from the commercialism many of its proponents sought to transcend Here Jensen explores the economic aesthetic institutional and ideological factors that led to its dominance in the international art world by the early 1900s He emphasizes the role of the emerging dealer gallery market and of modernist art historiographies in evaluating modern art and legitimizing it through the formation of a canon of modernist masters In describing the canon building of modern dealerships Jensen considers the new ideological dealer and explores the commercial construction of artistic identity through such rhetorical concepts as temperament and independent art and through such institutional structures as the retrospective His inquiries into the fate of the juste milieu a group of dissidents who saw themselves as true heirs of Impressionism and his look at a new form of art history emerging in Germany further expose a linear dealer oriented history of modernist art constructed by or through the modernists themselves Art + Paris Impressionists & Post-Impressionists Museyon Guides,2011-07-01 Step into the revolutionary lives of the impressionists with Art Paris the most comprehensive guidebook to impressionism for the armchair traveler lovers of Paris and educators alike Illustrated with hundreds of beautiful full color photos and maps this unique guide combines an introduction to late 19th century art history with reproductions of famous impressionist masterpieces walking tours and detailed listings of the city's art related sites It provides a complete background course on impressionism with comprehensive biographies and engaging essays about the movement listings for 150 must see impressionist paintings in Paris with the stories behind the art easy to follow tours of where the artists lived and found inspiration and an extended travel journey through the French countryside exploring Normandy and the quaint Paris suburbs Post-Impressionists in England Barrie Bullen,2024-03-08 First Published in 1988 Post impressionists in England documents the response of English taste to modern French art from the first Post Impressionist Exhibition in 1910 to the outbreak of the First World War The notion of Post Impressionism unlike its earlier counterpart Impressionism was an exclusively English contribution to art history Originally used to denote the work of Cezanne Van Gogh Gauguin Matisse and the Fauve painters it rapidly assimilated Futurism Cubism and recent English work like Vorticism By focusing on one aspect of an important and complex period in British cultural history J B Bullen illuminates not only aesthetic questions but also the way in which those aesthetic issues were determined and conditioned by social and political concerns Changes in English attitudes to art in this period were so rapid and were modified with such speed that the author has taken a strictly chronological approach to the subject He sets out clearly the month by month developments in English attitudes and traces in detail the debates about modernism in England To make matters clearer the book is divided into three major parts each complementary to the others The introduction surveys the period as a whole and places attitudes to art in the general context of the culture of the time In the second part the extracts provide selected concrete and particular examples of the huge range of material upon which the findings of the introduction are based the writers represented include Roger Fry Bernard Berenson Desmond McCarthy John Singer Sargent Walter Sickert Clive Bell Virginia Woolf and Wyndham Lewis In the third part a chronology sets out in tabular form month by month events exhibitions and major publications as they occurred in Britain and in France This is a must read for scholars and researchers of British cultural history and art history Post-Impressionists Linda Bolton,2002-10-01 Discusses the characteristics of the Post Impressionism movement which began in the late 1880s and presents biographies of fifteen Post Impressionist artists Gauguin's 'nirvana' Paul Gauguin,Wadsworth Atheneum Staff,Stephen H.

Kornhauser, Wadsworth Atheneum Museum of Art, Wadsworth Atheneum, 2001-01-01 Shortly before Gauguin made his first Tahitian journey in 1891 he spent nearly two years in the remote Breton fishing village of Le Pouldu Seeking creative isolation in a primitive setting he pursued his art accompanied by several followers One of them was the Dutch painter Meyer de Haan who was able to pay the living expenses in Le Pouldu and was also knowledgeable in literary and philosophical matters that fascinated Gauguin Their association resulted in some of Gauguin's most remarkable works including the Wadsworth Atheneum's symbolist portrait of de Haan inscribed Nirvana This and the rich variety of paintings and sculpture by Gauguin produced in 1889-90 are the focus of this beautiful book Gauguin and de Haan settled into an inn at Le Pouldu run by an attractive unwed mother named Marie Henry who began a liaison with de Haan despite the fact that he was a sickly hunchback The intensity of relations between Gauguin and de Haan is reflected in many of the works including frescoes which they installed in the inn Gauguin's time in Le Pouldu was crucial to the advancement of his art and the vivid Breton subjects and personality of Meyer de Haan remained in his imagination to reappear even during his later Tahitian period In this book several distinguished experts draw on previously unavailable sources to examine in depth the history of this period Gauguin's relationship with de Haan their interest in religion and exotic cultures and the meaning of the many innovative symbolist works they produced Clutter Cutters Vicki L. Ingham, 2004 Store it with style The Impressionists and Their Legacy Martha Kapos, 1995 The documents in this book letters and recorded comments by the artists themselves as well as selections by notable contemporaries including Baudelaire Zola Valery Mallarme Huysman Laforgue and Proust show how artists and critics during and in the aftermath of Impressionism did describe themselves how they responded to tradition to each other and to the kaleidoscope of the contemporary scene The ever expanding interpretation of Impressionism and its legacy within the changing world of twentieth century art and art criticism is examined through the writings of artists such as Leger Kandinsky Masson Matisse Bataille Klee and Hofmann as well as recent critics philosophers and art historians Accompanying the texts are 235 color plates of Impressionist and Post Impressionist masterpieces and 242 black and white reproductions of historical photographs original documents contemporary cartoons prints and drawings Jacket flap
