Daly, Lee Ann Riccardi, 2014-12-18 The fourteen essays in this volume share new and evolving knowledge theories and observations about the city of Athens or the region of Attica The contents include essays on topography architecture religion and cult sculpture ceramic studies iconography epigraphy trade and drama This volume is dedicated to John McK Camp II to acknowledge the extraordinary impact he has had on the field of Greek archaeology through his work in the Athenian Agora as a scholar of ancient Greece and as Mellon Professor at the American School of Classical Studies The contributors' work represents current research by the latest generation of scholars with ties to Athens All of the contributors were students of Professor Camp in Greece and their essays are dedicated to him in gratitude for his profound influence on their lives and careers Playing with Things Mary Weismantel, 2021-08-17 More than a thousand years ago on the north coast of Peru Indigenous Moche artists created a large and significant corpus of sexually explicit ceramic works of art They depicted a diversity of sex organs and sex acts and an array of solitary and interconnected human and nonhuman bodies To the modern eye these Moche sex pots as Mary Weismantel calls them are lively and provocative but also enigmatic creations whose import to their original owners seems impossible to grasp In Playing with Things Weismantel shows that there is much to be learned from these ancient artifacts not merely as inert objects from a long dead past but as vibrant Indigenous things alive in their own human temporality From a new materialist perspective she fills the gaps left by other analyses of the sex pots in pre-Columbian studies where sexuality remains marginalized and in sexuality studies where non-Western art is largely absent Taking a decolonial approach toward an archaeology of sexuality and breaking with long dominant iconographic traditions this book explores how the pots play jokes make babies give power and hold water considering the sex pots as actual ceramic bodies that interact with fleshly bodies now and in the ancient past A beautifully written study that will be welcomed by students as well as specialists Playing with Things is a model for archaeological and art historical engagement with the liberating power of queer theory and Indigenous studies Book Review Digest, 1927 The White Friars Collection, Containing ... The Archaeology of Volga Bulgaria in the 10th to Early 13th Centuries Konstantin A. Rudenko, 2024-11-18 This book focuses on Volga Bulgaria 10th to early 13th centuries the only Muslim state in Eastern Europe before 1300 For several centuries it operated as a bridge between the Christian West and the Muslim East As such it is widely believed that the colossal transit of oriental silver coin through the state was the foundation of the Bulgar economy while Islam consolidated statehood in the Middle Volga region Drawing on the rich archaeological record Konstantin Rudenko argues against this view demonstrating that the Bulgar culture was instead formed on the basis of its own resources The Bulgars thus represent a unique example of relatively rapid change from nomadism to sedentism and urbanization with no significant influence from neighboring developed states Cultural syncretism therefore emerged as a key characteristic of Volga Bulgaria
