The Problem Of God In Modern Philosophy:

The Problem of God in Modern Philosophy Leonardo Messinese, 2005 The Problem of God in Modern Thought Philip Clayton, 2000 It is widely believed that modern philosophers have dismissed the idea of God and opted instead for a secular humanism Challenging these stereotypes through a careful study of major philosophical texts written since the Enlightenment Philip Clayton shows how the main thinkers of the modern period have continued to wrestle with the problem of God and to make proposals for understanding the divine Following up on his award winning book God and Contemporary Science Clayton here explores the constructive resources that modern thought offers to those struggling with the notion of God as infinite and perfect He finds in the narrative of modern thought about God strong support for panentheism the new theological movement that maintains the transcendence of God while denying the separation of God and the world God in Modern Philosophy James Collins, 1978 Collins examines the main philosophical approaches taken toward God since the beginning of the fifteenth century showing the often decisive role God's existence played in development of modern philosophy Included are such diverse thinkers as Bruno Leibniz Voltaire Marx Heidegger and Whitehead The Problem of Evil in Early Modern Philosophy Elmar J. Kremer, Michael John Latzer, 2001-01-01 Many distinct controvertial issues are to be found within the labyrinthine twists and turns of the problem of evil For philosophers of the seventeenth and early eighteenth centuries evil presented a challenge to the consistency and rationality of the world picture disclosed by the new way of ideas In dealing with this challenge however philosophers were also concerned with their positions in the theological debates about original sin free will and justification that were the legacy of the Protestant Reformation to European intellectual life Emerging from a conference on the problem of evil in the early modern period held at the University of Toronto in 1999 the papers in this collection represent some of the best original work being done today on the theodicies of such early modern philosophers as Leibniz Suarez Spinoza Malebranche and Pierre Bayle Walter Kasper's Response to Modern Atheism Ralph N. McMichael, 2006 The development and pervasiveness of modern atheism as well as secularization poses an acute challenge to Christian theology Theologians have either ignored this challenge or have sought to meet it in a variety of ways Throughout his theological career Walter Kasper 1933 has maintained that theology has the mutual tasks of exposition of the Christian faith and of responding to contemporary challenges to this faith In his seminal work The God of Jesus Christ 1982 he argues that the proper Christian response to modern atheism is the confession of the Trinity In making this response Kasper begins to chart a course for all future Christian apologetics for all efforts to give an account of Christian hope 1 Peter 3:15 History of the Problems of Philosophy: pt. II. Ethics. pt. III. Metaphysics. pt. IV. Theodicy Paul Janet, Gabriel Séailles, 1902 Archbishop Fulton Sheen, the Contemporary Humanist Emmanuel K. Ngwainambi, Rev. Fr. John Berinyuy, 2023-08-30 This book is a theological reflection of Sheen's contribution to humanity and society It analyzes the modern person from the Catholic doctrinal perspective explores Fulton Sheen's perception of the contemporary individual and demonstrates that global economic religious and political crises cannot be resolved by focusing only on the mundane It further underscores some contemporary anthropological challenges and proposes a philosophy and theology of life that can enable contemporary humans to know themselves better and make life worth living The authors argue that advancements in science and technology have failed to prolong happiness people are still frustrated disillusioned cynical bored and suicidal This book enters the landscape of Sheen s controversial pause before he was sanctified and provides a lengthy liturgical extrapolation of Sheen s Christian anthropology wrestling with other thinkers and general concerns surrounding human angst in modern society A history of the problems of philosophy by P. Janet & G. Séailles, tr. by A. Monahan, ed. by H. Jones Paul Janet,1902 Basic Modern Philosophy of Religion Frederick Ferré,2013-06-19 This book provides a reasoned comprehensive understanding of what religion is as well as a clear and critical assessment of whether in the light of modern developments in philosophy contemporary thinking people can responsibly maintain religious belief in God The book is divided into three major sections the first deals with what all religions may be said to have in common the second discusses theistic religion and the issue of intellectually responsible belief in God the third examines current developments within a particular theistic religion Christianity Originally published in 1968 the book is basic both in the nature of the issues it discusses and in the clarity and comprehensiveness of its presentation it is varied in the arguments and perspectives dealt with it provides an introduction to philosophical thinking through the problems of philosophy of religion and it deals seriously with controversial movements in theology History of the Problems of Philosophy Paul Janet,Gabriel Séailles,1902
