Newman, 1968-06-30 This book contributes to an understanding of the nature of mid life transitions and crises by focusing on the unique personal meaning of the transitional experience for the individual There is an implicit structure to the way in which such a transition is experienced by the individual and this can be made explicit by the techniques and methods of the approach outlined and illustrated in the book The value of making this structure explicit is that it enables us to understand and assess the nature and dimensions of the transition whether or not it will reach crisis proportions and to assess possible intervention strategies Meaning in Mid Life Transitions should be of interest to human service practitioners as well as teachers and students of human development and behavior It evidences an integrative approach and structural framework including a series of in depth clinical and research studies The Meaning of Courtly Love Center for Medieval and Early Renaissance Studies. Fortune Is a Woman Hanna Fenichel Pitkin, 1999-10-15 Hanna Pitkin's study of Machiavelli was the first to place gender systematically at the center of its exploration of his political thought Rife with contradictions Machiavelli's writings have led commentators to characterize him as everything from a civic republican to a proto fascist Acknowledging these contradictions Pitkin shows that they reflect three distinct ways of thinking about politics each of which is tied to a different understanding of manhood In a new Afterword Pitkin discusses the book's critical reception and situates its arguments in the context of recent interpretations of Machiavelli's thought Jacket The Rhetoric of Courtship in Elizabethan Language and Literature Catherine Bates, 1992-06-18 The Rhetoric of Courtship is about the literature of the Elizabethan period with a particular focus on the literature of the court This book considers how writers and courtiers related to Elizabeth I within a system of patronage and how they portrayed this relationship in fictional courtship of poetry and prose Courtly Love in the Canterbury Tales Cindy Härcher, 2012-05-31 Seminar paper from the year 2011 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 2.7 University of Bayreuth language English abstract Courtly love embraces a beautiful lady married or unobtainable who was the object of love for a knight In general courtly love was secret and between man and woman of noble status and it was not practiced between husbands and wives Such relationships did not exist in real medieval life Marriages were mostly arranged and women were seen as property to their husbands It was more an available fiction which informed the cultural climate much as the wider conventions of chivalry did Rudd 2001: 33 This is a relatively vague definition of the topic of courtly love and it only summarizes the most important points This paper will work out the origins and the meaning of courtly love more intensive watching its first origins and its appearance in the Romance of the Rose and it will mention and describe every important characteristic These characteristics will be a guideline to show Chaucer's treatment of the topic in his work The Canterbury Tales Elements of courtly love appear in the Prologue the Knight's Tale the Merchant's Tale and in the Franklin's Tale These elements will be shown and explained Finally a conclusion will summarize the most important points

A Companion to the Queenship of Isabel la Católica Hilaire Kallendorf, 2022-11-14 The queenship of the first European Renaissance queen regnant never ceases to fascinate Was she a saint or a bigoted zealot A pious wife or the one wearing the pants Was she ultimately responsible for genocide A case has been made to canonize her Does she deserve to be called Saint Isabel As different groups from fascists to feminists continue to fight over Isabel as cultural capital we ask which if any of these recyclings are legitimate or appropriate Or has this figure taken on a life of her own Contributors to this volume Roger Boase David A Boruchoff John Edwards Emily Francomano Edward Friedman Cristina Guardiola Griffiths Michelle Hamilton Elizabeth Teresa Howe Hilaire Kallendorf William D Phillips Jr Nuria Silleras Fernandez Caroline Travalia and Jessica Weiss
