The Merchant of Prato Iris Origo, 1963 Francesco di Marco Datini the 14th century Tuscan merchant who forms the subject of the Marchesa Origo's study has now probably become the most intimately accessible figure of the later Middle Ages In 1870 the whole astonishing cache containing some 150 000 letters and great numbers of business documents came to light The Marchesa Origo has drawn on this material to paint in detail a picture of Italian domestic life on the eve of the Renaissance

Merchant of Prato Iris Origo, 2017-05-04 This extraordinary re creation of the life of a medieval Italian merchant Francesco di Marco Datini is one of the greatest historical portraits written in the twentieth century Drawing on an astonishing cache of letters unearthed centuries after Datini's death it reveals to us a shrewd enterprising anxious man as he makes deals furnishes his sumptuous house buys silks for his outspoken young wife and broods on his legacy It is an unequalled source of knowledge about the texture of daily life in the small earthy violent striving world of fourteenth century Tuscany Datini has now probably become most intimately accessible figure of the later Middle Ages brilliant and intricate The Times As a picture of Tuscany before the dawn of the Renaissance it is a complement to The Decameron Sunday Times

The Merchant of Prato Iris Origo, 2020-07-14 This intimate biography of Francesco di Marco Datini offers fascinating insights into the methods of medieval trade and vibrancy of Italian life in 14th century Tuscany For God and Profit is how the medieval merchant Francesco di Marco Datini headed a notebook in which he kept track of his business dealings and these were certainly his guiding lights Born in the 1330s in the Tuscan town of Prato Datini set out at the age of 15 for Avignon where over the course of the next 35 years he made a fortune trading in arms armor artworks wool saffron leather silk and much more Returning home he expanded his operations setting up offices all across the Mediterranean which he oversaw through an unceasing flow of correspondence When he died Datini asked that all his papers be preserved in his house In 1870 they were found a little worm eaten and mouse nibbled but largely intact in a sack under the stairs They are one of the great records not only of medieval life but of the emergence of the modern commercial world Drawing on this rich archive Iris Origo offers a wonderfully vivid account of Datini's public and private worlds The Merchant of Prato is a masterpiece of modern narrative history      The World of the Newport Medieval Ship Evan T. Jones, Richard Stone, 2018-05-14 It explores and interprets one of the most important archaeological discoveries of recent decades It comprises the most sophisticated and detailed investigation yet undertaken of the maritime world of a particular place and time It explores the relationship between history and archaeology assessing how both can contribute to the interpretation of physical remains      Princeton Alumni Weekly, 1957      The Power of a Woman's Voice in Medieval and Early Modern Literatures Albrecht Classen, 2012-02-13 The study takes the received view among scholars that women in the Middle Ages were faced with sustained misogyny and that their voices were seldom heard in public and subjects it to a critical analysis The ten chapters deal with various aspects of the question and the voices of a variety of authors both female and male are heard The study opens with an enquiry into violence against women including in texts by male writers Hartmann von Aue Gottfried von Stra burg Wolfram von Eschenbach which indeed describe instances of violence but adopt an extremely critical stance towards them It then proceeds to show how women were able to develop an independent identity in various genres and could present themselves as authorities in the public eye Mystic texts by Hildegard of Bingen Marie de France and Margery Kempe the medieval conduct poem known as Die Winsbeckin the Devout Books of Sisters composed in convents in South West Germany but also quasi historical documents such as the memoirs of Helene Kottaner or Anna Weckerin s cookery book demonstrate that far more women were in the public gaze than had hitherto been assumed and that they possessed the self confidence to establish their positions with their intellectual and their literary achievements      The Great Exchange: Making the News in Early Modern Europe Joad Raymond Wren, 2025-07-10 An epic history of the birth of news in Europe News moves It is a battle a scandal a disaster It is a letter a newspaper a proclamation News is a material thing but also something between us something we take into us and feel This book tells the story of news from the sunset of the Middle Ages to the rise of mass media in modern times It begins in Renaissance Italy with the envoys and merchants who drew in and disseminated news across Europe establishing its channels and conventions Following the beat of news around the continent it uncovers a vast invisible network traversing the boundaries of geography and politics religion and language Joad Raymond Wren allows the reader to see news of the battle of Lepanto the siege of Vienna spreading around this network in real time Dispelling the tenacious myth that news was until the printing press scarce and unreliable and until the telegraph slow and provincial he opens up windows onto a world buzzing with news from faraway News brought the distant closer and provided the means for Europe to know itself The continent was for a time held together by that most essential of human acts communication      Risky Markets Giovanni Ceccarelli, 2020-11-23 Risky Markets explores a crucial moment in the history of insurance when tools designed to tackle sea risks were in their first making Renaissance Florence is the setting for one of the first attempts to develop a market specialized in protecting maritime trade Drawing on a unique collection of sources the book provides a wide ranging account about the players institutions business practices and organizations of the insurance business shedding light on the forecasting techniques underwriters used Ceccarelli shows that the market was a small club where trust relations and shared codes of conduct prevail over competition In a world without probability this was the way by which a business community managed transforming uncertainty into a calculable risk

A Short History of Florence and the Florentine Republic Brian Jeffrey Maxson, 2023-02-23 The innovative city culture of Florence was the crucible within which Renaissance ideas first caught fire With its soaring cathedral dome and its classically inspired palaces and piazzas it is perhaps the finest single expression of a society that is still at its heart an urban one For as Brian Jeffrey Maxson reveals it is above all the city state the walled commune which became the chief driver of European commerce culture banking and art that is medieval Italy's enduring legacy to the present Charting the transition of Florence from an obscure Guelph republic to a regional superpower in which the glittering court of Lorenzo the Magnificent became the pride and envy of the continent the author authoritatively discusses a city that looked to the past for ideas even as it articulated a novel creativity Uncovering passionate dispute and intrigue Maxson sheds fresh light too on seminal events like the fiery end of oratorical firebrand Savonarola and Giuliano de' Medici's brutal murder by the rival Pazzi family This book shows why Florence harbinger and heartland of the Renaissance is and has always been unique

The Book Trade in the Italian Renaissance Angela Nuovo, 2013-06-17 This work offers the first English language survey of the book industry in Renaissance Italy Whereas traditional accounts of the book in the Renaissance celebrate authors and literary achievement this study examines the nuts and bolts of a rapidly expanding trade that built on existing economic practices while developing new mechanisms in response to political and religious realities Approaching the book trade from the perspective of its publishers and booksellers this archive based account ranges across family ambitions and warehouse fires to publishers petitions and convivial bookshop conversation In the process it constructs a nuanced picture of trading networks production and the distribution and sale of printed books a profitable but capricious commodity Originally published in Italian as Il commercio librario nell'Italia del Rinascimento Milan Franco Angeli 1998 second revised ed 2003 this present English translation has not only been updated but has also been deeply revised and augmented
