The Mere Occasional Sin:

Live Free or Die Lawfully: A devotional commentary on Galatians Joshua Wingerd, 2019-10-28 There are only two paths Freedom or Slavery Spirit or Flesh Faith or Law Blessing or Cursing Life or Death Which path are you on This is Paul's argument in the first letter he ever wrote under the Spirit's inspiration He wants his readers then and now to live in the path of freedom and life The Galatians had traded salvation by grace alone through faith alone for a gospel of works of Law Paul has some seemingly harsh words for them because to replace grace with anything else is to destroy the Gospel of Jesus Christ The Works of Thomas Goodwin, D.D. Thomas Goodwin (D.D.), 1865 I, II, & III John Judith M.

Lieu, 2008-09-02 The New Testament's three letters attributed to John have always provided remarkable theological riches for the Christian tradition including the assertion God is love Each letter shows how an early Christian author responded to threats against authority by recourse to the correct teachings of the faith and a proper understanding of the relationship between Jesus and God Together these letters argue for a bond of unity among believers based on fidelity to the truth of God The New Testament Library offers authoritative commentary on every book and major aspect of the New Testament as well as classic volumes of scholarship The commentaries in this series provide fresh translations based on the best available ancient manuscripts offer critical portrayals of the historical world in which the books were created pay careful attention to their literary design and present a theologically perceptive exposition of the text The Young Woman's Journal, 1901
