Arts and Preaching Sunggu A. Yang, 2021-09-03 In our highly sensory and interactive age, how might drawing upon various arts—music, film, architecture, dramatic performance, painting, fashion, and more—expand the aesthetic experience and mode of preaching? This book presents a critical practical answer to the question. As our society becomes more visually oriented, art seeking, and body positive, the practice of preaching is likewise challenged to demonstrate the mind-body-word-visual and artistic proclamation of the Sacred; after all, isn't the writing of the Bible itself highly artful and aesthetic? In this book, Sunggu A. Yang, a seasoned preacher and experienced teacher of preaching, encourages preachers to utilize their unique artistic talents as critical sources of theological and homiletical imagination and as hermeneutical, perspectival tools to aid their rigorous exegetical process of interpreting Scripture eventually toward artistic, holistic sermon composition and delivery. A sample syllabus included in the appendix will greatly assist any preaching instructor who wants to offer a creative course on arts and preaching.

The Message Behind the Movie Douglas M. Beaumont, 2009-05-01 Some Christians denounce nearly every move that Hollywood produces; others celebrate even the most morally and artistically questionable. While most Christians can agree on the cultural importance of films, very few are able to interpret movies with insight and understanding. Apologetics professor and film lover Doug Beaumont wants moviegoers to become more informed viewers by better grasping the cinematic techniques and genre considerations that filmmakers use to communicate their central themes. He also wades into hot-button issues of nudity, violence, and language in movies, helping Christians to more carefully evaluate celluloid depictions of sin. Packed with quotes and excerpts from many of Hollywood's most successful films and from some of the indie favorites that have gained cult followings, The Message Behind the Movie is a fun and enlightening look at the art from that defines our age.

The Films of Joseph Losey James Palmer, Michael Riley, 1993-06-25 The career of the expatriate director is re-examined through an analysis of King and Country, The Servant, Accident, The Go Between, and The Romantic Englishwoman. The Challenge of the Silver Screen Freek L. Bakker,2009-09-30 In 1897 only two years after the invention of film the first feature film about Jesus appeared This and other films about Jesus became examples for and an inspiration for films on other important religious figures like Rama Buddha and Muhammad Although religious leaders did not always approve of these films they did find a ready audience among believers This book explores these films and looks at how these films dealt with the fundamental question of portraying an individual thought to have either divine status or a very special and unique status among human beings This book will thus benefit not only students of religious film but also those studying the portrayal of central religious figures in the contemporary world

Film as Cultural Artifact Mathew P. John,2017-06-15 Film is popularly described as a mirror of culture It plays a pivotal role in facilitating intercultural dialogue in our global village World cinema helps us understand and appreciate each other s cultural identity and promotes harmony across different cultures in our pluralistic society It introduces us to the life of the other in an entertaining yet engaging fashion creating cultural bridges that foster a sense of unity in the midst of our diversity This book argues that cultural anthropology and theology offer two distinct yet intrinsically connected theoretical frameworks to formulate a more holistic reading of religion from world cinema It proposes an integrated methodology for religious criticism of film in which we look at religion as a subsystem of culture and observe how religious experiences depicted on the screen are mediated through the personal bias of the auteur and the context in which the film is produced It thus creates a renewed appreciation for the religious diversity in our world by providing a new way of observing and interpreting ethnographic information from world cinema
