The Metaphysical Quest Paul Gaffney, Arthur Gianelli, 1995      Discourse in Dialogue Pat F. Rossi, 2014-07-24

Discourse in Dialogue Reflections in Fundamental Philosophical Theology is a project which considers fundamental theological and philosophical perspectives in Catholic Christian theology This project adumbrates a number of specifically intellectual themes namely philosophical and theological in character which pertain to the Catholic Christian tradition These themes include a study of the following the interrelationship of philosophy and theology theological method and pluralism the interpretation of scripture and its underlying hermeneutical principles Christian anthropology in relation to philosophy of the human person the Christological mystery and soteriology as well as the nature of Christian Philosophy all of which are representative themes proper to fundamental philosophical theology This work serves as an introductory text to the above cited questions while also providing more specific points of study for those interested in a more comprehensive reflection on contemporary philosophical and theological perspectives      The Metaphysics of Historical Jesus Research Jonathan

Rowlands, 2015-10-15 In this book Rowlands interrogates the theological and philosophical foundations of the Quest for the historical Jesus from Reimarus to the present day culminating in a call for greater metaphysical transparency and diversity in the discipline This multidisciplinary approach to historical Jesus research drawing on historiography sociology philosophy and theology makes a significant and original contribution to the field Part I outlines the implicit role of metaphysical presuppositions in historical methodology by examining the concept of an historiographical worldview Part II provides an overview of the Quest for the historical Jesus demonstrating that the disparate historiographical worldviews operative in the Quest evidence a particular shared characteristic in that they might accurately be described as secular Rowlands study concludes with a call for a greater plurality and openness regarding the philosophical and theological presuppositions at work in historical Jesus research The Metaphysics of Historical Jesus Research is of interest to students and scholars working on New Testament studies and historical Jesus research      The Metaphysical Foundations of American History Roland Van

Zandt, 1959      Contemporary Issues in Islam and Science Muzaffar Iqbal, 2017-05-15 The articles selected for this volume explore emergent issues in the contemporary relationship between Islam and science and present studies of eight major voices in the discourse Also included is a section on the operationalization of Islamic science in the modern world and a section on studies in traditional Islamic cosmology      The Enigma of Life's Genesis: Challenging Contemporary

Theories Pasquale De Marco, 2025-04-16 The Enigma of Life's Genesis Challenging Contemporary Theories takes readers on an intellectual journey to explore the profound mystery of life's origins This thought provoking book challenges prevailing paradigms and offers fresh perspectives on the scientific inquiry into the emergence of life With meticulous scrutiny the authors delve into the complexities of biological systems examining the limitations of chemical evolution theories They dissect influential experiments and hypotheses such as the Miller Urey experiments and the RNA world hypothesis revealing their shortcomings and inconsistencies The book explores the intriguing possibility of panspermia the notion that life may have originated elsewhere in the universe and been transported to Earth It also delves into the harmony between science and faith dispelling the myth of conflict and proposing a new paradigm for understanding their relationship The Enigma of Life s Genesis unveils new frontiers of discovery examining the potential of artificial life and addressing the ethical and philosophical implications of extraterrestrial life It challenges conventional wisdom embraces new ideas and envisions a path forward for origin of life studies that is both rigorous and awe inspiring This book is an essential read for anyone seeking to deepen their understanding of the origin of life explore the boundaries of knowledge and ponder the fundamental question Where do we come from It is a captivating blend of scientific inquiry philosophical contemplation and intellectual curiosity that will leave readers enlightened and inspired If you like this book write a review on google books      The Challenge of History Christophe Chalamet,2020-04-07 The advent of the modern historical and critical methods of reading Scripture is one of the most significant events in the last five hundred years of Christian history and theology New questions arose in the course of that history that led to new sometimes troubling answers New ways of considering Scripture were articulated The crisis in which academic Christian theology has found itself for approximately two hundred years is directly related to the emergence of new ways of studying and criticizing the Bible The Challenge of History traces the trajectory of these developments presenting key readings from over thirty five theologians from Erasmus to Pannenberg whose writings relate to the birth of modern historical and critical exegesis and more broadly to the emergence among theologians and biblical scholars of a certain historical consciousness that characterizes vast segments of modernity How did the historical and critical methods arise How did they impact the study of Scripture What are their implications for Christian theology Scripture is read and needs to be read differently in a parish in a monastery and in an academic setting But the various ways of approaching Scripture should not be cordoned off from one another This volume is an ideal textbook for in depth study of one of the most important topics in modern theology      Problems in Modern Latin American History James A. Wood,Anna Rose,2019-02-12 Now in its fifth edition this leading reader has been updated with new readings and visual sources This edition includes an added final chapter on current social movements to help students reflect on the ecological realities that inform their world In addition the Legacies of Colonialism chapter has been restored to give students an understanding of the deep roots of the problems explored Instead of a separate chapter on women and social change women s voices have been woven more seamlessly throughout the book to reflect women s parity and equity in history With its innovative combination of primary and secondary sources and thoughtful editorial analysis this text is designed specifically to stimulate critical thinking in a wide range of courses on Latin American history since independence      Jacques Derrida and the Challenge of History Sean Gaston,2018-11-23 This important new book argues that Jacques Derrida s work can be treated as the basis for a distinctive historiography The possibility of seeing Derrida not as a philosopher of language but as a philosopher of history has become more apparent with the recent publication of Derrida's 1964-1965 seminar Heidegger: The Question of Being and History. We now know that the problem of history was at the heart of Derrida's writing in the mid 1960s prior to the publication of his best known work Of Grammatology (1967). Arguing that Derrida's scholarship in the 1960s and early 1970s on historicism, historicity and the problem of history can be treated as the basis for a philosophy of history, Sean Gaston focuses on Derrida's work from the mid 1970s to the mid 1990s and his relentless questioning of context, memory and narrative as the delineation of a deconstructive historiography. The book raises a challenge for historians to think about both deconstruction and historiography, arguing that contemporary philosophy can provide a basis for thinking about history in the name of a deconstructive historiography that is not incompatible with rigorous historical scholarship. Emerson's Metaphysics Joseph Urbas, 2016-10-12 This book gives the first complete, fully historicized account of Emerson's metaphysics of cause and effect and its foundational position in his philosophy as a whole. Urbas tells the story of the making of a metaphysician and in so doing breaks with the postmodern, anti-metaphysical readings that have dominated Emerson scholarship since his philosophical rehabilitation began in the late 1970s. This is an intellectual biography of Emerson the metaphysician but also a chapter in the cultural life story of a concept synonymous in the Transcendentalist period with life itself: the story of the principle at the origin of all being and change. Emerson's Metaphysics proposes an account of Emerson's metaphysical thought as it unfolds in his writings, as it informs his philosophy as a whole and as it reflects the intellectual and religious culture in which he lived and moved and had his being. This book will be of interest to philosophers, literary scholars and students of English philosophy and intellectual and religious history who are interested in Emerson and the American Transcendentalist movement.

The Dreamweaver's Path: Spiritual Journeys in Forgotten Lands Pastor Yves Gerard, The Dreamweaver's Path: Spiritual Journeys in Forgotten Lands In the hushed whispers of twilight when the veil between the mundane and the mystical thins, there exists a realm where dreams intertwine with reality: a realm known as the Forgotten Lands. Here ancient spirits roam and the echoes of lost civilizations resonate through the windswept valleys. It is within this enigmatic landscape that our journey begins, guided by the ethereal presence of a Dreamweaver, a figure shrouded in mystery and wisdom. Imagine a young seeker named Elara whose heart was burdened by the weight of unfulfilled dreams. One fateful evening as shadows danced upon her walls, she stumbled upon an ancient tome hidden beneath the roots of an ancient oak. The pages whispered secrets of forgotten paths and spiritual awakenings that beckoned her to embark on a quest beyond her wildest imaginings. With each turn of the page, Elara felt an irresistible pull toward the Forgotten Lands, a place where time stood still and souls were reborn. As she stepped into this mystical realm, Elara was greeted by a kaleidoscope of colors and sounds that transcended her earthly experiences. The air shimmered with possibility and every step she took resonated with the heartbeat of the universe. Yet it was not without peril; shadows lurked in corners where light dared not tread. The Dreamweaver appeared before her, a figure cloaked in starlight offering guidance through trials that would test her spirit and resolve In The Dreamweaver s Path we will traverse these forgotten landscapes alongside Elara exploring themes of self discovery resilience and transformation Each chapter unveils not only Elara s personal odyssey but also invites readers to reflect on their own spiritual journeys As we delve deeper into these mystical realms we will uncover profound truths about existence itself truths that have been long obscured by time yet are waiting to be rediscovered by those brave enough to seek them Join us as we embark on this extraordinary adventure into the heart of forgotten lands where dreams are woven into reality

Disability's Challenge to Theology Devan Stahl,2022-08-15 Disability s Challenge to Theology uses insights from disability studies to understand in a deeper way the ethical implications that genetic technologies pose for Christian thought Theologians have been debating genetic engineering for decades but what has been missing from many theological debates is a deep concern for persons with genetic disabilities In this ambitious and stimulating book Devan Stahl argues that engagement with metaphysics and a theology of nature is crucial for Christians to evaluate both genetic science and the moral use of genetic technologies such as human genetic engineering gene therapy genetic screenings preimplantation genetic diagnosis and gene editing Using theological notions of creation ex nihilo and natural law alongside insights from disability studies Stahl seeks to recast the debate concerning genetic well being Following the work of Stanley Hauerwas Stahl proposes the church as the locus for reimagining disability in a way that will significantly influence the debates concerning genetic therapies Christianity has all too frequently been complicit in excluding degrading and marginalizing people with disabilities but the new Christian metaphysics developed here provides normative theological guidance on the use of genetic technologies today Only by heeding the voices of people with disabilities can Christians remain faithful to the call to find Christ in the least of these and from there draw closer to God

The Challenge of Evil William Greenway,2016-12-02 Belief in God in the face of suffering is one of the most intractable problems of Christian theology Many respond to the spiritual challenge of evil by ignoring it blaming God or insisting on the inherent meaninglessness of life In this book William Greenway contends that we don t have to deny our moral selves by either ignoring evil or abandoning our moral sensibilities toward it We can open our eyes fully to suffering and evil and our own complicity in them We can do so because it is only in this full acceptance of the world s guilt and our own that we make ourselves fully open to agape to being seized by love of others and God Inspired by the Jewish philosopher Emmanuel Levinas and the Christian novelist Fyodor Dostoyevsky The Challenge of Evil lovingly explains how we can look squarely at the overwhelming suffering in the world and still by grace have faith in a good and loving God

Private Households and Public Politics in 3rd-5th Century Jewish Palestine Alexei Sivertsev,2002 Alexei Sivertsev examines the nature of the Jewish aristocratic households and their public functions during the later Roman and Byzantine periods third to fifth centuries C E The author first discusses the nature of the Jewish patriarchate during the third century C E He argues that the family of patriarchs nesi im is best understood as a local city based aristocratic clan It emerged along with other contemporary clans as a result of the gradual conversion of the national aristocracy of the once independent Judean state into the municipal aristocracy of the Roman province of Palaestina in the course of the first to second centuries C E In the second part of this book Alexei Sivertsev addresses the specific public functions performed by Jewish aristocratic clans such as judicial religious administrative and legislative He also demonstrates the continuity that existed in this respect between the Second Commonwealth aristocratic clans and those of the rabbinic period Finally the third part of this study deals with the process leading to the integration of the local native aristocracies of the Roman Near East into the centralized administrative system created by the Emperors starting with Constantine the Great This process is analyzed specifically regarding the example of the Jewish ruling elite The main question in this section is the degree to which the local administrative apparatus of the newly created Byzantine bureaucracy developed out of the traditional and clan based public institutions which had existed locally throughout the Roman period Foundations of Faith Discovering Our Spiritual Heritage Rev Jeff P

History Making History William Dean,1988-10-11 This book recognizes that the postmodern new historicism leads to a value neutral relativism and leaves theology with an impossible choice Dean argues that the postmodern challenge is incoherent and ineffective unless it is reinterpreted in terms of its classical American roots Before offering a third option Dean defends the neopragmatism of Richard Rorty Richard Bernstein Nelson Goodman Hilary Putnam Cornel West and Jeffrey Stout the deconstructivism of Jacques Derrida and Mark Taylor and the recent theology of Gordon Kaufman The third option opening up a new possibility for American theology is the radical empiricism of William James and John Dewey and the precedent of the Chicago School Issues in Spiritual Formation in Early Lifespan Contexts Martin Ubani,Sari
