Stages of Life Alberto Sandoval-Sánchez,Nancy Saporta Sternbach,2023-01-10 Latina theater and solo performance emerged in the 1990s as vibrant energetic new genres found on stages from New York to Los Angeles Many women now work in all aspects of Latina theater often as playwrights or solo performers with practitioners ranging from teenagers to grandmothers Alberto Sandoval S nchez and Nancy Saporta Sternbach have previously published a groundbreaking anthology of Latina theater Puro Teatro They now offer a critical analysis of theatrical works presenting a theoretical perspective from which to examine understand and contextualize Latina theater as a genre in its own right This is the first in depth study of the entire corpus of Latina theater based on close readings of works both published and in manuscript It considers a large body of productions and performances including works by such internationally known authors as Dolores Prida Cherr e Moraga and Janis Astor del Valle Applying feminist and postcolonial theory as well as theories of transculturation Sandoval S nchez and Sternbach show how despite cultural differences among Latinas their works share a common poetics by building upon the politics of representation identity and location In addition to covering theater this study also shows that solo performance has its own history properties structure and poetics It examines performances of Carmelita Tropicana Monica Palacios and Marga Gomez artists whose hybrid identities as Latina lesbians constitute living examples of transculturation in the making to show how solo performance has roots in and digresses from more traditional modes of theater With their Latina heritage as a unifying link these women reflect common traits patterns dramatic structures and properties that overcome regional differences Stages of Life reads these eclectic cultural productions as a unified body of work that contributes to the formation of Latina identity in America today

Cuban-Jewish Journeys Caroline Bettinger-López, 2000 Between ten and fifteen thousand persons of Cuban Jewish heritage currently live in Miami Until now however this vibrant community and its unique traditions have to a large extent escaped the notice of ethnographers historians and other scholars In Cuban Jewish Journeys Caroline Bettinger L pez remedies that neglect with an engaging in depth look at a people whose rich mix of cultures confounds typical ethnic images The author begins by investigating the history and development of the Cuban Jewish community tracing its origins back to Jewish enclaves in Eastern Europe Russia and the Mediterranean She explores how these people came to Cuba in the first half of the twentieth century and how they eventually resettled in the United States as part of the larger Cuban migration that followed Fidel Castro s 1959 revolution In recounting this history Bettinger L pez draws heavily on numerous stories told to her by Cuban Jews in Miami and elsewhere Those oral histories also form the basis of Bettinger L pez s subsequent exploration of the identity and assimilation issues facing Jewbans as many in Miami began calling themselves in the 1970s She found that place and date of birth for instance may affect an individual s identification with a particular homeland and political ideology which may in turn influence how the individual remembers Cuban Jewish history The future of Miami s Jewban community she suggests now lies in the hands of a generation that for the most part has grown up within the United States Already the community is transforming itself linguistically culturally and religiously to accommodate the younger generation Skillfully interweaving historical analysis personal reflections inter generational stories theories of diaspora photographs and current debates on ethnographic writing Cuban Jewish Journeys will appeal not only to scholars but to anyone interested in the ever changing face of multicultural America The Author Caroline Bettinger L pez a native of Miami studied anthropology at the University of Michigan Since her graduation she has worked in various teaching and social service positions in Miami Most recently she has taught disadvantaged children in Haiti
