The Minaret Of Djam An Excursion In Afghanistan:

The Minaret of Djam Freya Stark, 1970      Culture and Customs of Afghanistan Hafizullah Emadi, 2005-06-30 Afghanistan has been at the crossroads of many cultures and civilizations occupying a unique place in the cultural geography of Central Asia. Invading tribes and armies passed through ancient Afghanistan and left their imprint on the culture, customs, and way of life there. In recent history, Afghanistan has been the focus of international attention since the Soviet invasion and occupation of 1979-1989, the brutal civil war that ensued, and the subsequent U.S. invasion to topple the Taliban regime. As the country struggles to stabilize and rebuild, this volume is the first to reveal the people and ways of life that have been in flux for so long. Emadi brings an insider's knowledge and authority to the accessible narrative. Students and general readers will find a clear explanation of the land, people, economy, social stratification, and history as context for the chapters that follow. In the chapter on Religion and Religious Thought, the predominant Islamic religion is largely intertwined with political events that have brought Afghanistan such attention. The lesser-known literature and the arts are brought to light next. A strong Architecture, Housing, and Settlements chapter highlights many styles unfamiliar to most Westerners. Coverage of Afghan cooking and cuisine brings a more intimate understanding of the culture. The chapter on Family, Women, and Gender will draw readers in with its survey of how the family works, what is expected of women, and what courtship, marriage, childrearing, and education are like today. A standout of the Festivals and Leisure Activities chapter is the vivid rendering of the sport called Buzkashi, where men on horseback vie to move an animal carcass across a field to a goal. A final chapter on Lifestyles, Media, and Education describes the urban vs. rural lifestyles, the state of communications, and the prospects for schooling post-Taliban. A country map, glossary, resource guide, and photos complement the text.

Literary License and the West's Romance with Afghanistan Zubeda Jalalzai, 2023-11-13 Literary License and the West's Romance with Afghanistan analyzes the role literature and poetic sensibility played in colonial British and American writings on Afghanistan from the nineteenth through the twenty-first centuries. It also considers the role that literature and literariness itself have played in western discourses framing Afghanistan. The British Romantic Orientalists of the 19th century studied the region in depth and were drawn to what they perceived as an alien space where they could remake themselves in print and in life. These writers and those who followed, including scholars, civil servants, and wives or professional women, were inspired by the region and sometimes crossed ethnic, national, and imaginative boundaries. This book explores the connections that were forged in print through fantastic and familiar assumptions regarding the region and its people.

An Unexpected Light Jason Elliot, 2001-11-17 Aware of the risks involved but determined to explore what he could of the Afghan people and culture, Elliot leaves the relative security of the capital Kabul.
