

The Plains Of Caroni

J. W. Lynch

The Plains Of Caroni:

Across the Plains of Caroni J. W. Lynch, 198? The Plains of Caroni Samuel Selvon, 1985 Shades of Empire in Colonial and Post-Colonial Literatures, 2021-11-01 The scope of the articles in Shades of Empire in Colonial and Post Colonial Literatures which are arranged in a broad sweep from East to West with four short papers nestled in the middle on the theme of colonialism and motherhood is extensive and varied But in one way or another they all reflect the growing importance of literatures and cultures that might once have been regarded as marginal During the colonial period the literature of the centre took possession of the margin as well as of the imagination of the margin But only recently has the question been raised as to why traditional English literary history has paid so little attention to colonial literature Now post colonial literatures are writing themselves back into the centre and what used to be the margins of the English language world have now set themselves up as rival centres An interesting question to arise from this is whether in the process the former colonial or colonizing literature has now itself turned into a post colonial literature What this book affirms is the importance and interest of a wide variety of literatures sharing a language but reflecting a rich and provocative diversity of histories experiences and attitudes to the shared world which still also divides us Forestry Policies in the Caribbean Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 1998-01-01 The Novels of Samuel Selvon Roydon Salick, 2001-04-30 The author of such works as A Brighter Sun 1952 The Lonely Londoners 1956 and The Plains of Caroni 1970 West Indian novelist Samuel Selvon is attracting growing amounts of scholarly attention Nonetheless criticism of his works has largely been imbalanced with most scholarship focusing primarily on his language This book corrects that imbalance by placing Selvon's novels within historical sociological and ideological contexts A new interpretation of Selvon's achievement as a novelist the volume looks for the first time at his works in terms of categories of novels peasant middle class and immigrant The book demonstrates that each category is different from the others and that novels within categories are similar Thus it provides a coherent vision of Selvon's canon It illustrates as well the development of Selvon's philosophy of West Indians as peasant bourgeois and immigrant In doing so it explores the significance of ethnicity in his works and discusses Selvon's imaginative apotheosis of the Indo Trinidadian peasant and the diminution of the Afro Trinidadian immigrant The volume also studies Selvon's fictional and rhetorical techniques and argues that his works range from Bildungsroman to picaresque to epic to satire Across the plains of Caroni J. W. Lynch, 197? Decolonization and the Other Sharon C. Sewell, 2010-04-16 In 1962 Jamaica and Trinidad and Tobago became independent countries Barbados followed in 1966 In the years leading up to these events the history of the British West Indies was written largely by the British the colonial power who focused on the process of decolonization and the key local players involved After independence local scholars also focused on the role of political leaders in the newly independent countries To date scholars have paid little attention to the impact of these events on the local populations of these islands Decolonization and the Other The Case of the British West

Indies explores the local perspectives on and reactions to events by using West Indian literature to supplement the historical record Beginning in the 1930s when local demands for political participation increased through the process of decolonization and into the early years of independence West Indian writers used their life experiences to document local reaction West Indian literature first appeared in 1950 when British publishers became interested in island authors and their novels By using the novels to supplement the historical record we can gain a better understanding of the process of decolonization and the early years of independence in the British West Indies

Critical Perspectives on Sam Selvon Susheila Nasta, 1988 This groundbreaking study of prolific Trinidadian writer Sam Selvon includes background essays interviews with Selvon and critical assessments of his ten novels and collected short stories An extensive bibliography and notes on the contributors are included In addition to Sam Selvon the contributors to the work include Whitney Balliett Harold Barratt Edward Baugh Frank Birbalsingh E K Brathwaite Edith Efron Michel Fabre Anson Gonzalez Louis James George Lamming Bruce F Macdonald Peter Nazareth V S Naipaul Sandra Paquet Jeremy Poynting Isabel Quigley Kenneth Ramchand Eric Roach Gordon Rohlehr Andrew Salkey Clancy Sigal Derek Walcott Edward Wilson and Francis Wyndham

A History of Literature in the Caribbean: English- and Dutch-speaking countries Albert James Arnold, Julio Rodríguez-Luis, J. Michael Dash, 2001-01-01 For the first time the Dutch speaking regions of the Caribbean and Suriname are brought into fruitful dialogue with another major American literature that of the anglophone Caribbean The results are as stimulating as they are unexpected The editors have coordinated the work of a distinguished international team of specialists Read separately or as a set of three volumes the History of Literature in the Caribbean is designed to serve as the primary reference book in this area The reader can follow the comparative evolution of a literary genre or plot the development of a set of historical problems under the appropriate heading for the English or Dutch speaking region An extensive index to names and dates of authors and significant historical figures completes the volume The subeditors bring to their respective specialty areas a wealth of Caribbeanist experience Vera M Kutzinski is Professor of English American and Afro American Literature at Yale University Her book Sugar's Secrets Race and The Erotics of Cuban Nationalism 1993 treated a crucial subject in the romance of the Caribbean nation Ineke Phaf Rheinberger has been very active in Latin American and Caribbean literary criticism for two decades first at the Free University in Berlin and later at the University of Maryland The editor of A History of Literature in the Caribbean A James Arnold is Professor of French at the University of Virginia where he founded the New World Studies graduate program Over the past twenty years he has been a pioneer in the historical study of the N gritude movement and its successors in the francophone Caribbean
